Justice of the Perce T. J. Gildea was in Scranton yesterday. The opening of the Hackley Memorial kindergatten on Friday last has called general attention to one of the most reditable institutions established in section in recent years. The new building which has been in process of erection for several months was for-mally onened and exercises of an apmany opened and exercises of an ap-propriate character wore observed. It was unfortunate that Mrs. C. B. Hack-ley, of Tarrytown, N. Y., whose gener-osity was responsible for the magnifi-cent building was urable to be present. Miss Underwood, of Scranton, superintendent of the kindergartens in this vicinity, on behalf of Mrs. Hackley, ave welcome to the assembled children and parents and told in well chosen words the story of the kindergarten movement and particularly of the on-established in this borough by Mrs Hackley in boying remembrance of her own little daughter, who died many years area, "Thus," continued Miss Underwood, "by honoring the memory of her own, she shows her love for all the little ones, and teaches them to be good and true men and women."
