BICYCLE CLUB HOUSE OPENED WITH ECCLAT

Three Hundred Members and Guests Enjoyed the Affair. COMPLETELY EQUIPPED QUARTERS

An inspection of the interior was a pleasant revelation -- Nothing lacking in the appointments and furnishings--One of the Best of Its Kind in the State--Those Who Were Present Last Night.

The new addition of the the Scranton Bicycle club house was opened last night, or rather, the practically new building of the club was opened. And in the evening the opening of the doors, about three hundred members and their friends took part.

D. E. ATHERTON, Treasurer of the Scranton Bicycle Club, and a member of its Building Committee.

large apartments which will be devoted to lounging, social, amusement, living and gymnastic purposes. In an inspection of the spacious building there was a constant reminder that the club and its home were represented an approved institution of a large city.

POOR BOARD MEETING.

Condensed Wisdom and Information Offered to All Who Wish. Many business men and women have longed for a book of ready reference, and on an encyclopedia and a dictionary an indispensable "at one's elbow" servant.

E. C. DEAN, Treasurer of the Scranton Bicycle Club.

Every member of the poor board was present at yesterday's session, at which a number of applications for relief were heard. The board decided to issue the January poor orders before Christmas and add twenty per cent. to them by way of a present to the district's charges in accordance with the custom of the board in years gone by.

Today the members of the home committee, the architect and Super'ndent-charger will examine with the clerk and Mr. Hughes' compensation list be decided upon. The home committee was instructed to draw an order for the amount it is found to be entitled to receive.

W. P. KENNEDY, Secretary of the Scranton Bicycle Club.

The dance hall and its parlor are on the street floor and on the third floor above is the dining room, the dining and dining apartments and accompanying rooms are reached from the street by an entrance separated from that reached by members.

THE OTHER FEATURES. The dance hall and its parlor are on the street floor and on the third floor above is the dining room, the dining and dining apartments and accompanying rooms are reached from the street by an entrance separated from that reached by members.

OPTION ON DICKSON WORKS

Rumor Has It That Scranton and New York City Capitalists Are Trying to Secure It.

It was reported on the streets yesterday that an effort had been made, supposedly by Scranton and New York city capitalists, to secure an option on the purchase of the entire plant of the Dickson Manufacturing company.
