

WE COULDN'T

Clean up everything in Holiday Goods...

Pictures, Dolls, Bric-a-Brac, Fancy Goods, Toys, Books, Crystal Notions

Everything in fact that we bought for the Holiday trade.

Gloves at Take-'em-Away Prices

Prices that you'll scarcely feel, owing to their littleness...

Slaughter Prices Began Monday Morning

Cloak Weather

this, surely. Cloak bargain time also. All the goods offered below are full Winter weights...

50 Children's Coats, heavy Tweed mixtures, worth $3.00. Sale Price, $1.29

50 Children's Coats, strong, warm school garments, sizes 6 to 12, pretty cloths and patterns, worth $3.50. Sale Price, $1.98

50 Children's stylish fur trimmed Coats, tan mixtures, sizes 6 to 12, worth $4.00. Sale Price, $2.98

50 Children's Jackets, high neck, deep storm collar, very heavy and strictly fine wool, sizes 4, 6 and 8, value $3.50. Sale Price, $1.49

65 Ladies' Fine Kersey Coats, navy or black, sizes 32 to 42, a thoroughly good and stylish garment, exceptionally good value for $5.00. Sale Price, $4.29

50 Ladies' Kersey Coats, inland velvet collars, superbly tailored, choice quality, a record breaker for $6.50. Sale Price, $4.69

25 French Coney Capes, finely matched skins, nicely finished, 20 inches deep, extra sweep, worth $5.50. Sale Price, $4.98

25 extra fine Kersey Jackets, black only, a superb garment that has sold this season for $12. Sale Price, $6.49

These are but price hints. The whole Cloak stock is at your service at the same price ratio.

GLOBE WAREHOUSE.

PENROSE CERTAIN

Collapse of the Wanamaker Boom at Harrisburg a Foregone Conclusion.

HIS LIEUTENANTS WRANGLE

Leach and Van Valkenburg Blame Each Other for the Fizzle of the Wanamaker Venture—Dr. Mackey Seeks to Become the Prodigal Son, He Is Steered Back into the Camp of the Merchant Prince by Hon. Johnny Farr—Mr. Quay's Statement.

Editorial Correspondence of The Tribune.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 3.—That the Wanamaker campaign would end in the Philadelphia merchant's defeat has been generally conceded from the beginning by those having practical acquaintance with politics...

"The meanest thing yet said about me in the papers," said E. A. Van Valkenburg today, "was an assertion in one of the papers that I was a lieutenant of Frank Willing Leach. I regard that as an unpardonable insult."

MACKAY AN OBJECT OF PITY.

If pity can be felt for a man like Dr. N. C. Mackey it deserves to be expended now. While Congressman-elect Connell was walking up to his room at the Commonwealth hotel Saturday evening he met Mackey unexpectedly face to face. Mackey started as if he had seen a policeman and turned a dozen colors in as many seconds...

READING CLERK CONTENT.

An interesting contest in connection with the organization of the house tomorrow night has developed. F. W. Fletch and James E. Watkins are both entered as aspirants for the reading clerkship. Watkins claims that he is entitled to a re-election, and Fletch contends that the defection of Mackey logically carries with it sacrifices of Watkins' chances. The issue will be decided some time tomorrow.

Yesterday evening and during today the situation has been notably quiet, but tonight the hotels are filling rapidly. It is estimated that 160 members are now in the city. All the Lackawanna members are here and the only Luzerne absentee is Representative Coray, who will arrive tomorrow. A good deal of uncertainty seems to exist as to how the Luzerne delegation will line up; but at a late hour this evening there seemed to be good warrant for the guess that Penrose would get four of the six votes. He is certain of three.

WANAMAKER'S SIGN.

"In deference to Mr. Wanamaker's wishes," so a written notice read, the Wanamaker headquarters were closed today. But that did not prevent Leach, the two Van Valkenburgs, Dave Martin, Chris Maceo, Rudolph Blankenburg, Senator Kauffman and the lesser Wanamaker lights from twinkling energetically in their rooms and in the corridors in the goodly merchant's interests. It was an interesting exemplification of the letter of the law being conserved at the expense of the law's spirit.

