Legend of the Indian Maiden's Grave at Red Rock.

POSTOFFICE BURGLARS AT WORK

Story of a Dog That Ate Up a Farm in Susquehanna County--Work of the Silver Prospectors on Elk Mountain--News of the Secret Societies--Railroad Walks--General Gossip.

Special Correspondence of The Tribune.

Susquehanna, Dec. 15--Near Red Rock, between Susquehanna and Great Bend, can be seen faint traces of the grave of a beautiful Indian maiden, the only daughter of a chief, whose tribe was at one time encamped in this vicinity. She was betrothed to a young brave, a member of her father's tribe. Her father desired her to wed the son of the chief of a neighboring tribe. The maiden, whose fortune was usually counted for something she at once resolved to fly to the "happy hunting grounds," and one dark night she stole noiselessly out of her father's tent and with the death song on her lips, dashed herself from the cliff, her life's blood staining the rocks below, and into this day they retain their coloring, and the floods and rains of a century have failed to obliterate it. When her lover saw her mangled corpse by the river's side he fled to a cave in the mountain, where forty years ago his petrified remains were to be found. Under his body was found the long black tresses of his beloved, which were placed on a platform and painted, and today grand, gloomy and desolate, he stands before a Binghamton cigar store.

POSTOFFICE BURGLARS.

At an early hour on Friday morning the Postoffice in Lanesboro was entered by burglars, who carried away with them a large quantity of money, stamps and cash. The safe was exploded while a heavy train was passing over the iron bridge, nearby. Nearly every window in the town was shattered. The Great Bend postoffice was robbed on Wednesday night, probably by the same gang.

DOG EATS UP A FARM.

A Susquehanna county dog has eaten up a farm and set of buildings. The dog killed a pig, and the owner's neighbor offered to call it master if the dog was killed. The dog's master refused to agree to this, and a lawsuit came next. The dog was killed and the case answered by the court the owner of the dog had to mortgage his farm for $600. The mortgage had a bigger appetite than the dog, and soon the farm was sold and the owner had to move away. The dog is now dead.

PASSED ON.

After a brief illness, Mrs. William Fitzgerald (nee Cora Carrington), died on Saturday afternoon, aged 23 years. The funeral took place this morning from St. John's Episcopal church. Requiem high mass was celebrated, and the interment was made in Laurel Hill cemetery.

Mrs. George Dodge, for many years and until recently of Susquehanna, died in Buffalo on Saturday morning, aged a brief illness of paralysis. The funeral will occur on Sunday at 10 o'clock in the Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. The pastor, Rev. D. I. Sutherland, will officiate, and the remains will be interred in Evergreen cemetery.

GRIP AND PASSWORD.

Susquehanna chapter, No. 376, H. R. A. Masons, on Friday evening elected the following officers: High priest, Charles Sabin; king, H. F. Manzer; scribe, M. L. Mercer; treasurer, C. A. Miller; secretary, Dr. George W. Gleason.

Moody Relief corps, Grand Army of the Republic, will pay $1000 for the purchase of a fraternal visitation Dec. 28.

A lodge of the Daughters of Rebekah was instituted in Odd Fellows' hall on Saturday afternoon, with over one hundred charter members. Mrs. Stillhorn, of Scranton, assisted in the ceremonies. Mrs. Hendricks, of Montrose, instituted the lodge.

THE ELK MOUNTAIN MINE.

The silver prospectors on Elk mountain are down eight feet, and as the good old Methodist hymn runs, "The prospects they are so disappointing." The Scranton backer of the enterprise is said to have put up $1,000 already--"and there's more to follow." The work is opened here is presented to prevent the drillers from robbing the quarries of the vicinage. Let us hope there's millions in it. By the way, what has become of the "South yankee silver mine"? Silence--there is no sense that you can hear it.

IN THE COUNTY.

At the coming borough election, it is rumored, that the Poles and Slavs in Forest City will put a full ticket in the field.

The postoffice robbery in Great Bend is still the town's talk. Editor Moore, of the Plain-Dealer, hopes to establish an alibi.

Three Susquehanna county couples are praying the court for a divorce.

The funeral of Ferdinand Whipple, an aged and esteemed resident of Montrose took place on Friday.

The next county convention of the Patriotic Order Sons of America will be held in Jackson.

A Susquehanna county man at different times, or twice, has married two of his sister-in-laws.

It is proposed to hold a county convention of postoffice candidates, if a building large enough can be secured to settle the postoffice question. It is paramount. Minor matters, such as the tariff or the currency, can be attended to later on.

TIE AND TRACK.

Twenty-three cars of Conductor Sanders Erie coal train, which on Tuesday morning piled up at Ararat Summit. No one was injured. Traffic was blocked for several hours.

The Cooke Locomotive works, of Paterson, are building eighteen locomotives for the Erie.

The traffic on the Erie continues heavy and trainmen are jubilant.

The Delaware and Hudson Jefferson branch employees were paid on Saturday for November.

