Successful Attack Upon the $3,000-000 Bequest for a Free Library in New York Paves the Way for Further Ouslangats.

New York, Dec. 25.—The residuary bequest of $3,000,000 which Samuel J. Tilden decided should be devoted to the establishment of a free library in this city having been declared invalid by the court of appeals a few years ago, further portions of his will have been declared to be unlawful by a decision rendered by Judge Beekman of the Supreme court. The action was brought by the executors and trustees for the purpose of obtaining a construction as to certain clauses of the will and to enable them to make distribution of the estate which they still have in their Pelton. sister of Mr. Tilden, gave the bulk of her share to carry out the scheme planned by her brother. Subsequentby the accounts of the executors and trustees were settled by agreement, and two funds were created, one for the payment of certain inheritance taxes, which have now been discharged, and the other a contingent fund of $500,000. This latter was to be devoted to certain purposes, including the carrying into effect of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth articles of the will, providing for the establishment of a library and free reading room at New Lebanon and Yonkers. About $100,000 was left for each of these libraries.

OPINION OF JUDGE BEEKMAN. Judge Beekman states that he does not consider it necessary to discuss the point as to whether the scheme in either case is sufficiently definite and certain to afford the basis for a judg-ment for the enforcement of the trusts which Mr. Tilden attempted to create with respect to these libraries, as he thinks that both provisions are open to the fatal objection that they violate the is statute against perpetuities. "No time is specified within which the trusts are to be executed," says the judge, "by any life in being, and the law is well settled that in the case of a charitable trust such a limitation is indispensable to its validity. These attempted dis-positions are therefore void, and the executors and trustees rest under no duty with respect to them."

Judge Beekman states that, inasmuch as the original scheme of Mr. Tilden failed and the main purpose of his will to establish a library in this city-was defeated, the trustees have become accountable to the next of kin for the whole of the residuary estate, Under the will of Mr. Tilden a trust fund of $50,000 was created for the bene- ary." fit of Mrs. Pelton, for life, and upor her death to go to her granddaughter, Mrs. Laura B. Hazard, the wife of William A. Hazard. Mrs. Pelton, by her will, gave her property to this grand-daughter and the court now decides that she is also entitled to the principal PROVISIONS LOOSELY DRAWN. Judge Beekman also holds that Adelaide E. T. Buchannan is entitled to the principal of the trust fund of $25,000 created by the will of Mr. Tilden, for the benefit of her mother, Lucy F.

That provision of the will relative to the acquisition by the trustees of cer-tain family property at New Lebanon for the use of Mrs. Tilden's nephews George H. Tilden and Samuel J. Tilden, jr., during their lives, Judge Beck-man decides is loosely drawn, suggesting rather the outline of a testamen-tary scheme, the details of which had not been worked out. He decides that these two nephews have estates for life as tenants in common in this property. the executors created to establish the the executors created to establish the libraries at New Lebanon and Yonkers and to pay the expenses of litigation now goes to the heirs, the clauses for the establishment of these libraries having been defeated. The judge declares that undoubtedly Mr. Tilden would have acted differently could be have apprehended that his scheme for a large library in this city would have been defeated, but the court can now undertake to devise a scheme which will supply such a difficulty or make another will for Mr. Tilden.

SEARCH FOR OHIO SWINDLERS.

Men Who Imposed Upon Credulous Democrats Badly Wanted.

Columubs, Ohio, Dec. 25.-United States District Attorney Harlan Cleveland is trying to run to ground some shrewd rascals who during the last state campaign took advantage of the Democratic state committee to practice a fraud on credulous Democrats in the state by the use of the mails and the name of the Democratic state committee. The schemers opened headquarters in the Chittenden hotel about the same time the state committee did, and wrote to a large number of Democrats at the smaller postoffice towns in the state, saying that the postmasterships in their towns would soon be given out, and the committee's recommendation would be given. The money so secured would be put in the campaign. The swindlers caught a great many on this hook. Four were taken in in the small town of Mount Glicad. J. J. Runyon of that place has put the matter in the hands of the postal authorities, who are now trying to get a clew to the guilty parties.

