STREET RAILWAY COMPANIES MERGED

Important Agreement Entered Into in This City Yesterday.

SCRANTON RAILWAY COMPANY NOW

This is the Corporate Name of the Corporation That Will Hereafter Conduct the Trolley Car Business in This City—Capital Stock is $2,500,000—Names of the Officers of the Company.

The Valley Passenger Railway company, the Scranton Passenger Railway company, the Dunmore Street Railway company, and the Scranton Suburban Railway company, all of which lines are operated by the Scranton Traction company, were yesterday consolidated, or rather merged with the Scranton Railway company, which, until recently, was the People's Street Railway company, of Luzerne county. The consolidated roads will be operated under the name of the Scranton Railway company after Jan. 1, 1897.

The consolidation was effected at a meeting of the stockholders of the various companies held yesterday morning at the office of the Scranton Traction company in this city. The officers were chosen as follows: Clarence M. Clark, president; J. P. Hisey, vice-president; C. Ford Stevens, secretary and treasurer; James J. Finney, Frank Burke, Frank Silliman, Jr., and Horace E. Hand, directors. All of the officers, with the exception of the last three, are Philadelphians. The capital stock of the new company is $2,500,000, divided into shares of $50 each. The merged companies were capitalized as follows: Valley Passenger Railway company, $600,000; Scranton Passenger Railway company, $100,000; Dunmore Street Railway company, $300,000; Scranton Traction company, $600,000; Scranton Traction company, $2,000,000. The stockholders of the various companies were allowed to exchange their holdings for shares in the new company. By the terms of the agreement the Traction company's power station on Providence road and the other realty owned by the various companies is transferred to the new company. There will be no change in the local management of the roads.

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES.

Conducted at the Daisy Memorial Kindergarten Yesterday.

A Christmas tree never brought greater happiness to the hearts of little ones than it brought to the children of the Daisy Memorial kindergarten at the corner of Luzerne street and Main avenue yesterday forenoon. There were fifty of them in all, ranging in age from three to six years. This was the first opportunity that many of them ever had to sit within the shadow of a Christmas tree and share its treasures and sparkling eyes and radiant faces told how little hearts fluttered with happiness over the occasion. And not only was there joy depicted on the countenance of the children but those of the parents who were present forgot for a time their anxieties and allowed the joy that welled up from their hearts to cut all sorts of capers with the lines of care that scamed their faces.

There fifty little ones gathered from humble homes, some of them from homes of real poverty, some from homes where the dearest of treasures would range very well by the side of the same number of children from any circle in life as far as refinement of manner and general intelligence goes. Clean hands and faces denoted for their teacher, kindness and consideration for one another showing what an effective teacher she was. Her gentle and judicious training had had over them. Each little one had made a souvenir as a Christmas gift to their parents. These were all displayed on the tree and were marvels of workmanship when one considers how small were the hands that fashioned them. The teacher of this kindergarten is Miss Minnie Cowan. A successful kindergarten teacher must be the possessor of many and rare qualifications. She must have intelligence, patience, sympathy, love, and a great fund of information, all of which, Miss Cowan possesses in an eminent degree else her work would never have been the greatest success that it has been. Miss Cowan is assisted by Miss Annie Rose.

DEATH OF SISTER MARCELLA.

She Was One of the Teachers in St. Cecilia's Academy.

Sister Marcella died in St. Cecilia's convent on Wyoming avenue yesterday morning after a long illness. Though she had not been in good health for two or three weeks, it was only two weeks ago that her condition became alarming. Before becoming a sister in the order of the Immaculate Heart, the deceased was Miss Elizabeth Finley, of Binghamton. She entered the convent at Carbondale on Oct. 1, 1888, as a novice and on Aug. 2, 1891, took her final vows at that place. She was then transferred to the Hyde Park convent and from there to Green Ridge. A year ago she was added to the force of teachers at St. Cecilia's academy. The funeral will take place Monday forenoon, at 10 o'clock a solemn requiem mass will be begun in St. Peter's cathedral, at which Rev. J. A. O'Reilly will be celebrant, after which she will be buried in the sisters' plot in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

AMUSEMENTS.

