

MUNYON'S REMEDIES

Improved Homeopathic Remedies

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure seldom fails to relieve in 1 to 3 hours, and cures in a few days. Price 25c.

Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure is guaranteed to cure all forms of indigestion and stomach troubles. Price 25c.

Munyon's Liver Cure corrects headache, biliousness, jaundice, constipation and all liver diseases. Price 25c.

Munyon's Kidney Cure speedily cures pain in the back, loins or groins, all forms of kidney disease. Price 25c.

Munyon's Blood-Cure eradicates all impurities of the blood. Price 25c.

Munyon's Pine Gintment positively cures all forms of piles. Price 25c.

Munyon's Asthma Herbs are guaranteed to relieve asthma in two minutes. Price 25c.

Munyon's Cold Cure prevents pneumonia and breaks up cold in a few hours. Price 25c.

Munyon's Cough Cure stops cough, night sweats, allays soreness and speedsily heals the lungs. Price 25c.

Munyon's Nerve Cure restores overworked and overstrained nerves to a healthy condition. Price 25c.

Munyon's Headache Cure stops headache in three minutes. Price 25c.

Munyon's Vitalizer imparts new life, restores lost power to weak and debilitated men. Price $1.00.

A separate cure for each disease. At all drugists, most of the newsstands, and by mail. Personal letters to Professor Munyon, 126 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

CARBONDALE.

[Readers will please note that advertisements, orders for job work, and items for publication left at the establishment of Shannon & Co., newsdealers, North Main street, will receive prompt attention; office open from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m.]

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES.

Recitations and Singing by Pupils of Miss Stephens' School.

Appropriate Christmas exercises were given yesterday afternoon, when Miss Anna Stephens' school closed for the vacation.

The following programme was rendered: chorus, "Chime the Bells"; recitation, "Flossie Capwell"; recitation, "Charles"; recitation, "Pearl Lamoreaux"; solo, Mary Hanson; chorus, "Ring the Bells"; dialogue, "Christmas Plans"; "Edgar's Lathrop, Lois Dimock and Maud Moyle"; recitation, Isabelle McMyne; recitation, Joe Farrell; recitation, Etta Linnen; recitation, Harold Case; chorus, "Christmas Star"; Christmas, Florence Penwarden, Ruth Soecker, Hazel Wilson, Mary Moffitt, Arthur Vall, Edward Wade, Raymond Whiting, Frank Smith, Frank Colwell; recitation, Hazel Wilson; recitation, Van Allen Histed; recitation, Ruth Bell; dialogue, "One Way to Spend Christmas"; Rosella Fay, Edna Evans, Nina Smith, Charles Kaika; recitation, Rosella Fay; chorus, "Hang Up the Baby's Stocking."

Injured by a Broken Hammer.

While R. H. Boyle was at work with a sledge hammer, suddenly the handle broke and a splinter three inches long, penetrated the palm of his hand. The wound was very painful and Dr. Thompson was called to dress the lacerated hand. The accident is quite serious and may keep him for some time from his work.

Funeral of Philip Mang.

A large number of friends and acquaintances were present at the solemn requiem mass yesterday morning, when the remains of Philip Mang were borne from St. Rose church to the cemetery after the impressive services.

Funeral of Frank Tappan.

Impressive services were held on Thursday afternoon at Trinity church when the remains of the late Frank Tappan were laid at rest in Brookside cemetery.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NOTES.

Mrs. Margaret Joyce, of East Stroudsburg State Normal school, is spending her vacation with her parents, Miss Mary Reynolds and J. William Roberts, who have been the guests of Mrs. N. E. Rice, of Scranton, home returned home.

Misses Mary J. McLean, Jennie Kearney and Joanna Murphy, who are students at the Stroudsburg State Normal school, are home for the holidays.

Morris and Ethel Altken are home for their Christmas vacation.

John Scott, who was injured by a premature blast in the Wilson Creek mine last Friday, was able to be out Thursday.

Mrs. Alfred Bentley, of Hospital street, has been called to Altoona by the death of her father.

Miss Ellen Reed Mead and Miss Anna Tauson were visitors in Archbold yesterday.