MOTERMAN KILLED.

Allentown Trolley Car Demolished by a Jersey Central Train.

Allentown, Pa., Dec. 25.-A trolley car coming to this city from hem at 1.20 this afternoon was struck by a Jersey Central passenger train on a grade crossing in East Allentown. The trolley car conductor had ran ahead and signalled to the motorman to proceed. He whanged the signal upon seeing an approaching train, but it was too late. Motorman Lawrence J. Ware stopped the car with the front platform on the track. The train was miles an hour and when the loce struck the car it broke the platform off, carrying it 150 feet.

The motorman was dragged almost as far and was killed instantly. The car was broken to splinters. Conductor George Gresser had his face slightly bruised and four passengers were in-jured. John J. Brink, face cut; Mrs.

John Brink, back bruised: Ed Werg, thigh and spine hurt, and P. German, forehead and cheek cut and bruised. None of their injuries, however, are serious. Motorman Ware was 49 years old and leaves a wife and eight chil-

RHODES WILL EXPLAIN.

Expects to Give Important Testimony in the Jameson Case.

Capetown, Dec. 25.—A reception was given yesterday at Port Elizabeth to Cecil Rhodes, formerly prime minister of Cape Colony, and manager of the British South Africa, company, who is enroute to England to testify before the commission that will examine into the raids by Dr. Lameson, into the the raids by Dr. Jameson into the Transvaal. Mr. Rhodes made a speech, certain parts of which have excited considerable comment here.

He treated lengthly upon South African affairs, touching somewhat fully upon affairs in Rhodesia, whence he arrived a few days ago after taking part in the suppression of the Matabele revolt, and then said he was going iome to be examined regarding the Jameson expedition by his fellow coun-trymen whose unctuous rectitude, he well knew. This sarcastic reference to the investigating commission is taken to indicate that Mr. Rhodes' testimony will be far more interesting than was anticipated.

FRIENDS OF SPAIN.

The Powers Have Become Uneasy at the Attitude of the United States on the Cuban Question.

London, Dec. 25 .- The Times will tomorrow publish a dispatch from Paris saying that the United States has been confidentially informed in the most friendly terms that the European powers could not remain impassive in the event of the United States abandoning the attitude of President Cleveland and his cabinet. Should the United States presume to exercise pressure on Spain by recognizing the Cuban insurgents or encouraging them in their resistance, it has been informed that Europe generally might become uneasy at the idea of such an extension of international action by the United States, inasmuch as it might at a given moment threaten almost all the powers whose possessions are in proximity to the United States and might tempt the spirit of enterprise and encroachment that is inspiring the senate committee on foreign relations.

"If," continues the writer, "I am correctly informed the United States has been concurrently informed that Germany is already quite prepared to side with Spain in the event of the United States showing that she is disposed officially to side with the rebels. Senator Cameron's resolution for the recognition of the Cuban insurgents is regarded in some quarters as revolution-

SMALL BOY SMOTHERED.

Charles Ward, Aged Five Years, Dies in a Burning Building.

Williamsport, Pa., Dec. 25.—At 9.30 o'clock this evening flames were discovered issuing from the third story of the big Commercial block, the upper floors of which were occupied by a number of families. The firemen responded quickly but the dense smoke hindered them in their work. It was soon learned that Charles Ward, five years old, was asleep in an apartment on the third floor. Heroic efforts were made at rescue, but the dense smoke made it impossible for them to enter the room. He was found later, however, but was under the bed and had been suffocated to death.

The mother of the child had put him to bed and gone out to spend the evening, leaving an oil stove burning in the room, it is supposed the fire originated from the oil stove. The building was badly damaged.

BOSTON CAR STRIKE.

Men Are Dissatisfied With the Outcome of the Affair.

