CITY NOTES.

Patrick Quinn and Joseph Savage were committed to the county jail yesterday for thirty days each. The St. Luke's industrial school, at 122 Washington avenue, re-opens Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. An execution, amounting to $300, was yesterday issued against Max Phillips, at the instance of John Taylor. The regular meeting of the managers of the Home for the Friendless will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the usual place. The Dr. Green of the Sears building who has been sold out by the sheriff is Dr. E. W. Green, the electrical physician, and not Dr. E. M. Green, the dentist. The will of John Schneider, late of Scranton, was yesterday admitted to probate and letters testamentary were granted to the widow, Caroline Schneider. Jim Bedras and Michael Asselty, two of the alleged rioters at the Florence colliery in Archbald, were yesterday released from the county jail on bail furnished by George Marovok. Ann Llewellyn, through her attorney, L. P. Wiedeman, brought suit for divorce yesterday in Probationary Fry's office against her husband, William T. Llewellyn, on the grounds of cruelty. The pastor's union of Scranton will meet next Monday morning at 10:30. The meeting will be in parlors of the Young Men's Christian association. Subject for discussion, "The Proper Relation of Pulpit and Press." Mary Orchard, Anna Stewart, Caroline Nichols and Hattie Reed yesterday began a suit in partition against Ruth Wiedeman for the division of lot 8 in block 7 of the Belsky Griffin tract in the Second ward. W. G. Thomas is attorney for the plaintiffs. Thomas Smallcomb, a shaft sinker and contractor in that line of work, was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out before Alderman Howe by William Thomas, of the West Side, charging him with defrauding a boarding house keeper. The evidence was not sufficient to make out a case and Smallcomb was discharged.

BROKE THE RECORD AT POSTOFFICE.

December Sale of Stamps Larger Than Any Month in Its History. Postmaster Vandling forwarded his report for the month of December to Washington yesterday and the sale of stamps shows that the record for December, 1896, was the largest of any one month in the history of the Scranton postoffice. The amount derived from the sale of stamps was $11,873.78, which is $2,229.68 more than the record for December, 1896. The holiday season brings the sale of stamps in December far beyond that it is in other months. The mail train is unusually heavy.

Open on Monday.

Mr. J. Bolz, 128 Wyoming avenue, whose stock of goods was damaged by fire last week, will reopen his store on Monday morning. The entire stock must be closed out in thirty days.

In connection with our Muslin Undergarment sale which commences Saturday, Jan. 2, we will offer about 1,000 yards Embroidery Remnants.

FINLEY'S.

The shoe store of Lewis, Reilly & Davies will be closed today.

DeWitt's Photo Parlors, 425 Spruce st., cor. Washington ave., will be open for business today.

FAREWELL '96 ALL HAIL TO '97

Infant Year Was Received with Noisy Demonstrations.

CELEBRATORS WERE OUT IN FORCE

They Made a Terrible Din as the Old Year Slipped Away Into History. Watch Night Services Held in a Number of the City Churches—Many Social Events Held Last Night.

There is no reasonable cause for the year '96 to kick about its reception. It was demonstrative enough to suit even the most noise-loving of youths. Old '96 had hardly retired from the stage of action when the welcome to his young successor began. He rang whistles, blew, and as if by magic an army of young men appeared about town armed with tin horns and other devices for disturbing the atmosphere and making the nervous shudder, and for over half an hour the combined efforts of the welcome-makers made a din that would have been intolerable at any other time.

But it was New Year's eve and every one expected that sort of thing so no one objected save the dyspeptics, not even the policemen although the latter's patience was often sorely tried. They had their orders to give the celebrators a little more leeway than is usually accorded and they obeyed orders for the policeman in common with the rest of healthy humanity, likes to see the members of the human family bestir themselves occasionally and give vent to their pent up feelings. When a number of young men started for Court House square, however, with the material for a bonfire and the expressed determination of making a hot fire all night as they departed, the police made up their mind that right there was where the line between jollity and foolishness should be drawn and they drew it. The bonfire did not take place, to the chagrin of the exuberant young men who planned it in one of the establishments where colored fluids are dispensed by the glass. As a sort of a compromise with themselves they tried to blow up Patrolman Tom Lowry with a large cannon cracker and the probabilities are that some of them are still running.

THEY BEGAN EARLY.