Arthur and Edna Stoddard entertained a number of their friends at their home on Birkett street Thursday evening.

Miss Mamie Byrne and Willie Conerton, of this city, spent Thursday evening with friends in Forest city.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen will hold a hop and social in the W. W. Watt's building New Year's eve.

B. F. Stoutenger, formerly foreman in the round house at Mayfield, but now living in Syracuse, N. Y., is visiting his son, General Forester Stoutenger.

Mrs. Margaret Kirk and daughter, Margaret, attended the wedding of Miss Anna Brown and Ahmed Wilson in Moosic this week.

Misses Lillian Baker and Frances Daley attended the closing exercises of the Archbold kindergarten yesterday.

Albert Rutherford is home from Blairstown, N. J., to spend his Christmas vacation.

Mrs. William Hubbard and Miss Gracie were visitors in Scranton yesterday.

Mrs. Mary L. Crane, who has been the guests of friends in Montclair, New Jersey, for the past two weeks, has returned home.

Miss Marion Crane, who has been attending an art school in New York city, is home for her Christmas vacation.

OUR Holiday Specialties

Rocking Chairs, Centre Tables, Stands, Screens, Pictures, Hassocks, Carpet Sweepers, Rugs and Mats, and the largest and finest assortment of Carpets in the city. PRICES always the lowest.

J. SCOTT INGLIS,
Carpets, Wall Papers and Draperies,
409 LACKA AVENUE.

PECKVILLE.

The employees of the Forest Coal company and the New York and Scranton Coal company were paid yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Bell attended the Masonic banquet at Olyphant last evening.

The Methodist Episcopal Sunday school will have their Christmas exercises next Thursday evening.

Some unknown parties entered the premises of Thomas McClintock on the back road and stole nineteen chickens, twelve geese, and some ducks a few evenings ago.

Mrs. Jennie Frear is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Hayh, at Mayfield.

The officers elected at the Epworth League meeting last Tuesday evening are as follows: President, Herbert Frear; first vice president, Walter Williams; second vice president, Mrs. Wm. Johns; third vice president, Mrs. Nellie Peck; fourth vice president, Miss Sophie Simpson; secretary, Gaylord Schlegel; corresponding secretary, Miss Blanche Taylor; organist, Miss Maud Trevention; assist, Miss Grace Taylor.

The assessor of the First ward has completed his assessments and finds that there are three hundred and one voters in the First ward.

What's the matter with our local Board of Health? They are all right. In fact, Blakely borough never had better health officials. Every well-informed citizen knows this. Grumblers have existed since the first mosquito bit, but like mosquitoes they are among the things that must be endured.

Services as usual in the M. E. church tomorrow, preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. S. C. Simpkins. Theme for morning, "A Cry from the Depths." Evening, second sermon to young men, theme, "The Seeking Shepherd." Sunday school at 2:30. Epworth League at 6 p. m. A cordial welcome to all.

The epidemic of diphtheria seems to be subsiding. One new case only has been reported this week. All patients of had diseases have been removed from all the houses in the First and Third wards.

The employees of most all the different colleges here will receive their Christmas pay.

Miss Content Lutz and Oscar Miller will be joined in holy matrimony at the home of the bride's brother at the West End, next Thursday evening.

Peter Rape, an old resident of Jessup, died his home last Thursday night. The funeral will be held tomorrow (Sunday) at the Catholic cemetery.

Miss Thelma S. Jenkins will entertain at her home for friends this afternoon from two to five, in honor of her third birthday.

Miss Katie Jones left yesterday to spend Christmas with her parents at Mount Cobb.

Floyd Keller, of Stroudsburg State Normal school, is home spending his Christmas vacation.

James runner hit that J. A. Kay will open up the store recently occupied by Chapman & Boughton in a few days.

WAWERLY.

Professor F. C. Hanyon and family are visiting the professor's parents at Rutland, Frank county.

Mrs. Mahoney is very ill at the home of her son, Councilman Andrew Mahoney.

The members of the African Methodist Episcopal church will entertain the public with oysters in every style this afternoon and evening at the band room.