Boston, Dec. 25.-There is much dissatisfaction openly expressed among he old employes of the West End Street Railway company at the outcome of the strike, and especially over the order issued by the company to the effect that the strikers who desired to return to work must run their chances of being again employed upon personal application, and must take their places n turn and below whatever new men had been put on in the strikers' places. The company is said to be making wholesale discharges of old employes tonight, some 300 or 400 being already reported. New men are being employed there have been no disturbances.

M'KINLEY'S QUIET CHRISTMAS.

The President-elect Indulges in Sleighride With His Wife.

Canton, Ohlo, Dec. 25.-Major Me-Kinley's Christmas was a very quiet one. He took advantage of the con-tinued god sleighing weather to take two sleigh rides this morning. Mrs. Me-Kinley accompanied him during one ride and a party of the Major's neices was with him on the second. The Major and his wife dined with mother McKinley, and during the after-noon he read the papers and chatted with personal friends who called. There were no callers of political importance and none are expected tomorrow.

Murdered His Friend.

Baltimore, Dec. 25.—Conrad Sommers, aged 41 years, a salconkeeper, of Gough and Third streets, Highlandtown, a suburb of this city, was shot and instantly killed today by Nieholas White. Sommers playfully butted White with his head, whereupon the latter drew a revolver and sent a builet through his heart. White is in jail. Both men have large families.

Result of Christmas Drunk.

NO ABATEMENT OF SPANISH BUTCHERY

Massacre of Puerto Principe Reported as a Great Victory.

WRECKED BY A DYNAMITE BOMB

An Explosion Destroys an Armored Car and Kills Two Soldiers -- Officially Announced Spanish Victories Are Open to Suspicion.

Havana, Dec. 25.—An official announcement was made today that the Spanish troops under Colonel Rabanal have had an engagement with several rebel parties under Rojas., The scene of the fighting was near Gimarrones, province of Puerto Principe. A rebel camp was captured and the insurgents were completely dispersed, with the loss of thirty-live killed. The Spanish loss was one killed and eight wounded. Advices from a more reliable source than the government show that the socalled engagement was simply a mas-sacre of unarmed non-combatants by the troops. While a train was passing along the railway between Caibarien and Camajuani, province of Santa Clara, a dynamite bomb exploded, wrecking the armored car containing the train's military escort. Two sol-diers were killed and two wounded.

MISS SEWELL ADOPTS THE STAGE. Granddaughter of Lester Wallack Arranging for Her Debut.

New York, Dec. 25.—The announcement hat Miss Florence Wallack Sewell; the favorite granddaughter of Lester Wallack, is to appear on the stage of the theatre bearing the name of the famous actor will doubtless interest thousands to whom the memory of the comedian is a source of pleasure.

Miss Sewell is the daughter of Arthur L. Sewell, the stock broker, who died

L. Sewell, the stock broker, who died last spring. Her debut will be made next month, when she will essay the part of Helen in Miss Margaret Mather's production of "Cymbeline" at Wallack's Theatre.

"I do not enter the profession," said Miss Sewell tonight, "with the idea that the only thing necessary to my success is the possession of the name I bear. I am thoroughly impressed with the fact that I will have to work hard in order to make a reputation. That I have inherent ability which can be brought out and turned to advantage by proper training. I am, however, convinced." nvinced."
Miss Sewell evidently inherited her love of art from another famous anceslove of art from another famous ancestor, Sir John Millals, who was her grandmother's brother. Her childhood was spent in Long Branch. It was there she had her first experience with theatricals. She appeared in reveral amateur productions, and also with a company headed by Henry Chanfrau. Recently she filled on engagement as understudy in August Van Bien's "Broken Melody" company.

PROTECTS AMERICAN CREDITORS.

Receiver Appointed for the Mexican and Monterey Railroad.

