Keystone academy's "Contest in Declamation" last Friday evening at the Baptist church was one of the best ever given, and was a pleasant sur-prise for all who were fortunate enough to be present. Some of the speakers went far beyond the expecta-tions of their most intimate friends. Morton W Stenhens was awarded the Morton W. Stephens was awarded the prize, and very honorable mention was given Clinton E. Cook and Francis E. Bond. There were others worthy of favorable mention, but space will not permit us to go into details. The judges were Rev. Herbert Peas, James E. Ersar, and Roscon Dula. The E. Christmas Holiday Tours.

In pursuance of its annual custom the Pennsylvania Railroad company has arranged for two Christmas Holl-day Tours, one to Old Point Comfort, Richmond, and Washington, and the other to Washington direct, to leave New York and Philadelphia December 28 and 29 respectively. The same high standard of excellence which has made these tours so popular in past years New York. Dec. 21.—The opening deal. ings at the Stock Exchange were general-ly at a higher range of prices, the sus-pension of the National Bank of illinois having had little or no influence on the market. It is true, Manhattan broke ²¹/₂ in the first hour, but this decline was due to special influences. In the afternoon, when it was announced that the senate had postponed action on the Cameron res-olution. local operators promptly changed these tours so popular in past years will be maintained during the present season. Tourists will travel in handseason. Tourists will travel in hand-somely appointed trains, accompanied by Tourist Agent and Chaperon, and will be accorded accommodations at the leading hotels. The social season at both Washington and Old Point will when it was announced that the senate had postponed action on the Cameron res-olution, local operators promptly changed from the bear to the bull side, and this new buying led to a sharp rise in the active specialities. Another important factor on the bull side was the announcement that there would be no gold shipments to Ger-many tomorrow. In the rally which fol-lowed prices rose is to 4% per cent. Man-hattan was the great feature, rising to 50. The Grangers, Louisville and Nashville. Reading, Western Union, Chicago Gas were all prominent. In the final trans-actions the market was firm in tone. Net changes show gains of 'sal's per cent. Total sales, 23,500 shares. Furnished by WILLIAM LINN, ALboth Washington and Orint Will be at its beight. The case of Rhoades Bros. comes of today before 'Squire Gardner. Rev. G. E. Van Wert, of Nicholson, is assisting Rev. H. H. Wilbur in a series of revival meetings at the Meth-odist Episcopal church this week. The revival services at the Baptist church still continues this week. Don't forget to go. Fred L. Foster, our enterprising cash merchant, advertises that Santa Claus will present every boy and girl under 14 years of age that comes to his store Christmas eve with a bag of nuts and candy. We are afraid Fred will find candy. We are afraid Fred will find some of our "big sisters" under 14 years of age that evening. Our merchants have had the finest line of holiday goods this year that was ever in our town, which shows that our population is yearly increasing and that our merchants are enter prising and up-to-date with their skilled city brethren. The most elab orate and complete display we have noticed is at Bliss & Hunt's, where one can not fail to find something suitable for all sex and ages. Before 'Squire Gardner's court yes-terday the case of J. C. Reynolds vs. Henry Carpenter came up for trial. It appears that the plaintiff sued the de-fendant for a book account, and the evidence produced showed that the books of the plaintiff did not thelong to him, but instead belonged to Milo Wilson, esq., therefore the court ig-norad the case and dismissed all parnored the case and dismissed all par ties concerned.