Tobias Plough, of Vestal, N. Y., leaves today for New York city to visit a son, after having enjoyed a vacation in his home county.

F. H. Parson, at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church elected the following officers: President, Julius Sherman; first vice-president, Sterling Bedford; second vice-president, Mrs. John Mer-shon; third vice-president, Mrs. C. E. Mahoney; fourth vice-president, Mrs. Pardon Stone; secretary, N. D. Smith; organist, Dexter Sinaubaugh.

William D. Spencer, as administrator of the late Pardon Coyne's estate, will hold a sale of all lose property next Wednesday, Dec. 22.

The Methodist Episcopal Sunday school elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: A. B. Cowles, superintendent; Mrs. John Milroy, assistant superintendent; librarian, John Weil; organist, Miss Cora Sherman.

At the election of officers of the Baptist church, the following were elected: President, William G. Challis; secretary, Albert Johnson; vice-president, E. G. Trimby; treasurer, George B. Stone.

Rev. A. Bergen Browe will preach at the Baptist church tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WYOMING SEMINARY.

Among the new students of the winter term were William T. Clark, Ly-sander, N. Y.; M. E. Edson, Skaneateles, N. Y.; H. H. Gamer, Binghamton, N. Y.; L. R. Holcum, Askam, Pa.; John E. Ferguson, Shaver Town, Pa.; and Horace L. Round, Weatherly, Pa.

Miss Luella Frazer, of Clark's Summit, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Lizzie, of the seminary.

The holiday recess will begin next Wednesday.

A number of new students were received into the college of business at the beginning of the winter term.

The junior work will be changed this term, and will be under the direction of Miss Lamprell, of the elocution department.

News of the death of Harry Von Krug, of Princeton university, was received with sorrow here. Mr. Von Krug was the son of Rev. Von Krug, of this place, and also a former student in the seminary.

The Amphictyon banquet will occur Wednesday evening, Dec. 22. The society has been making extensive preparations for this. A number of the alumni will be present, and a pleasant evening is expected by all.

Fred Sampson, of Tunkhannock called on his brother, William, at the seminary one day last week.

The Adolphian society will visit the Amphictyons next Saturday evening.

TOWANDA.

The annual meeting of the teachers' institute is in session, and is attended by 433 out of 477 teachers. The sessions programme is in charge of ex-Superintendent Ryan, owing to the illness of Superintendent H. S. Putnam.

Many of the college students are home for the holiday vacation.

George E. Woodruff, agent for the Fountain Pen company is home for a short vacation visiting his family.

The roof and dome are now being added to our new court house.

Towanda can now boast of having one of the best electrical window displays that has ever been exhibited here. The price is due W. H. Danner, senior member of our confectionery firm, Danner & Brennan.

W. H. Cogswell, landlord of the Table Rock house, at Skaneateles, was visiting friends here the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Morgan Brown were up from Wyalusing on Tuesday shopping.

PRICEBURG.

Jonh Hebrond, 19 years, died at his late home on Lincoln street yesterday at 11 a. m. Mr. Hebrond was a man of quiet and steady habits, and leaves a large circle of friends, who regret his early departure from this life.

The grand fair and festival of Eagle Hose company No. 1 opened last evening in Smith's hall. The many admirers of our plucky fire ladders were out in full force, and showed themselves not only willing but anxious to help the boys along.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD

