> Mr. Gibbons and Mr. Jennings Call One Another Names During a Tilt Over the Placing of Fire Insurance. Report of Committee of the Whole in the Howell-Booth Matter -- Mrs. Sparham's Statement.

Last night's meeting of the board of control furnished the liveliness and spice that has now become almost a regularly slated occurrence in that regularly slated occurrence in that body. There were two echoes to the Howell-Booth case. One was the adoption of Friday night's secret proceedings of the committee of the whole exonerating Superintendent Howell and the filling of a "statement" from Mrs. Sparham, whose original affidavit resulted in the recent airing of the case. But the Howell-Booth business was rushed through in a mechanical, persulted in the recent airing of the case. rushed through in a mechanical, per-functory sort of way, leaving the life of the session to a warm debate and flow of uncomplimentary words be-tween Mr. Gibbons and Mr. Jennings over the taking away of a large block of fire insurance from Boland's agency

MR. JENNINGS' POSITION.

Mr. Jennings said that while he would agree to gradually reduce the amounts carried in the agencies of C. G. Boland. Norman & Moore and others he would oppose any effort to wipe out any large blocks at one time as such action tended to put an agency in disfavor with the companies it represented and was an unwarranted sudden financial injury to that agency's business. He moved that the expiring policies be renewed in the province of the particular deaths and the agr his motion to table. Mr. Jennings con-tinued his argument for renewing the policies with the agencies in which they had expired. He warmed to his subject and finally exclaimed: "Minority or majority. I will not be a party to having this board made the resort for carrying out some mem-ber's personal spite. I say he (Mr. Gibbons) is a sneak and performs a dishonorable—"

"I won't stand that," exclaimed Mr. Gibbons, "from any man! I won't take any abuse from a little whelp like him! Sneak? Why, he's a sneak." He then said he would bursue a different course, notwithstanding his advanced years, if the episode was taking place outside the building. Mr. Gibbons then became more pacific and stated he had not been actuated by personal motives in the insurance transaction. He and his daughter, he said, carried insurance with the Boland Clerk of the Courts John H. Thomas, said, carried insurance with the Boland for a marriage license. The young agency and he had recommended to it more than one of his friends—but he didn't want to be called "a sneak," either, he concluded.

Mr. Jennings renewed his motion to renew the policies and Mr. Gibbons offered an amendment to table. mendment was lost by a vote of 7 to 9 as follows:

Ayes-Sharar, Wormser, Schaefer, Schriefer, Barker, Notz, Gibbons, Nays-Francois, O'Malley, Davis, Casey, Devanney, Conrad, Walsh, Jennings,

MOVED TO ADJOURN. "I move we adjourn," shouted Mr. Gibbons, grabbing his hat and coat and bolting toward the door.

President Schriefer put the motion and Mr. Jennings appealed the president's action. The appeal was sustained by the vote recorded in the foregoing, with the exception that Mr. Davis did not vote, he having left the room. The original motion to renew the policies then prevailed by the following vote: lowing vote:

Ayes-Francois, Scharar, Davis, Casey, Devanney, Conrad, Walsh, Jennings, Langan-8, Nays-Scharar, Wormser, Schaefer, Schriefer, Barker, Notz-6.

Mr. Gibbons had taken his departure while the voting was in progress. The first business of the meeting after roll call and the reading of the minutes was the report of the committee of the whole by its chairman, Mr. Jennings, on its finding in the charges made against Superintendent Howell by Mrs. Booth.

Mr. Jennings' report was typewritten and occupied three and a half pages of legal-cap paper. The report in its in-troductory paragraphs referred to the proceedings of the meeting of Nov. 23 when Superintendent Howell's statement was read. It was at that meeting that the fight was made and which adjourned to last Friday evening. Af- 203 Wash. ave.

ter reviewing the beginning of the lat-ter session and the excluding of report-ers and other spectators Mr. Jennings' report makes public the proceedings as follows:

Mr. Welsh moved that the action of the board taken at the last meeting calling for the reading of the testimony be reconsidered. The chair declared the motion out of order. Mr. Welsh appealed from the decision of the chair, Mr. Schrieffer the same, and upon roll call the chair being sustained by a vote of eleven for and nine against.

NAMES OF WITNESSES.

At the conclusion of the reading of the testimony Mr. J. H. Williams offered the following written resolution:

"Resolved. That after having heard the reading of the evidence taken at the investigation of the charges against Mrs. Lucy Booth, and having fully and carefully considered the same, we find that the conduct of Professor George Howell, the city superintendent, was not only justifiable under the circumstances of the case, but was highly commendable.

"We find that Professor George Howell's action in the matter was taken by him with a view of performing the duty which devolved upon him under the provisions of the law and his oath of office, and which the best interests of the school demanded. That any imputation of improper motive on his part is entirely without any foundation in fact, and entirely uncalled for and enjustifiable."

A motion was made by J. H. Williams, seconded by Mr. Notz, that the resolution be adopted, and the same was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Barker moved that the secretary be seconded by Mr. Notz, that the resolution be adopted, and the same was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Barker moved that the secretary be instructed to place all the testimony in a scaled package and file it away among the papers of the board, the same not to be opened or the testimony referred to at any time in the future without a vote of a majority of the board, and no one to have access to the testimony without a vote of the board. The motion occasioned much discussion and difference of opinion. Mr. Williams offered an amendment that the testimony should be filed away unscaled, the members to have access to it. The following substitution was offered: "Resolved, That the testimony as read shall be placed in the files of the secretary; is not to be taken away, or any part of the same copied."

Substitution as offered was carried. Mr. Barker dissenting. Mr. Wormser moved, Mr. Devaney seconded, that the committee rise and report to the board. The motion prevailed.

THE REPORT ADOPTED.

THE REPORT ADOPTED. Mr. Jenings moved the adoption of the report, and that action was taker without debate.

The statement from Mrs. Sparham was left with Secretary Fellows by a boy who evidently knew his business. Mrs. Sparham's case was settled quick-ly and unceremoniously but with a slight mistake at the beginning which Man Said to Have Been Murdered There Some Time Ago.

HIS BODY BURIED IN THE WOODS

Husband Enraged by the Conduct of His Wife Killed Her Lover with an Ax and Then Succeeded in Wining Out All Evidences of His Crime. Name of the Murderer is Not Known

"Did vou ever hear," said Dr. Adam Stegner, of Rendham, yesterday to a Tribune reporter, "that a man was murdered within a year or so at Aus-tin Heights, his body buried some-where up the side of the mountain, and the persons implicated in the mur-der were never discovered?" This story was widely circulated in Old Forge recently. There are many people down there who believe the story is not by any means an invention. Austin Heights is the fag end of this county on the west. It is situated in Old Forge township well up on the side of the mountain and is peopled mostly with Hungarians. Drunken brawls by the score have taken place and upwards of one hundred men have been beaten. of one hundred men have been beaten almost to death. It is nothing strange after pay-day each month for doctors to be called to the place to patch up a half dozen men who have been wounded in a fight.

In view of the remoteness of the settlement from the built-up portions of Old Forge occurrences of a law-breaking character pass off without notice very often. A few years ago the Aus-tin Coal company built a breaker a mile or so above the Sibley on the side of the mountain. Houses were built in the vicinity of the works and were tenanted by few families except Hungarians. This left the field clear to them and as a small percentage only could talk English, their doings seldom became noised about.
