their presence and able addresses, and to all who in any way aided us in this meeting. (Signed), M. P. Harding,

Death of G. D. Taliman.

After a long illness due to consump-tion, G. D. Taliman passed away from earthly scenes yesterday morning. Mr. Taliman moved to this city with his family from Thompson about seven years ago, and was employed as a machinist in the locomotive shops of the Delaware and Hudson company. He was a useful man and an upright citizen. As a faithful member of the Methodist church, he will be missed, for all his duties were conscientiously dis-charged. He was nearly fifty-four years old when called away.