The Erie will make a heroic attempt to stop the tramp nuisance on its trains.

YOUNG BUT VIGILANT.

A young married woman near Lanesboro was very much worried during a recent storm. Her husband had just purchased a cow and put it in the barn. As soon as it commenced to thunder the lady rushed wildly to the kitchen and cried to the cook, "Run, Mary, and shut that stable door. If that cow hears thunder it will turn her milk sour!"

SUNDRIES.

Adam Jiggs, of Tuscarora, has disappeared suddenly. When last seen he was driving toward Susquehanna. If he drove into Main street he has gone down to meet McChinty, and it will be Adam long time before Mrs. Jiggs sees him again.

Miss Cora Tremain, formerly of Lanesboro, is a member of the "Grimes Cellar Door" company.

Mrs. Edgar Thomas, formerly of Lanesboro, has been appointed assistant matron of the Florence mission in New York.

A number of Susquehanna county young men have shown a strong desire

IT CAN'T BE DONE. No One Can Remain Well, No Chronic Disease Can Be Cured Unless the Stomach is First Made Strong and Vigorous.

This is plain because every organ in the body depends on the stomach for its nourishment. Nerve, bone, sinew, blood are made from the food which the stomach converts to our use. How useless to treat disease with this, that and the other remedy and neglect the most important of all, the stomach. The earliest symptoms of indigestion are sour risings, bad taste in the mouth, gas in stomach and bowels, palpitation, all-gone feeling, faintness, headache, constipation; later comes loss of flesh, consumption, liver and heart troubles, kidney diseases, nervous prostration, all of which are the indirect results of poor nutrition. Any person suffering from indigestion should make it a practice to take a spoonful of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, allowing it to dissolve in the mouth and thus mingle with the saliva and enter the stomach in the most natural way. These Tablets are highly recommended by Dr. Jenkinson because they are composed of the natural digestive acids and fruit essences which assist the stomach in digesting all wholesome food before it has time to ferment and sour. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists, full sized packages at 50 cents. They are also excellent for invalids and children. A book on stomach diseases and thousands of testimonials of genuine cures sent free by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

to go to Cuba and avenge the murder of the heroic Maceo.

LITTLE ONES.

Hoyt's comedy, "A Trip to Chinatown," attracted a large audience to Hogan opera house on Monday evening.

The Carmel trio, Revs. Rais, Jay and Thomas, gave a meritorious concert in the Methodist church on Monday evening before a delighted audience.

The funeral of Miss Mary Shea, of Locust Hill, occurred from St. John's Catholic church on Sunday afternoon.

Madam Jarley's wax works will be produced in the near future by home talent, under the direction of the Ladies' guild of Christ Episcopal church.

Business men who relish paying out their good money for poster advertisements in ballooned special editions that are used mainly to kindle fires may do this if they wish; but the man who advertises in The Tribune will not be asked to pay something for nothing.

OLD FORGE.

Mr. Andrew Alden, who has been sick for the past month, is able to be out again.

Mrs. Fell, of Scranton, has been visiting Mrs. Hannah Bennett for the past week.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the parsonage this afternoon.

The Presbyterian Sunday school has a large attendance. Charles Jones, superintendent, in The Tribune will not be asked to pay something for nothing.

The Methodist Episcopal Sunday school is preparing a good entertainment for Christmas eve.

Christmas Holiday Tours.

In pursuance of its annual custom the Pennsylvania Railroad company has arranged for two Christmas Holiday Tours, one to Old Point Comfort, Richmond, and Washington, and the other to Washington direct, to leave New York and Philadelphia December 20 and 23 respectively. The same high standard of excellence which has made these tours so popular in past years will be maintained during the present season. Tourists will travel in hand-somely appointed trains, accompanied by Tourist Agent and Chaperon, and will be accorded accommodations at the leading hotels. The social season at both Washington and Old Point will be at its height.

Round-trip rate from New York for the Old Point Comfort tour, returning via Richmond and Washington, $35.00; $33 from Philadelphia. Returning direct, $16.00 from New York; $14.00 from Philadelphia.

Rates for the Washington tour: $14.50 from New York; $11.50 from Philadelphia. Proportionate rates from other points.

For tickets, itineraries, and other information apply to ticket agents, or address Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

MARKETS AND STOCKS

Wall Street Review.

New York, Dec. 15--Speculation at the Stock Exchange during the morning was as tame and uninteresting as ever and the brokers generally were lamenting the absence of orders. The market started off quickly from 113 1/2 to 114 1/2 and led to recessions in the general list of 1/2 to 1/4 per cent. The rally, small as it was, seemed to bring business to a standstill, showing a net loss for the day of 1/4 per cent. Manhattan dropped 1/2 to 52 1/2. The other stock prices were also weak. Western Union closed weak in tone. Chicago Gas, 1/2 to 1 1/2. In the general list the losses were 1/2 per cent. Speculation closed weak in tone. Net changes show losses of 1/2 per cent. on the day. Sugar leading. Total sales were $5,000,000.
