ENCLYCLOPAEDIC DICTIONARY.

Important to Readers.

The Tribune

NNOUNCES that it has secured, through co-operation with THE NEW YORK NEWSPAPER SYNDICATE, exclusive control, for the benefit of its readers, of a limited number of sets of that great universal refer-

Encyclopaedic Dictionary.

FOUR MASSIVE VOLUMES, 5,357 Pages. Weight About 40 Pounds.

> Which, as its name implies, is at once a Dictionary and an Encyclopaedia.

These few sets are now available because of a decision on the part of the American publishers to distribute through the newspapers at a nominal price a certain number of introductory sets to advertise the work and for comparison with other Dictionaries and Encyclopaedias before the public.

The Encyclopaedic Dictionary has been produced under the editorial guidance of a distinguished body of scholars, among whom were Professor Huxley and Professor Proctor. The revisions and additions necessary to adapt it to American uses have been most carefully and thoroughly wrought out under the editorial supervision of an extensive corps of eminent American scholars, scientists and specialists, the work being brought thoroughly up-to-date in every particular until it stands today the DICTIONARY OF DICTIONARIES, being also a COMPREHENSIVE ENCYCLOPAEDIA, and in every respect invaluable for the home, library, office and study.

These Few Introductory Sets, each comprising four massive volumes, containing about six thousand pages with illustrations, will be distributed to those who first apply on terms unheard of in the history of newspaper enterprise.

It Is Only Necessary to Make the First Payment and the complete set of four superby volumes in cloth binding will be delivered at once; the balance to be paid at the rate of $1.50 per month, for one year, or at a rate of about FIVE CENTS PER DAY.

These Remarkaby Favorable Terms apply only to the few introductory sets, for when these are gone a set of the books will cost $42.00, which is the regular subscription price.

The Volumes Are Mechanically Perfect, they are beautifully printed, handsomely bound and make a perfect addition to any library. If the work is not in every respect as represented the volumes may be returned at any time within ten days and

Prompt Action is of Course Necessary, as the introductory sets at so low a price and on such easy terms of payment will be quickly al-

Inspection of Volumes is Invited, in order to aid you in coming to a quick decision, which will be absolutely necessary under the circumstances. The work may be seen at 708 MEAR'S BLDG, or sample pages will be sent on application.

How to Secure This Magnificent Work Upon receipt of first payment the entire set of four superb volumes, bound in cloth, will be forwarded. The balance to be paid at the rate of $1.50 monthly for one year. The work will be supplied in half Russia for $2.00 monthly, and in full sheep for $2.50 monthly. At the time of sending your first payment please designate the style of binding you desire, and indicate how you wish the volumes sent. Remember, the entire set is sent when the fist payment is received, and you, therefore, have the use and benefit of the volumes during the whole year you are paying for them.