Yesterday morning at 8:20 occurred the sale of the personal property of C. L. Bell. Both Deputy Sheriffs Ryan and Ferber were in attendance. The following articles were sold: Contents of main room and fire room were sold to Roscoe Dale, attorney, for $950; paints in office room, $90; to Charles Schlegel; hardware in office, $10; to Charles Schlegel; office furniture, $88.50; to S. C. Whitmore; contents of shed adjoining mill, $25; to Attorney Dale; 2 barrels of C. Whitmore's, $14; to Charles Schlegel; contents of cellar, $5; to Charles Schlegel; lumber in barn, $55; to Attorney Dale; shingles in yard, $19; to Charles Schlegel; lime in yard, $17; to Charles Schlegel; flag stone, $65; to Charles Schlegel; sand, $3.50; to C. D. Winters; lumber in yard, $1.70; to C. Whitmore; Mr. Bell's interest in washery and all pertaining to it, for $1,100; to Charles Schlegel, afterward transferred to J. L. Crawford; one car Chamber, $7; to E. Wells; one horse, $32; Mason & Snowden; one horse, $5; Attorney Patterson; one horse, $35; Attorney Patterson; one wagon, $21; to C. D. Winters; one surrey, $41; to C. D. Stocker; one buggy, $26; J. L. Crawford; contents of the East side, Thomas Talbot; Winters; one cutter, $6; to Thomas Rich; heavy harnesses, $22; to S. C. Whitmore; oats, feed and hay, $10.50; to William H. Merritt; wagon, $10.50; to L. Kellar. The household goods of his residence were sold to J. D. Stocker for $5. Mr. Stocker donated the same to Mrs. C. L. Bell. The sale realized $6,451.

The drilling contest, to have taken place Christmas eve, has been declared off, owing to the refusal to enter, forfeited the money.

Andrew Meehan, janitor of the Sacred Heart church, is indisposed at his home on the East side, Thomas Talbot, of Mayfield, is attending to Mr. Meehan's duties.

Daniel Meehan was a caller in Carbondale last evening.

Upon testing the cableway at the powder mill, it was found the towers were not high enough, as it interfered with the wires of the Delaware and Hudson railroad and New York, Ontario and Western railroad, while the carriage was moving. The company is raising a quarry, not intending to remedy it without building new towers.

Misses Beale and Lillie Baker were in Scranton on Thursday.

Mrs. George McLaughlin and Mrs. G. Gebhardt were in Scranton yesterday.

Attorney H. D. Carey is in New York on business.

William Rawling and Walter Baker spent Thursday evening in Carbondale. Foggy weather prevented a large attendance at the social in honor of those who assisted in their recent fair.

Earl Lee was a caller in Scranton yesterday.

Wednesday evening, while Miss Kate Carey, Kate Oleot and Isaac Carey were skating on the Back Waters, the ice broke and precipitated them into the water. Earl Lee, however, just got there, when he heard the girls screaming. He at once seized a long pole which was lying near the pond, and by the aid of this, after considerable breaking of ice, the party succeeded in reaching terra firma. After looking at each other they came to the conclusion that in the pond there was more mud than water, as they had a very good supply of dirt from the neck down. They were also very profuse in their thanks to Mr. Maynard.

The people of town would like to know what will become of Theodore Pettigrew and William Hubard, and they were in the washery when the contents were sold yesterday.

Miss Grace Buckingham, of Carbondale, called on Myra Hills yesterday.

Thomas Jones and David Jenkins sang a duet entitled "A Mother's Appeal to Her Boy," at E. J. Peters' social at Wagon Hall, Carbondale, Wednesday evening and was well received.

Minnie, daughter of Burton Parks, is confined to her home with diphtheria. Antitoxine was administered yesterday.

Misses Grace Buckingham, Ida Carter, May Henwood, Hattie Mason, Frank Jones, Fred Hubard, David Reese, of Carbondale; De Forest Vail, of Scott, and David Jenkins were entertained at the home of Myra Hills, of Third street, this afternoon.

All items for publication, orders for job work or advertising space left at C. E. Helmes' office or lock box No. 34, will receive prompt attention.

John Bowen, of Bellevue, was circulating among friends in Mayfield yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tighe, of Mayfield, was in Scranton on business yesterday.

There are now in the borough of Mayfield 23 registered voters.

David Mendensohn, of Mayfield, made a business trip to Scranton yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Davies, of Mayfield, was visiting in Scranton yesterday.

Miss Mary Prichard and Miss Penrose, of Mayfield, were visiting in Carbondale last evening.

William E. Davies, of Mayfield, made a business trip to Scranton yesterday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lewis, a son.

Money tribe of Red Men will adopt two pale faces at their meeting tonight. This organization is coming into prominence here and have greatly increased.

FINANCE AS WELL AS MEMBERSHIP.

One of its most ardent and efficient workers is W. J. Toman, and to him, with others, is attributed the success which has attended Money tribe.

TAYLOR.