Quite early in the evening the streets contained a number of celebrators and the toot of the fish horn and clang of the bell was heard at intervals as he might have been seen. It was when the witching hour of midnight arrived that the great chorus began and it continued without let or hindrance for nearly an hour until even the steam whistles had exhausted themselves. Then quiet was restored and the New Year having been properly greeted those who were responsible for all the tumult sought their homes. It was not with these loud outward demonstrations that all greeted the year. There were many quiet social evenings in charge of the Epworth League where the old year was danced out and the new danced in or greeted in some other way. In many of the churches watch night services were held.

In Elm Park church the service began at 9 o'clock with literary exercises in charge of the Epworth League which lasted one hour. From 10 to 11 o'clock there were five-minute addresses and at the latter hour Rev. Dr. C. M. Giffin, the pastor, took charge. He made a short address. There was silent prayer at midnight. The Epworth League began at 8 o'clock in the Penn Avenue Baptist church. Beginning at 11:30 o'clock Rev. Dr. Dixon, the pastor, preached a sermon and at midnight while the church bell was ringing Mrs. Lizzie Hughes Brundage sang the solo, "Eternity."

OBSERVANCE OF TODAY.

Business Throughout the City Will Be Generally Suspended. There will be a general observance of the beginning of the New Year in this city today. The mines and shops of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and Delaware and Hudson Canal company will be shut down and only such work as is necessary will be done by the employees of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company. The banks and the majority of the business houses will keep their doors closed and business will be generally suspended. At the postoffice the stamp and general delivery windows will be open from 7 a. m. to 12 o'clock. The money order and register windows will be closed all day. Morning deliveries will be made by carriers. All of the city and county offices will be closed today.

Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION.

According to the usual custom of the Young Men's Christian association, they will keep open house on New Year's day from 3 o'clock to 10 p. m. A sub-committee of the reception committee have in charge of the decorations and began work last evening. It is proposed to entirely transform the appearance of the building by a liberal use of evergreens, beautiful effects in bunting and an artistic arrangement of pot plants. The Imperial quartette will work in the afternoon and evening. From 4 to 5:30 in the afternoon a programme will be given in the auditorium by the Perry brothers in selections on the sleigh bells, metaphors, xylophone, tumbler drum, auto-harp and silver chimes, assisted by Mr. Howard S. Starrett in his famous Shadograph specialties, ventriloquism and crayon sketches. The same artists will also give the evening entertainment from 8 to 9:30 o'clock. It is especially requested that the junior members of the association and their friends who desire to take in the entertainments, shall plan to attend in the afternoon in order that the center members may have opportunity to be present in the evening. This arrangement is necessary for the accommodation of all who wish to come, owing to the limited seating capacity of the Association auditorium. The building will be open to all celebrators during the hours mentioned above, whether they are or are not members of the association. A photograph will be on exhibition during both afternoon and evening in the Association parlors. At the Laidlaw Young Men's Christian association there will be no unusual observance of the day for the reason that there is not sufficient room to accommodate the crowd that would invade the rooms. The building was crowded with railroad men when a Tribune reporter called yesterday afternoon. "We are not dead down here, O dear no," said Secretary Pearsall, "but you see our condition. I desired very much to have some sort of exercises tomorrow or furnish some kind of entertainment or refreshments for the railroad boys but we can't do it in these cramped quarters. You can see how we are crowded today when there is nothing unusual going on. We need a larger building to properly carry on this work and we are trying to raise money to obtain it some day. Just when it will come one can not tell at present though."

AT Y. M. C. A. ROOMS.

At the rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association on Washington avenue all callers will be welcomed between 4 and 10 p. m. An interesting programme comprised mainly of vocal and instrumental music has been arranged for each hour. The reception is in charge of Miss Emeline Richmond, Miss Blanche Dolph and Mrs. C. W. Roberts and the following will have numbers on the programme: Mrs. Helen Judd Strine, Miss Carolyn Wolfe, Robert Strine, Fred J. Widmayer, H. R. Weisenflue, Harvey Blackwood, Herbert Waters, Walter Kiple, Messrs. Allen, Stanton, Bausemann, Doersam, Miss Lela Porter, Professor Chance, and orchestra. Mr. J. M. Calkin, Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Boston Williams, Mr. Harber and Miss Lydia Sallor. At the South Side Young Women's Christian Association rooms, 1021 Cedar avenue, a reception will also be held between the hours of 4 and 10 p. m. A large reception committee will make it pleasant for all who call. Refreshments will be dispensed with and there will be an interesting musical programme rendered between the hours above mentioned.

IN THE CHURCHES.