Senator Quay said tonight: "Penrose will have not less than 150 votes and I expect he will have more."

A WARRANT FOR MACKAY.

His Arrest Will Probably Be Made Today—Blankenburg Talks. Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 3.—There has been no change in the senatorial situation since last night. Claims and counter claims have been made by the respective sides, but there has been no actual gain on either so far as the outside public can know. Several doubtful members have come out for Penrose or Wanamaker, but their positions were pretty well understood before they announced themselves, and the effect has not been prejudicial to either side.

It is stated tonight that Detective McSweeney, of Scranton, has a warrant for the arrest of Dr. Mackey, one of the Lackawanna county members, on the charge of accepting a bribe. It is also understood that a warrant is in the hands of detectives for the arrest of a Wilkes-Barre saloonkeeper, who is charged with having bribed delegates to the various legislative conventions of Luzerne county. Dr. Mackey told the United Associated Presses correspondent tonight that he was not hunting trouble, but that he was ready for his accusers at any time. It is stated that a warrant will be served on him in the morning.

The Penrose managers are confident tonight that they have their fight won, with a large margin of votes to spare. Representative W. O. Smith, of Jefferson, who had been claimed by the Wanamaker people, is here tonight and has aligned himself with the Penrose people. Representative Martin, of Lawrence county, who deserted the Penrose camp yesterday and announced his intentions to support Wanamaker, has reconsidered, and is again lined up with Senator Quay's followers.

A letter has been received at the Penrose headquarters from Senator D. B. Mitchell, of Bradford county, who is ill at home, in which he states that he will be found in the Penrose column at the proper time. Representative Lewis Plattet, also of Bradford county, is also reported to be in the Penrose camp. Another member of the house, who was suspected of having Wanamaker tendencies, is William Teas, of Montgomery county. Representative Patterson, of Bucks county, has also identified himself with the Penrose people.

MR. BLANKENBURG TALKS.

Mr. Blankenburg said today: "Ex-Magistrate Durham stated last night, as reported in today's papers, that 'an overwhelming majority of the voters in Philadelphia are for Penrose, and the members and senators who have declared for him are thus representing the wishes of their constituents.' This is a greater bluff than Mr. Quay's statement that $5,000 had been offered for two votes. On our challenge to expose the bluff he takes refuge behind well-known advisers. He knows he has no better answer unless it is a confession that the bribe has been offered for effect by his own people."

Now we issue this challenge to Mr. Durham, chief sponsor and lieutenant of Mr. Penrose: "Let a popular vote be taken in the city of Philadelphia at the Republican primaries on Tuesday, Jan. 12, to give our citizens an opportunity to express their preference between Mr. Wanamaker and Mr. Penrose. If the result shows that an overwhelming majority is for Mr. Penrose, or even a majority of one single vote let the whole Philadelphia delegation, in response to the popular verdict, decline to support Mr. Penrose. If on the other hand, a majority declares for Mr. Wanamaker, let the whole Philadelphia delegation vote for him. This is a fair proposition, and it is not for you to refuse it. If you do not stand self-convinced of a majority for Penrose, but wish to see a chairman's fight, but which will avail you nothing in the senatorial fight."

NO TRUMPETS.

Frank Willing Leach said tonight that the Wanamaker people were not depending on the noise, nor the blare of trumpets, nor the shouts of men, for their power to defeat his nomination at St. Louis.

Now Messrs. Quay, Durham, Penrose and Andrews, if you are willing to see a decision between Mr. Wanamaker and Mr. Penrose to the people of Philadelphia, accept our challenge. If you do not you will stand self-convinced of a majority for Penrose, but wish to see a chairman's fight, but which will avail you nothing in the senatorial fight."

DURHAM'S STATEMENT.

Ex-Magistrate Durham, in relation to the challenges from David Martin and Rudolph Blankenburg, said at midnight: "Those eminent reformers and business men, Mr. Martin and Mr. Blankenburg, have provoked this primary election proposition at the eleventh hour, after a day of despair. I desire to say nothing at present, except that these interviews are but the dying yelps of the opposition."

