"OLD FELLOWS" WIN AGAIN.

Alumni Defeat Undergraduates of the School of the Lackawanna.

Again the annual foot ball game be-tween the Alumni and Undergraduates of the School of the Lackawanna results in a victory for the "old fellows." A good sized audience, which included representatives of many of scranton's most prominent families, witnessed the contest at Athletic park Saturday and applauded heartily the playing of Scranton's heroes of the college grid-iron and diamond: Laurie Bliss, of Yale; John J. Murphy, of Georgetown; John H. Brooks, Art Gunster, W. C. Williams and James Blair, Jr., of Princeton, and the others of lesser re-Princeton, and the others of lesser to nown. The score was twelve to six. Touchdowns were made by Murphy. Bliss and Gunster for the Alumni, and by Phillips for the Undergraduates. The teams lined up as follows:

GRAVE CHARGES AGAINST JURORS

Affidavit Filed by Attorney W. H. Stan. ton Saturday.

STATEMENTS THAT HE MAKES

Alleges That Some of the Jarors Who Passed Upon the Sowka-Snyter Ejectment Case were Tampered With--Judge Guuster Revoked a Former Order Refusing a New Trial After Hearing the Affidavit.

Charges of embracery impeaching three jurymen and the parties repre-senting the defense in the Sowka-Snysenting the defense in the Sowka-Sny-ter ejectment case, which was decided in favor of the defendant one week ago last Tuesday in civil court, were on Saturday made by ex-Judge Stan-ton, attorney for the plaintin, in an affidavit accompanying a petition for a new trial. The affidavit was as fol-

W. H. Stanton, being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say that he is of counsel for plaintiff in said case: That there was a trial of said case last Tuesday and a verdict in favor of defendant was rendered on Wednesday morning.

That the deponent believes that said verdict was corruptly obtained and that embracery was practiced on behalf of defendant, causing such a verdict to be returned.

That the desonent did not meet his client after the trial until about il o'clock a. m. of Friday, the fith inst.

That his client then fold deponent that he wished him to apply for a new trial on the ground that he heart that a certain influential citizen of Scanton had been talking to jurors in the interest of the defendant before the trial.

WHAT A JUROR SAID. That the deponent before complying all the said instructions directed his elient

FORMER ORDER REVOKED,

Judge Gunster forthwith revoked the former order refusing a new trial. The case was for the recovery of five feet of a South Side lot. Mathias Sowka and Micelia Snyter bought the lot jointly and in the division Sowka re-ceived the rear portion. It was a 140-foot lot and had a ten-foot reservation. Sowka received as his portion only 70 feet. He thought he should have 75

That same day Judge Stanton gleaned the information on which he bases his charges, and was heard to declare to a group in the court room that he had heard that the jury had been tampered with and that he proposed to follow the matter up as there was, to his mind, no use of practicing in court when cases could be tried and decided in a bar room.

SCRANTON CHINAMEN DETAINED.

Local Example of Workings of the Exclusion Act.

A Scranton Chinaman is now being held at Port Burlington, Vermont, pending an investigation as to his right to re-entry after a trip aboard He avers that he is a merchant, a mem-ber of the firm of Hong Gong & Co. of Spruce street, and that he went to the Flowery ngdom on a business trip.
Postmaster Vandling received this information Saturday in the following

Port Burlington, Vt., Dec. 4, 1896.
Postmaster, Scranton, Pa.
Sir:—Enclosed please find papers of a Chinese person purporting to be a merchant and member of the firm of hiong Gong & Co., of your city. Please investigate the statements in the enclosed papers and advise this office of the standing and credibility of the witnesses; also the standing of the iirm, and whether or not the applicant performed any manual liabor other than was necessary in the performance of his duties as a merchant during the next year prior to his departure from Port Burlington, Vt., Dec. 4, 1896. the next year prior to his departure from the United States.

The letter was signed by the deputy revenue collector of Port Burlington. The papers beferred to were his cer-tificate of registration and a copy of the photograph, filed with the inter-nal revenue collector of this district. The photograph, which the Port Eurlington authorities forwarded, and which, of course, was a likeness of the detained Chinaman, was found to cor-respond with one on file in the internal revenue office here. It was also established that he was a circular route to reach home does not appear, but it is probable that he landed in British America and went across the continent in the belief that he would be liable to meet with less trouble in entering by way of an eastern state than a western state, where the antipathy to Chinamen is just a trifle greater than hereabouts.