The festival of the circumcision of Christ which always falls on the civil New Year's day will be observed as usual in St. Luke's church this morning by the celebration of holy communion at 10 a. m. This morning in the First Presbyterian church, from 9 until 10 o'clock, a service of praise and prayer will be held. The second church will, as in former years, unite with the First in this service. Drs. Robinson, McLeod, Logan and others will be present. Everybody is invited to spend this hour on New Year's morning in devotional exercises. At St. Peter's cathedral this morning the feast of the circumcision will be observed with masses at 6, 7, 8 and 9 o'clock. There will be two masses at St. Paul's church in Green Ridge this morning, one at 7 and the other at 8:30 o'clock. In St. Patrick's church, West Side, masses will be celebrated at 7, 8 and 9 o'clock. The last will be a high mass and the church choir under the direction of Haydn Evans will sing.

CHILD BURNED, MOTHER ILL.

A Little North End Girl Narrowly Escapes Death.

Lillie, the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Blackledge, of Thompson street, narrowly escaped being burned to death yesterday afternoon. The little one was in the cellar and in all probability was playing with the furnace when her clothes caught fire. Her screams were heard by her parents who were in an upstairs room. Both rushed to her assistance and attempted to tear off the burning clothing. The child, nearly crazed with pain, broke away from them and ran up stairs. The father and mother pursued her and finally succeeded in smothering the flames. The child was severely burned about the chest and arms and her condition is precarious. Mr. and Mrs. Blackledge were severely burned on the hands. Mrs. Blackledge was taken seriously ill in consequence of the excitement.

THE SCRANTON BUSINESS COLLEGE.

Both sessions re-open Monday, Jan. 4. Another student, a lady, has secured a position with a well-known firm. Many new students will come during January. Arrangements to properly accommodate all have been completed. The reputation of this school is such that it has never been necessary to employ canvassers to solicit patronage. No contract is made with the student until he is ready to enter. The "courses of study" are the result of the proprietors' ten years of experience in business college work right here in the city. They are as strong as the strongest, stronger than most. The new series of text books, adopted last September, are fully up to date and such as are used in schools like the Metropolitan, of Chicago. No "Budget System," no "Cabinet System," no "Actual Business from Start to Finish," no "Catech" system by which young people are deluded into believing that by the expenditure of little effort and time on their part they can be turned out full-fledged book-keepers, stenographers, etc. Theory and practice, practice and theory, combined with absolute thoroughness. The rates of tuition charged by the Scranton Business College are as low as can be charged by any first-class institution. This school has demonstrated its ability to fulfill all of its contracts. Visitors always welcome. No trouble to show rooms and explain courses and methods.

FRANK SHIFFER JAILED.

He Is Charged with Obtaining Money on a Worthless Check. William E. Smith, the South Washington avenue grocer, appeared before Alderman Wright yesterday and swore out a warrant against Frank Shiffer for obtaining money under false representations. Shiffer was arrested and in default of bail was committed to the county jail.

Mr. Smith alleges that Shiffer came to him with a check for $17.25 on the First National bank. Shiffer drew the check payable to Mr. Smith and Mr. Smith let him have the money, but when he went to the bank he learned that Shiffer had no account there.

FUNDS NEEDED FOR A SUMMER HOME

Men's Guild of St. Luke's Church to Conduct a Notable Entertainment.

WORTHY OBJECT IT HAS IN VIEW

The Guild Has Been Offered a Building at Cresco Well Adapted for a Summer Home for Convalescent Women and Children and an Effort Is to Be Made to Raise the Funds Necessary to Secure It.

There is no charity in the city of Scranton which more strongly appeals to the people of all classes than the Summer Home for convalescent women and children conducted under the auspices of the Men's Guild of St. Luke's church. During several seasons from eighty to one hundred convalescent women and children have been taken from the unsanitary tenements of the city and entertained for periods of from ten to thirty days at a pleasant country home where, with pure, invigorating air and nourishing food, they have been restored to health and strength. It is a charity that does not extend its aid to professional paupers, but provides for the building up in strength of such women and children as are recommended by physicians and clergymen as being deserving working people unable, through lack of means, to secure the advantages the Home offers, and which are so frequently necessary for speedy restoration to health. During the past two seasons the Men's Guild have been handicapped by lack of accommodation for the large number of patients needing the benefits given by the Home owing to the lack of a suitable building in a proper location.

BUILDING AT CRESCO.