THE CALIFORNIA CABINET BATTLE

Warring Factions of the Golden State Cannot Agree.

OREGON MAY RECEIVE THE PLUM

Major McKinley Desires to Recognize the Pacific Coast in the Cabinet and the Honor May Fall Upon a Man from Oregon—Senator Dolph a Possibility.

Washington, Jan. 3.—The California delegation has received assurance from Canton that if they can settle their factional differences, the Golden state will receive a cabinet appointment, and the delegation will make an attempt on Monday to unite upon some one of its distinguished Republicans. Mr. McKinley has expressed his desire to recognize the Pacific coast, and the honor may fall upon an Oregon man. If the Californians cannot agree among themselves, Oregon Republicans will urge Senator Dolph for secretary of the interior.

Two weeks ago the California delegation in congress, at a meeting at which Senator Perkins presided, canvassed the names of several distinguished Californians, among them being James A. Waymire, who was in close touch with Chairman Hanna during the campaign; United States Circuit Judge McKenna, who served on the ways and means committee with Major McKinley when the McKinley tariff bill was framed; Horace Davis, ex-member of congress from California, and ex-president of the California State university; ex-Judge De Haven, of Eureka, Cal., who served two terms in congress; Michael H. De Young, newspaper proprietor; Editor Otis, of the Los Angeles Times; and ex-Senator Charles S. Felton. The delegation finally agreed to recommend Mr. Davis, and a committee was appointed to draft a memorial to President-elect McKinley, but before it was forwarded to Canton many protests were received against the action of the delegation.

NEW NAME SUGGESTED.

A new name has now been suggested, that of Mr. John D. Spreckles, of San Francisco, California, representative on the national Republican committee, and who has heretofore been mentioned as a possible candidate to succeed Mr. Perkins in the senate. It is said that Mr. Spreckles has abandoned any wish of being a candidate for the senate. Californians arrived in Washington, who have talked with Major McKinley, say that Mr. Spreckles' name is among those being considered by the president-elect.

The Pacific coast has been represented in the cabinet but once, and that was during General Grant's tenure. Mr. Spreckles, who is now favorably mentioned in connection with the secretaryship of the navy, is at the head of the Oceanic Steamship company, plying between San Francisco and Hawaii, China, Japan and Australia. He is an extensive sugar grower and one of the wealthiest men on the Pacific coast. He has taken an active part in the politics of California, and his nomination contributed largely to the Republican success in that state.

BOOM AT JOHNSTOWN.

Shops and Mills Will Be Opened That Will Supply Work for Hundreds of Idle Men.

Johnstown, Pa., Jan. 3.—The Cambria iron-works will begin operations tomorrow morning and the steel works, blooming mill and billet mill will start up Tuesday.

This will be good news to a large number of the men who have been out of work and on during the last seven or eight months. The announcement was made officially Saturday, notices signed by General Manager Price having been posted up in the various departments.

Recess other work the company has received orders for making 10,000 tons of finished rails for the Pennsylvania railroad company, which will keep several mills busy during the next month or more.

The Johnson Steel Motor works, which have been idle for several weeks, will resume in full next week. General Superintendent Harris authorized this statement tonight. This means that several hundred idle men will be put to work.

SUICIDE OF CARVER VOSBURG.

A Prominent Citizen of Wyalusing Shoots Himself.

Wyalusing, Jan. 3.—Carver Vosburg, a prominent citizen of this place, committed suicide last evening by shooting himself. No reason can be assigned. Vosburg was 79 years old.

NARROWS IN A FOG.

Little Prospect of Clearing Weather Off Quarantine. Quarantine, S. L., Jan. 3.—During the past twenty-four hours the waters of the upper and lower bay have been enveloped in dense fog.

