The borough council held their regular meeting last Friday evening. D. Graves, the board of health officer, was reappointed. William Griffith and P. H. Bostwick, members of the Mayfield council, stated that the borough of Mayfield is willing to place an electric light at the corner of Fourth and Division streets. If the borough will place another at the corner of Second and Division streets. The council took no action on the suggestion of the Methodist church in the same matter. An ordinance was introduced and approved condemning the half way or Ridge creek. Chairman Bloomer then said he had seen Councilman David Phillips, who had tried to have him withdraw his resignation. Mr. Phillips, however, is determined to sever all connections with the council. His resignation was promptly accepted. A number of large bills were ordered paid. After the transacting of some business of no particular interest the council adjourned. Mrs. Grant Smith was visiting relatives at Olyphant Saturday. The Mayfield school directors met in their regular meeting last Friday evening. Several bills were ordered paid. After transacting some business of no particular importance, the directors adjourned. At the argument court in Scranton on Saturday the petition of the borough of Jermy, which prayed the court to modify its former decree forbidding the council to pay out any moneys of the borough for the construction of water works, was heard before Judge Gunster who promptly decided against the borough, refusing to alter the former decree in any respect. Judge Gunster delivered a severe censure upon the council, remarking that they had been either badly advised or were acting very stubbornly in the face of former decisions of that and other courts. He intimated that the case was final, so far as this court was concerned. The borough has recently incurred $2,500 in bonds, which were bought by local capitalists. The money has been used for boring contractors, and either the town or the bondholders will lose the money.

The Forest City News plant has been moved from the Old Fellows' building to that of W. J. Maxey, who recently purchased the plant. The Reading Circle met for the first time for the transaction of business at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage last Monday evening and was well attended to start with. It looks as though they were going to be a successful band of Christians, who are willing to devote one evening a week to the reading of the Scripture and other Christian literature. The Christian elements seem to be in a disturbed condition down at Bardonia, where some commonly called Mumbo-jumbo is being practiced. Rev. J. M. Musina has been holding a series of meetings down there at the Evangelical church, and it appears that some of the citizens of that remote town are not in favor of a minister of the gospel coming there and trying to convert some that are not on the straight and narrow path, and took exceptions in such a way that the reverend gentleman appeared before a Justice of the peace and swore out warrants for the arrest of Thomas Gorman, Webster Dickson, Robert Stark and Thomas Stark. The information charges them with willfully and maliciously disturbing the religious meeting, and with willfully, maliciously and riotously disturbing the peace and committing a public nuisance. Chief Justice Platt from Tunkhannock was up and made the arrests, and the young men were taken before Squire Kutz, of Tunkhannock, for a hearing and were held under bail of $200 for their appearance at court. J. C. Reynolds' stone quarry is closed for the winter on account of cold weather. Rev. C. Luther, of Bridgeport, Conn., is here for two weeks, and has charge of the series of meetings now being held at the Baptist church. Mr. Platt is expected to be here the other day, our attention was attracted to the windows of Fred L. Foster's store, so much so that we were tempted to step inside and we think we are safe in saying that there was never so complete or as handsome a line of holiday goods in this town as Fred is prepared to serve his customers with from now till the new year.

There is an exhibition in the show window at Manchester's gallery a life size water color portrait of Stanley R. Newton, which is the finest piece of art that was ever exhibited in this town, and reflects great credit and skill on the part of the artist. The picture and frame is to be presented to Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Newton, parents of the deceased young man, by the O. C. Gardner of Keystone academy, of which Stanley was a member. At his home in Benton last Tuesday occurred the death of James C. Gardner, of Bright's disease. The deceased was 59 years old and a brother of C. C. Gardner, and father of Ira B. Gardner, of this place. Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church in this place last Thursday at 2 p. m. Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery. Professor Manchester has already commenced rehearsals at the Baptist church for the Christmas music, and he assures us that this year's Christmas music will excel previous occasions. Charles Brown, of Springville, Pa., was calling on his uncle, James M. Brown, of this place, last Thursday. Edward Stiles died at his home on Church street last Wednesday night of general debility. Mr. Stiles' face was a very familiar one to our townspeople.

Stomach, sometimes called waterbrash, and burning pain, distress, nausea, dyspepsia, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This it accomplishes because of its wonderful power as a blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates an appetite, gives refreshing sleep, and raises the health tone. In cases of dyspepsia and indigestion it seems to have "a magic touch."

"For over 12 years I suffered from sour stomach with severe pains across my shoulders, and great distress. I had violent nausea which would leave me very weak and faint, difficult to get my breath. These spells came oftener and more severe. I did not receive any lasting benefit from physicians, but found such happy effects from a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I took several bottles and mean to always keep it in the house. I am now able to do all my own work, which for six years I have been unable to do. My husband and son have also been greatly benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla—for pains in the back, and after the grip. I gladly recommend this grand blood medicine."

ple, as well as to the surrounding community, he having carried a satchel and peddled small notions as long as he could hobble around. His age was 72 years and 4 months. The funeral took place Saturday at the Methodist Episcopal church. The Masonic order of the place had charge of the services. District Deputy Mrs. George Skillhorn, of Scranton, installed the officers of Paulownia Rebekah Degree lodge of this place last Tuesday evening. Charles Whitmore, one of the students at Keystone academy, accidentally broke his collar bone while skating last Thursday. He has returned to his home in Scranton still able to attend to his studies again. It is not often that our town is treated to military music, but such was the case Thursday evening, and first-class in every respect. Part of the Thirtieth Regiment Drum corps, composed of W. H. Hughes, Daniel Jones, J. L. Hughes, E. D. Richards and D. B. Hughes came up to take part in the Grand Army of the Republic parade at the funeral of Corporal James C. Gardner, and on their way to the train in the evening they disclosed some very fine military music, and previous to their departure from Hotel Howell their quartette sang a few selections of the Grand Army of the Republic order, which was greatly appreciated by the soldiers. Don't forget that any news or personal left at box 250, postoffice, will be received promptly and will be appreciated by the scribbler. It is nothing more or less than gross negligence that the town council does not replace the street lamps that have been destroyed and are missing on Main street.

Another "mad dog" scare has come pretty near striking our town, but it passed off toward Mumuckook, so it won't live long.