A delighted crowd left the Methodist Episcopal church last night after they had enjoyed an excellent literary and musical programme given by Miss Carolyn V. Dorsey and her pupils. The exercises were varied, and in each participant merit was shown. Miss Dorsey herself took part and also directed the entertainment. Her elocutionary talents were demonstrated in the most pleasing selections. The others who participated in the evening's programme were Misses Rose Thorpe, Elizabeth Kilham, Evangeline Dorsey, and selections were given from Gail Hamilton, Jean Ingelow, Lew Wallace, Charles A. Adams, Paul Dresser, Robert Burdette and other well known authors. Their work was of the brilliant order and reflected credit upon Miss Dorsey.

Mrs. Michael Judge, of South Scranton, visited her mother, Mrs. Ludgate, yesterday.

Evan G. Watkins made a business trip to Wyoming on Thursday.

Services tomorrow at the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at the usual hours by the pastor, Rev. F. A. Kling. Morning services at 10:30 a. m. Subject, "Mission of Jesus." Sunday school at 2:15 p. m. Evening sermon at 7 p. m. Subject, "Angels." All are cordially invited.

Miss Henrietta Sherer, of Scranton, is spending the holidays with her parents on Union street.

Miss Mattie Hodge, of Stroudsburg, is spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. John Hodge, on Washington street.

The Traction company is repairing the road on Main street.

DALTON.

There will be special Christmas services at the Methodist Episcopal church both morning and evening Sunday, Dec. 20. Special music is being arranged. The Sunday school will hold their Christmas exercises Christmas eve. There will be the old time Christmas tree and its attending ceremony. A very pretty programme of songs is also being arranged for the children. The exercises are public, and all are invited.

Mrs. Michael Judge, of South Scranton, visited her mother, Mrs. Ludgate, yesterday.

Evan G. Watkins made a business trip to Wyoming on Thursday.

Services tomorrow at the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at the usual hours by the pastor, Rev. F. A. Kling. Morning services at 10:30 a. m. Subject, "Mission of Jesus." Sunday school at 2:15 p. m. Evening sermon at 7 p. m. Subject, "Angels." All are cordially invited.

WYOMING SEMINARY.

Among the new students of the winter term were William T. Clark, Ly-sander, N. Y.; M. E. Edson, Skaneateles, N. Y.; H. H. Gamer, Binghamton, N. Y.; L. R. Holcum, Askam, Pa.; John E. Ferguson, Shaver Town, Pa.; and Horace L. Round, Weatherly, Pa.

Miss Luella Frazer, of Clark's Summit, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Lizzie, of the seminary.

The holiday recess will begin next Wednesday.

A number of new students were received into the college of business at the beginning of the winter term.

The junior work will be changed this term, and will be under the direction of Miss Lamprell, of the elocution department.

News of the death of Harry Von Krug, of Princeton university, was received with sorrow here. Mr. Von Krug was the son of Rev. Von Krug, of this place, and also a former student in the seminary.

The Amphictyon banquet will occur Wednesday evening, Dec. 22. The society has been making extensive preparations for this. A number of the alumni will be present, and a pleasant evening is expected by all.

Fred Sampson, of Tunkhannock called on his brother, William, at the seminary one day last week.

The Adolphian society will visit the Amphictyons next Saturday evening.

TOWANDA.

The annual meeting of the teachers' institute is in session, and is attended by 433 out of 477 teachers. The sessions programme is in charge of ex-Superintendent Ryan, owing to the illness of Superintendent H. S. Putnam.

Many of the college students are home for the holiday vacation.

George E. Woodruff, agent for the Fountain Pen company is home for a short vacation visiting his family.

The roof and dome are now being added to our new court house.

Towanda can now boast of having one of the best electrical window displays that has ever been exhibited here. The price is due W. H. Danner, senior member of our confectionery firm, Danner & Brennan.

W. H. Cogswell, landlord of the Table Rock house, at Skaneateles, was visiting friends here the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Morgan Brown were up from Wyalusing on Tuesday shopping.

PRICEBURG.

