THE DISASTER AT CAHABRA BRIDGE

Dead Is Increasing Daily.

MORE BODIES YET IN THE RIVER

The List Is Now Up to Twenty-three. It Is Thought That the Victims Were Cremated Alive -- Examination of the Bridge Revents a Deliberate Plot to Wreck the Train.

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 28.-Few further details are obtainable than those given in yesterday's dispatches as to the terrible railroad wreck at the Cahaba river bridge yesterday. The railread officials have a list of twenty-one dead, that number of bodies having been taken out of the river, but the belief gains ground that there are more dead bodies yet in the river, or else some were entirely consumd by fire. It seems impossible to ascertain how many passagers were on the train. Nearly all had round-trip holiday tickets and had been away from home to spend Christmas. It develops this morning that a man named Libbs and his wife got on the train at Guiners, six miles this side of the wreck. They are missing, and it is probable that they were burned in the wreck. This runs the list of known dead up to 23. Others to the number of six who were supposed to be missing have been accounted for.

LIST OF THE DEAD. The corrected list of dead and missing now stands as follows: Railroad employes-Frank White, engineer; James Bowling, express messenger; George Carney, flagman; A. P. Connell, conductor; Tom Streeter, porter; R. Webb, bridge watchman.

Passengers-Bruce Phillips, L. W. Martin, Mrs. Henry Hanbury and two children, Rev. R. H. Blount, Miss Ada Powers, D. J. Powers, Mrs. Emma Pow- tained. ers and two children, Mrs. R. Little, James Gardner, mother and sister, Mr. Libbs and wife.

The injured are: Henry Hanbury, will probably die; Andrew Bryson, will No Arrests Have Been Made By Inspecdie; E. R. Eckels, Will Gardner. Miss Both, Sam Stuart, fireman; child of Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Walker, all slightly hurt. The only persons on the train to escape unhurt were three little children of Mrs. Walker, It is thought that fully half the dead were cremated alive.

A further examination of the bridge A further examination of the bridge of the mail robbery committed on Tues-shows that the spikes on one side had day night. The mail stolen came from dicates that a rail was moved out of place to deliberately wreck the train. W. D. Ross, a bridge carpenter, who was hurt in a collision at the scene of the disaster between two relief trains died today. Another bridge carpenter. named Estes had both his legs cut off in the second wreck and will die.

SISTERS' HEROISM SAVES LIVES.

A Church Panic Calmed by Several Brave Women.

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 28.—The presence of mind of several Catholic sisters of the Order of St. Francis tonight prevented loss of life at a Christmas entertainment in the hall of the Holy Rosary church. The hail is on the third floor of the school building. Over 300 persons, mostly Polish women and their children, were crowded into it. On the stage fifty or more children were taking part in the tableaux, illustrating scenes in the life of Christ.

One of the little girls thoughtlessly pushed a gauze curtain too close to a gas jet. In an instant a flame shot upwards and across the top of the stage The children screamed. A panic fol-lowed, and death would have resulted but for the sisters, who, stationing themselves at the narrow exits, held back the children and excited women and guided them slowly out the doorways. Some of the frightened people rushed for the windows, but the sisters again prevented any rash attempt nt escape.

The fire was quickly subdued and many of the people left the building by means of the fire escapes. Several women fainted from fright, but no one the effect that William Waldorf Astor has foresworn his native country, where he made his millions, or, rather, where his millions were made for hin and has taken the oath of allegiance to the queen.

People who know Mr. Astor has given expression to the idea that America is not a fit place for a gentleman and of his family troubles. Mr. Astor is but 48 years old, and gossips have made him an aspirant to the hand of one of the Prince of Wales' daughters.

HORRORS OF THE WATERSPOUT.

Portugese Consulate Gives Details of the Disaster of November 2.

Boston, Dec. 28.—The Portuguese consulate in this city has received a petition from the Island of St. Michael. in the Azores, signed by the Portuguese governor and nineteen of the principal by the bursting of a giant waterspout November 2 over the city of Povoacao, books,

The petition states that there is much suffering for food, clothing and shelter, and gives some particulars of the calamity than which, it states, none has been more devastating in the history of

Tons of water poured down upon the city, which was of about 25,000 inhabitants, mounting above the roofs of the nouses, ripping up the streets and carrying destruction everywhere in its path. The torrent reached down the dones to the sea, tearing a wide channel through nine miles of country and carrying with it the homes of thousands of people. The flood also destroyed the town of Riberia Quente, of ,000 population and several outlying parishes. All along the coast the fishermen lost their boats and the shore was littered with the corpses of those who perished in the floods.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.

Elbert Tiffany Receives a Buttet That Was Intended for a Target. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Lindaville, Dec. 28.-About 3 p. m. Christmas day two boys, sons of O. L. Tiffany, and a boy from Franklin Forks by the name of Snow, were practleing at target shooting in the dooryard. The target was a mark of some kind on a small out-building, with open cracks between the boards.

Elbert Tiffany was inside the building when one of the shots was fired, and the ball from a 22-calibre rifle easily found its way through one of the open cracks, and without any apparent obstruction struck Elbert near the spine, just above the hips and was driven so far into his body that Dr. Wheeler, of Nicholson, who probed for the ball, was unable to reach it with any instrument then in his possession.

The fact that the ball had passed the spine before it entered the flesh and that its course was away from the spine, and the further fact that it entered the body below the vital organs are favorable to Elbert's recovery. The doctor says that two inches higher would have been fatal.

Elbert is not suffering much pain and hopes for a speedy recovery are enter-

In his statement to the board General Porter said that the ceremonie should be under the direction of the city authorities, as the dedication of the monument is to be distinctly a city affair. General Porter said that the total cost of the monument will be $600,000, the largest sum ever raised by popular subscription for such a purpose. All this money except $18,000 he said, had been contributed by citizens of New York city in amounts ranging from one cent to five thousand dollars He further stated that President-elec McKirley had agreed to be present a the ceremony and that all the members of the cabinet, the diplomatic corps the legislature, governors of states, and ceived here yesterday from London to mayors of all large cities ought to be invited. The government would invite McRill. all nations maintaining fleets in the Atlantic to participate in a naval parade.

PAYING TELLER SKIPS.

Leander Bosch, of the Suspended Bank of Minnesota Missing.

Chicage, Dec. 28 .- A special from St Paul, Minn., says:

Leander Bosch, paying teller of the of the suspended bank of Minnesota, has disappeared. When the receiver took charge of the bank he was informed than an item in the accounts of the paying teller could not be satisfactory understood without a personal explanation from Mr. Bosch. The discrepancy amounts to between $1,000 and $2,000, and is so small that the assets of the bank are not affected. The sum. indeed, is so trivial that it is believed Mr. Bosch could readily replace it fron citizens, asking aid for the sufferers his personal means should the omission be not explained by a rechecking of th