Through the kindness of Charles Schlager, a farm house at Lake Ariel which he owns was donated for the seasons of 1895 and 1896, but it was only a temporary assistance and the building was not really adapted to the work. The site has been offered a well adapted, and nicely constructed building at Cresco for a very low figure if used for this charitable work, and an effort is being made to secure funds sufficient to pay at least a portion of the purchase money required. Mr. Hallett, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad company has secured a rate of fare for patients to and from the Home at an exceedingly reasonable figure so that the Guild can afford it. It secures the building and grounds offered it, at least double the amount of good in succeeding warm seasons that it has in the past. With the object of raising funds a contract has been made with Walter C. Clark, of Detroit, to give a grand, spectacular pantomime of Ben-Hur at the Frothingham on the evenings of January 21, 22 and 23, with a matinee on the 23rd. About one hundred and twenty-five people will take part in the production. The costumes and a car load of scenery, stage mechanism and electrical appliances are furnished by Mr. Clark.

A FINE PRODUCTION.

The production has been arranged under the personal supervision of General Lew Wallace and Mr. Clark has secured the permission from the publishers, to make the production, the only stipulation being that no professional theatrical people are to take part. All references to the Saviour that would in the least offend the most devout christian have been eliminated without detracting from the beauty and interest of the production. The pantomime and tableaux have been produced in a number of prominent cities throughout the Union for charitable and religious benefits. Among recent successful productions was that at Cleveland, Ohio where, among other prominent society people who took part were Mrs. Mark Hanna and her daughter. As soon as all the arrangements are completed we will publish a list of the ladies and gentlemen taking part.

TODAY'S BENEFIT PERFORMANCES.

Waite Opera Company Will Sing at St. Thomas' College Hall. At 6 o'clock this morning a line of people will be going to the Frothingham box office without precedent in our amusement history as at that time the sale of seats opens for the benefit performances this afternoon and evening at St. Thomas' College hall to be given by the Waite Opera company for the benefit of St. Joseph Foundling home.

The price at the matinee will be 25 cents to all parts of the house with no extra charge for reserved seats and in the evening 25 and 50 cents. The "Mikado" will be presented at the matinee and "The Merry Widow" in the evening. The capacity of the cosy hall will without doubt be tested at both performances. Yesterday afternoon the company gave a fine performance of the "Tar and Tantar" at the Frothingham and last night "The Merry Widow" to an audience that taxed the capacity of the house. Saturday afternoon the company will sing "Olive" at the Frothingham and Saturday night "The Mascot."

COLLEGE OF COMMERCE NOTES.

The rooms in the Sumner building are particularly adapted to college work and the equipment is the finest in Pennsylvania. More than one hundred former pupils called yesterday. The opening next Monday will be greater than we had hoped for. Arrangements have been made with a large number of former pupils, who will complete their course with us, joining the classes Monday. A reception will be given next Monday at the college rooms to the students and friends of the college. Professor Harty will be a member of the college faculty.

ZERO AT DAVIS' THEATER.

Bright, Clever and Very Entertaining Throughout.

The New Year's day attraction at Davis' theater is one of the very latest shows that has ever played in the house. It is "Zero," a spectacular musical phantasy, and at the opening performance yesterday afternoon a large audience was more than pleased. The show opens with something about a plot and that is as light as a feather. When the specialties come and the audience is treated with a great convocation of almost everything on the stage. Harry Le Clair impersonates a female tragedian and sings a new song, "Foyack and Stella do some knock-out work as 'the Major and the Judge.' Hodges and Louchmore are good singers and can do the cake walk of their race with much grace. After a medley by the entire company the specialties are resumed. First comes a very fine exhibition of marching. The girls of the company are drilled to perfection and the costumes, made more brilliant with calcium effects, are indeed gorgeous. The great feature of the show is a series of dances by M. F. Edwards. This is very beautiful. The show closes with a grand electrical climax, the like of which has never before been seen at Davis'.

Joe Madden as the eccentric Irishman is a refreshing comedian. In fact every member of the large company is worth hearing. The show has a dog, a cat and a pig, all alive and educated. Performances will be given this afternoon and evening and tomorrow.

FILED THEIR BONDS.

County Commissioners Ready to Begin Their New Term. County Commissioners S. W. Roberts, Giles Roberts and John Demuth yesterday took their oaths of office and filed their bonds with Recorder Heister. The bonds are in the sum of $5,000 each. Sheriff F. H. Clemons and Hon. John H. Fellows are sureties for S. W. Roberts; W. C. Smith and Henry Roberts for Giles Roberts, and Philip Robertson and Christian Storr for John Demuth. Auditor-elect A. E. Kiefer also filed his oath of office. The new county officers take hold next Monday.