Jonh Hebrond, 19 years, died at his late home on Lincoln street yesterday at 11 a. m. Mr. Hebrond was a man of quiet and steady habits, and leaves a large circle of friends, who regret his early departure from this life.

The grand fair and festival of Eagle Hose company No. 1 opened last evening in Smith's hall. The many admirers of our plucky fire ladders were out in full force, and showed themselves not only willing but anxious to help the boys along.

WYOMING SEMINARY.

Among the new students of the winter term were William T. Clark, Ly-sander, N. Y.; M. E. Edson, Skaneateles, N. Y.; H. H. Gamer, Binghamton, N. Y.; L. R. Holcum, Askam, Pa.; John E. Ferguson, Shaver Town, Pa.; and Horace L. Round, Weatherly, Pa.

Miss Luella Frazer, of Clark's Summit, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Lizzie, of the seminary.

The holiday recess will begin next Wednesday.

A number of new students were received into the college of business at the beginning of the winter term.

The junior work will be changed this term, and will be under the direction of Miss Lamprell, of the elocution department.

News of the death of Harry Von Krug, of Princeton university, was received with sorrow here. Mr. Von Krug was the son of Rev. Von Krug, of this place, and also a former student in the seminary.

The Amphictyon banquet will occur Wednesday evening, Dec. 22. The society has been making extensive preparations for this. A number of the alumni will be present, and a pleasant evening is expected by all.

Fred Sampson, of Tunkhannock called on his brother, William, at the seminary one day last week.

The Adolphian society will visit the Amphictyons next Saturday evening.

TOWANDA.

The annual meeting of the teachers' institute is in session, and is attended by 433 out of 477 teachers. The sessions programme is in charge of ex-Superintendent Ryan, owing to the illness of Superintendent H. S. Putnam.

Many of the college students are home for the holiday vacation.

George E. Woodruff, agent for the Fountain Pen company is home for a short vacation visiting his family.

The roof and dome are now being added to our new court house.

Towanda can now boast of having one of the best electrical window displays that has ever been exhibited here. The price is due W. H. Danner, senior member of our confectionery firm, Danner & Brennan.

W. H. Cogswell, landlord of the Table Rock house, at Skaneateles, was visiting friends here the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Morgan Brown were up from Wyalusing on Tuesday shopping.

PRICEBURG.

Jonh Hebrond, 19 years, died at his late home on Lincoln street yesterday at 11 a. m. Mr. Hebrond was a man of quiet and steady habits, and leaves a large circle of friends, who regret his early departure from this life.

The grand fair and festival of Eagle Hose company No. 1 opened last evening in Smith's hall. The many admirers of our plucky fire ladders were out in full force, and showed themselves not only willing but anxious to help the boys along.

ROYAL

The absolutely pure

BAKING POWDER

ROYAL—the most celebrated of all the baking powders in the world—celebrated for its great leavening strength and purity. It makes your cakes, biscuit, bread, etc., healthful, it assures you against alum and all forms of adulteration that go with the cheap brands.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

in finance as well as membership. One of its most ardent and efficient workers is W. J. Toman, and to him, with others, is attributed the success which has attended Money tribe.

TAYLOR.

A delighted crowd left the Methodist Episcopal church last night after they had enjoyed an excellent literary and musical programme given by Miss Carolyn V. Dorsey and her pupils. The exercises were varied, and in each participant merit was shown. Miss Dorsey herself took part and also directed the entertainment. Her elocutionary talents were demonstrated in the most pleasing selections. The others who participated in the evening's programme were Misses Rose Thorpe, Elizabeth Kilham, Evangeline Dorsey, and selections were given from Gail Hamilton, Jean Ingelow, Lew Wallace, Charles A. Adams, Paul Dresser, Robert Burdette and other well known authors. Their work was of the brilliant order and reflected credit upon Miss Dorsey.

Mrs. Michael Judge, of South Scranton, visited her mother, Mrs. Ludgate, yesterday.

Evan G. Watkins made a business trip to Wyoming on Thursday.

Services tomorrow at the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at the usual hours by the pastor, Rev. F. A. Kling. Morning services at 10:30 a. m. Subject, "Mission of Jesus." Sunday school at 2:15 p. m. Evening sermon at 7 p. m. Subject, "Angels." All are cordially invited.