City of Mexico., Dec. 25.-Fedaral Judge Perez de Leon has issued an im-portant decree in the matter of the Monterey and Mexican Gulf railway, attaching the property of that corporation and appointing Manuel Contrueras as receiver.
This decision, which is of immense importance to the American creditors, was arrived at because the Belgian syndicate, now operating the line, did not deposit,, as required to do by a previous decree, $4,000,000, which would have protected the American creditors, among whom is Joseph A. Robertson, a well known capitalist of Monterey, who represents his own claim and sev eral others of great magnitude.

This decision gives protection to Americans holding claims against the corporation.

OVERDUE STEAMER.

End Wenther, Poor Coal and Green Firemen Cause Trouble.

Boston, Dec. 25.-The overdue Allan line steamer Scandinavia from Glas-gow arrived today six days late, owing to bad weather, poor coal and green firemen. On Christmas eve she collided off Cape Cod, with the schooner Carrie Walter, which vessel became a total wreck as a result of the collision, her crew of six men being brought here on the steamer. The accident was due to the steamship captain mistaking the schooner for the pilot boat on the Cape Cod station, as she burned flareup lights used abroad the pilot fleet as a signal and in consequence the steamer held her course until she collided with the schooner. The Scandinavian as a result of the collision has two holes in her starboard bow, where a large piece of the schooner's jib boom and a portion of her jib had lodged.

VICTIM OF THE MAFIA.

An Italian Barber is Dying at St. Vincent's Hospital.

New York, Dec. 25,-Antonio Zanone. an Italian barber supposed to be a vie-tim of the Mafia, is dying at St. Vin-cent's hospital, with two stab wounds in his left breast, and the police are looking for Luigi Catalone, who is ac-cused of attacking him without provocation.

Zanone was drinking at midnight with Julius Nacione, Salvator Galine. and Simeono Calagoire, who live above the saloon, 237 Elizabeth street, Some-one called him out. A moment later his friends heard bim fall and found him lying in the hallway bleeding. He was taken to the hospital. Zanone told the police that Catalone was his assailant and that he was stabled as soon as he stepped into the hall and before he had time to speak.

Will Not Be Changed.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 25.-At its meeting in Chicago this week the lowa sol-diers and sailors' monument commission decided to accept the model of the figure "Iowa" as originally designed by Carl Rohl-Smith.

It is a seminude figure of a woman seated. It represents Iowa as a mother longing for her children to come to her to be nourished. She is seated with the plowshare on one side, representing the agricultural resources of the Hawkeye state, and the coat of arms of Iowa, lying buried in the heap of corn and wheat, balances the base on either side.

"Men may not appreciate the intensity of the sentiment which animates

the whole figure, but every Iowa moth-er who sees the statue will understand it instantly," said a member of the commission, lowa is supposed to be capable of nourishing the world.

BEREFT OF REASON BY REVERSES. SCHOOL GIRL AS CORRESPONDENT.

New York Wholesale Clothing Merchant Declared to Be Insanc. Kansa City, Mo., Dec. 25.—Oscar O.

New York, Dec. 25.—Mary Edith Lewis, a school girl of 17, was the corespondent named by Mrs. Mary Eleanor Rogers in her suit for divorce against Henry L. Rogers, tried in the supreme court to-day.

Mary was only 15 years old when the acts which resulted in her appearance in the divorce case were said to have occurred. Wahifeld, president of a New York wholesale clothing house bearing his name, threatened to kill W. B. Thayer, of the firm of Emery, Bird, Thayer & Co., in the latter's office here late yesterday afternoon. Today he was de-clared to be insane.

Mr. Wahlfeld was arrested Saturday on a charge made by Mr. Thayer of passing a worthless check for $300. He had received $100 of the amount, and yesterday, after having been released from jail, he went to Mr. Thayer and demanded the remaining $200. When payment was refused he threatened to shoot Thayer, but was overpowered by clerks in the office before he could do any damage.

Mr. Wahlfeld was once wealthy and s well known both here and in New York. Financial reverses are respon sible for his condition, WILL CONTESTED BY HER FATHER.