LAW BREAKERS SENTENCED.

Penalties That Judge Gunster Imposed in Court Yesterday.

Judge Gunster was on the bench Saturday and imposed sentences on persons convicted at last week's ses-sion of criminal court. Clement Ar-

Julius Witoski was sentenced, to serve three months in the county jail price on holiday goods this week.

for assault and battery on Stanislaus

James P. Kellev, of Bellevue, was James P. Kelley, of Bellevue, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and un-dergo imprisonment in the county jail for thirty days; and John Henley, for fighting with Kelley, was ordered to pay a fine of $25 and sentenced to thirty days in jail. Ellen Henley was sen-tenced to pay a fine of $5 for assisting her husband in beating Kelley.

Edward Day will serve three months in jall for turning a switch on the Del-aware, Lackawanna and Western raliroad and making a wreck liable. Stephen Mackerel, of Grassy Island, was sentenced to pay a fine of $29 to the Blakely poor district, and $1.25 a week toward the support of Elizabeth Fitzsimmons' child until it arrives at the age of 7 years.

CONTRACTOR'S FALL.

Fell From the Top of the Colliery Engineer Building and Now Lies in a Doubtful Condition.

Edward Bowle, of the firm of Muldoon & Bowie, contractors, was very seriously and, perhaps, fatally injured Saturday afternoon by falling from the top of the new building being built for the Colliery Engineer company in the rear of Wyoming avenue, between Mul-berry and Vine streets. The hight of his fall was about forty feet.

He struck the ground on his right side and that arm and leg were fractured. He was otherwise bruised and the shock of the fall rendered him uncon-scious, from which he had not rallied up to a late hour last night. He was brought to the Moses Taylor hospital and a statement made by Dr. Smith, the superintendent, yesterday regard-ing Mr. Bowie, was that unless a de-cided change for the better occurs within forty-ight hours from the time of the accident, then the chances are against him.

Mr. Bowie is a married man and has comfortable home at 618 Pine street.

That the deponent before complying with said instructions directed his clients who talked the English language very imperfectly and brokenly, to take with him one of his country men who understood and could talk the English language well to investigate and verify further the facts relative to influencing jurors. That shortly after the departure of said plaintiff a gentenment answering the conversation that followed inquired if deponent knew how the verdict came to be against his client, and deponent answering this said he wasn't very favorably impressed with the course of the jury in the case; to which this said person answered in substance, "If you had seen shart I did you wouldn't think your client had been fairly treated by the jury. I saw three of the jurors go into a certain hot (which he named) with the defendant before trial was finished, and during the progress of the drial, and they then and there drank at defendant's expense, and one of the jurors (who was also named) afterward remarked while in said hotel that he wasn't coming to Scranton to do Jury duty for $2 a day.

That because of the foregoing stated facts your deponent believes that full proof of gald aileard facts will be prointeed whenever a bearing is fixed.

Mr. Aldrich's absence:

Mr. F. C. Hand, Scranton, Pa.

My Dear Brother:—Your kind invitation to attend the memorial service at Scranton reached me bere. It is with regret I cannot accept, as too much distance separates us. Do not, however, let the evening be one of sorrow. Our departed friends are at rest. Our duty is to the living. We are not for self, but for mankind; not for today, but for eternity.

May the experiences of everyday iife tend to make us more and more fitted to enjoy the beauties, the tenets our order teaches. And may justice, fidelity and brotherly love control every action of life, thereby fitting us the better to live while here, and which will insure us a greater happiness hereafter.

Thanking you for your kind remembrance, I remain.

GREEN RIDGE EXCHANGE.

Wires Were Connected Last Night and is Now in Running Order. Beginning this morning the telephon subscribers north of Larch street will be served by what will be known as the Green Ridge exchange. It will be located in the building at the corner of Dickson avenue and Green Ridge street, and there will be about 115 telephones to attend to there. It will not be necessary for subscribers in Providence and Green Ridge to call up the central exchange except when some number located south of when some number located south of Larch street is wanted. There will be two operators in the day time, Misses Mary Maleney and Mary Gerrity, and at night Miss Williams will be in charge. The force of operators at the central exchange will not be dimin-ished, but the number of telephones will be very much less and it will insure a more efficient service than the already more efficient service than the already very efficient one.