Miss Henrietta Sherer, of Scranton, is spending the holidays with her parents on Union street.

Miss Mattie Hodge, of Stroudsburg, is spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. John Hodge, on Washington street.

The Traction company is repairing the road on Main street.

DALTON.

There will be special Christmas services at the Methodist Episcopal church both morning and evening Sunday, Dec. 20. Special music is being arranged. The Sunday school will hold their Christmas exercises Christmas eve. There will be the old time Christmas tree and its attending ceremony. A very pretty programme of songs is also being arranged for the children. The exercises are public, and all are invited.

Mrs. Michael Judge, of South Scranton, visited her mother, Mrs. Ludgate, yesterday.

Evan G. Watkins made a business trip to Wyoming on Thursday.

Services tomorrow at the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at the usual hours by the pastor, Rev. F. A. Kling. Morning services at 10:30 a. m. Subject, "Mission of Jesus." Sunday school at 2:15 p. m. Evening sermon at 7 p. m. Subject, "Angels." All are cordially invited.

WYOMING SEMINARY.

Among the new students of the winter term were William T. Clark, Ly-sander, N. Y.; M. E. Edson, Skaneateles, N. Y.; H. H. Gamer, Binghamton, N. Y.; L. R. Holcum, Askam, Pa.; John E. Ferguson, Shaver Town, Pa.; and Horace L. Round, Weatherly, Pa.

Miss Luella Frazer, of Clark's Summit, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Lizzie, of the seminary.

The holiday recess will begin next Wednesday.

A number of new students were received into the college of business at the beginning of the winter term.

The junior work will be changed this term, and will be under the direction of Miss Lamprell, of the elocution department.

News of the death of Harry Von Krug, of Princeton university, was received with sorrow here. Mr. Von Krug was the son of Rev. Von Krug, of this place, and also a former student in the seminary.

The Amphictyon banquet will occur Wednesday evening, Dec. 22. The society has been making extensive preparations for this. A number of the alumni will be present, and a pleasant evening is expected by all.

Fred Sampson, of Tunkhannock called on his brother, William, at the seminary one day last week.

The Adolphian society will visit the Amphictyons next Saturday evening.

TOWANDA.

The annual meeting of the teachers' institute is in session, and is attended by 433 out of 477 teachers. The sessions programme is in charge of ex-Superintendent Ryan, owing to the illness of Superintendent H. S. Putnam.

Many of the college students are home for the holiday vacation.

George E. Woodruff, agent for the Fountain Pen company is home for a short vacation visiting his family.

The roof and dome are now being added to our new court house.

Towanda can now boast of having one of the best electrical window displays that has ever been exhibited here. The price is due W. H. Danner, senior member of our confectionery firm, Danner & Brennan.

W. H. Cogswell, landlord of the Table Rock house, at Skaneateles, was visiting friends here the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Morgan Brown were up from Wyalusing on Tuesday shopping.

PRICEBURG.

Jonh Hebrond, 19 years, died at his late home on Lincoln street yesterday at 11 a. m. Mr. Hebrond was a man of quiet and steady habits, and leaves a large circle of friends, who regret his early departure from this life.

The grand fair and festival of Eagle Hose company No. 1 opened last evening in Smith's hall. The many admirers of our plucky fire ladders were out in full force, and showed themselves not only willing but anxious to help the boys along.

WYOMING SEMINARY.

Among the new students of the winter term were William T. Clark, Ly-sander, N. Y.; M. E. Edson, Skaneateles, N. Y.; H. H. Gamer, Binghamton, N. Y.; L. R. Holcum, Askam, Pa.; John E. Ferguson, Shaver Town, Pa.; and Horace L. Round, Weatherly, Pa.

Miss Luella Frazer, of Clark's Summit, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Lizzie, of the seminary.

The holiday recess will begin next Wednesday.

A number of new students were received into the college of business at the beginning of the winter term.

The junior work will be changed this term, and will be under the direction of Miss Lamprell, of the elocution department.

News of the death of Harry Von Krug, of Princeton university, was received with sorrow here. Mr. Von Krug was the son of Rev. Von Krug, of this place, and also a former student in the seminary.