Of "Shannon of the Sixth," which will be produced at the Academy of Music Monday night, the Boston Daily Herald says: "There were thrilling moments galore at the Bowdoin Square theater last evening, and a crowded house greeted W. H. Power and his excellent company of players in 'Shannon of the Sixth.' The play is a new one, and was written by E. E. Kidder, who has built up a stirring, picturesque military drama on a story of life and love in India during the English war with the Sepoys in 1857. Mr. Power's was a universal favorite with his audience, and he certainly deserves the credit bestowed upon his efforts. He took the part of Lieutenant Larry Shannon. The drama is one of strong human interest from beginning to end."

A triumph of the scene-painter and stage-carpenter's arts will be seen all Christmas week at Davidow Bros. commencing Monday evening. It is "Little Boy Blue and the Good Fairy Starlight," a mammoth trick-pantomime, interspersed with a goodly number of the best acts in the profession. There are ten principal scenes, all new, filled to overflowing with bewitching transformations and mystifying tricks, funny to a degree and just the entertainment to please and not offend ladies, gentlemen and children. Over 4,000 feet of canvas has been painted by Harry Thorne for this immense production. Every detail is complete and a large amount of money has been expended. No matter can be given on Monday owing to the heavy work of preparation. Children will be admitted every afternoon during the week, except Christmas Day, for 10 cents.

The great success of "Shores Acres" is attracting the attention of modern playwrights throughout the English-speaking countries. The fifth year of the play finds the patron of the drama more deeply interested than ever in this ideal work, and the demand for plays is constantly increasing. The author, James A. Herne, has already gained a fortune from this work and it promises to continue profitable for many years to come. A realistic scenic production of "Shores Acres" will be given at the Academy of Music Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

WARRANTS FOR SUPERVISORS.

Officials Charged With Neglecting to Abolish a Public Nuisance.

Warrants were yesterday issued by Alderman Wright for the arrest of the two supervisors of Old Forge township, Michael McGowan and Gabriel Bonner, for wilfully and maliciously maintaining a public nuisance. The complaint was made by John Henahan who alleged that by reason of a culvert on the main street becoming blocked the water in the creek backs up and fills the cellars of his three houses, damaging his property and making them unhealthy for habitation. He avers that the nuisance has existed for six months and that he has frequently notified the supervisors of it and asked them to abate it. The date of the hearing has not yet been fixed.

FORMAL DEMAND FOR AN INCREASE MADE

Journeymen Plumbers Ask a $3 a Day Rate of Wages.

POSITION OF MASTER PLUMBERS

Cannot Grant the Increase Asked on January 1 for Two Reasons, but Are Willing on May 1 to Allow Men Getting Less Than $3 a Day an Increase of Ten Per Cent.

At a meeting of the master plumbers of the city last night the members of the Journeymen's Plumbers union made a formal demand for a $3 a day rate of wages on and after Jan. 1 for all journeymen plumbers who have worked at the trade one year or upwards more than the apprenticeship period. In the event of the master plumbers refusing to grant a rate of $3 a day the plumbers said they would refuse to work after the end of the present year.

Through its conference committee the master plumbers some time ago offered to increase on May 1 by 10 per cent. the wages of men getting less than $3 per day.

It was decided last night that the demand of the journeymen plumbers, to be granted for two reasons: First, contracts for the winter's work have been made on the basis of the present scale of wages; second, the master plumbers claim the right to pay their workmen according to their worth.

These conclusions will be made known to the journeymen plumbers, together with the further information that the master plumbers renew their former offer to grant a 10 per cent. raise on May 1 to all those who are receiving less than $3 per day.

If the journeymen plumbers adhere to their intention as expressed in the communication to last night's meeting, a strike seems inevitable. There are about 100 journeymen plumbers in this city.