The Amphictyon banquet will occur Wednesday evening, Dec. 22. The society has been making extensive preparations for this. A number of the alumni will be present, and a pleasant evening is expected by all.

Fred Sampson, of Tunkhannock called on his brother, William, at the seminary one day last week.

The Adolphian society will visit the Amphictyons next Saturday evening.

TOWANDA.

The annual meeting of the teachers' institute is in session, and is attended by 433 out of 477 teachers. The sessions programme is in charge of ex-Superintendent Ryan, owing to the illness of Superintendent H. S. Putnam.

Many of the college students are home for the holiday vacation.

George E. Woodruff, agent for the Fountain Pen company is home for a short vacation visiting his family.

The roof and dome are now being added to our new court house.

Towanda can now boast of having one of the best electrical window displays that has ever been exhibited here. The price is due W. H. Danner, senior member of our confectionery firm, Danner & Brennan.

W. H. Cogswell, landlord of the Table Rock house, at Skaneateles, was visiting friends here the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Morgan Brown were up from Wyalusing on Tuesday shopping.

PRICEBURG.

Jonh Hebrond, 19 years, died at his late home on Lincoln street yesterday at 11 a. m. Mr. Hebrond was a man of quiet and steady habits, and leaves a large circle of friends, who regret his early departure from this life.

The grand fair and festival of Eagle Hose company No. 1 opened last evening in Smith's hall. The many admirers of our plucky fire ladders were out in full force, and showed themselves not only willing but anxious to help the boys along.

PHILADELPHIA MANUFACTURERS OF CLOAKS AND SUITS

Magnificent Display.

We have just purchased 25,000 dollars worth of stock of CAPES, COATS, SKIRTS, and WAISTS only. Our enormous trade tells the story of wonderful saving of spot cash buying and spot cash selling. Our preparations for the holiday trade were made by reducing prices before Christmas in order to give our patrons a chance to have their garments for midwinter wear. It is not necessary to wait until the season is over. You will find it a benefit to come and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere.

- 30 Boucle Coats half silk lined $2.98
- 50 fine Persian Astrachan coats, lined with the finest Rhadame silk, trimmed with little pearl buttons, former price $4.98, price $3.98 now 4.98
- 30 extra fine French caterpillar coats, half silk lined, made up in the new effects, former price $10.98; now 7.98
- 25 all wool Kersey Coats, lined with fine Tuffeta silk, handsomely trimmed, sold in New York city for $11.00; reduction price 5.98
- 10 fine crushed Astrachan Capes, silk lined, full sweep, Thibet fur trimming, sold in this city for $15 each, owing to our fortunate purchase can sell them to you for 8.98
- 30 beautiful figured molton skirts, 4 yards wide, lined and interlined, velvet binding, in applique styles. The like never was sold in this city for less than $15; our reduction price 8.98
- 30 Boucle Coats half silk lined 2.98

If we bought up the whole space of this paper we would not be able to give you a correct idea of the bargains we have. Consequently we save expenses in every way in order to give you the full benefit in bargains.

Z. WEINGART, Proprietor,
421 LACKAWANNA AVENUE

NO CHARGE FOR ALTERATIONS

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Onyx Tables and Cabinets, Hat and Coat Racks, Screens, Music Racks, Easels, Umbrella Stands, China Cabinets, Statuaries, Towel Racks, Flower Stands, Bric-a-Brac, Jardiniers Stands, Ottomans, Hassocks, Etc.

Rug Department.

Imported and Domestic Axminster Rugs, in suitable sizes for rooms. Combination Rugs, Mohair and Silk, with Curl Center, in the latest effects. A carefully selected line of Assyrian, Velvet, Moquette, Smyrna, Fur and Japanese Rugs; also Baby Carriage Robes in endless variety, at Prices Lower Than Ever.

Make your selection while the stock is full. Goods stored and delivered when desired.

S. G. KERR, SON & CO.,
Opp. Main Entrance to Wyoming House. 408 LACKAWANNA AVENUE.

THIRD NATIONAL BANK OF SCRANTON.