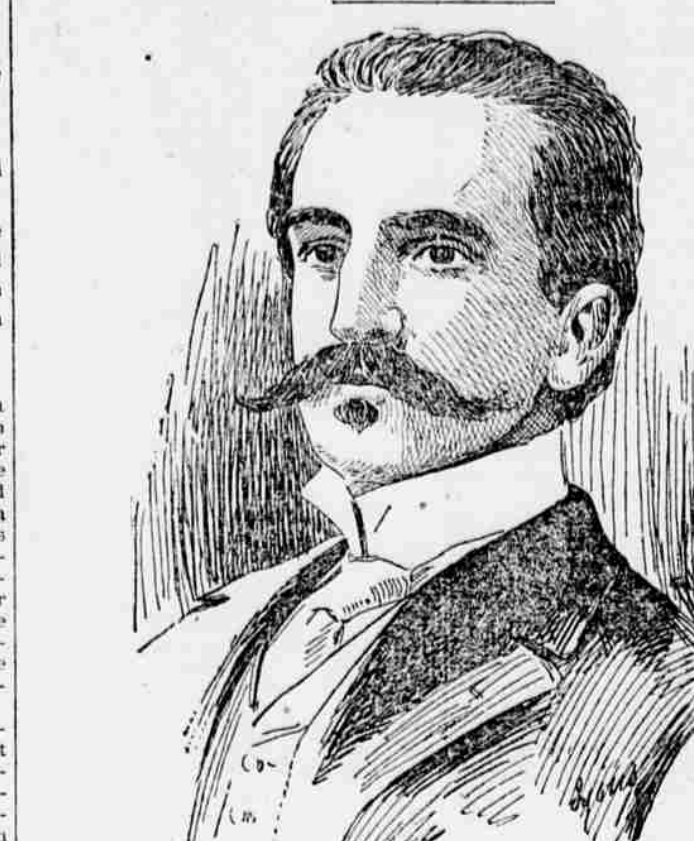

At 8 p. m. the quarantine in dense fog still prevailed, with little prospect of clearing weather. Not a single vessel passed in or out the Narrows since sunrise this morning. Several steamers due to arrive in port today are no doubt delayed outside the Sandy Hook bar and Scotland Lightship owing to the bad weather.

At 9 o'clock tonight the fog began to lift and a number of steamers were seen at anchor outside of Sandy Hook, among them the Aurania, from Liverpool.

Death of Dr. Wormley.

Philadelphia, Jan. 3.—Dr. Theodore G. Wormley, a distinguished chemist and toxicologist and professor of these branches in the medical school of the University of Pennsylvania, died at his residence today. Theodore George Wormley was born in Wormleysburg, Pa., on April 1, 1828. He was educated at Dickinson college and in 1849 graduated in medicine at the Philadelphia medical college.

MEN OF PROMINENCE.

SENOR QUESADA, Lion of the Hour in Washington Society.

Gonzales de y Quesada, the representative of the Cuban government at Washington, is the lion of the hour in the society of the capital. He is the secretary of the unrecognition league, but he is at the same time the practical head of that body. If the Cuban representation may be so called, the young senator is a nephew of General Rafael de y Quesada of Venezuela, and he is one of the most ardent of the patriots. He is a close friend of the senators making up the committee on foreign relations and of the other senators, too. Especially is he the favorite of the ladies, and if the wives of the senators had their way he would within a week have the $100,000 with which he says Cuba could win independence from Spain, and he is the author of the Cuban resolutions. Mrs. Lodge, wife of the distinguished senator from Massachusetts; Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Cameron's aunt, and Mrs. Adams, the wife of the historian, have all taken up young Quesada and have entered into the cause.

BLIZZARDS IN THE WEST.

Several Inches of Snow in Minnesota. Cold Wave in Kansas—Low Temperature in the Black Hills.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 3.—A blizzard is blowing tonight in this section of an area of our hundred miles north and south and six hundred miles east and west. Over most of Minnesota it has been snowing from fourteen to twenty hours and there is from seven to six inches of snow on the ground. The wind is blowing a gale from the north. The snow is damp and packs so solidly on the railway tracks that it is difficult for the snow plows to work through it. The snow has also made a week of the telegraph wires to the north and west of St. Paul. All trains are still moving though some of them are hours late. South Dakota dispatches say the storm extends as far west as the Black Hills. The temperature is from fifteen to eighteen degrees above zero, though at 10 o'clock it was rapidly getting colder. There will be suffering among live stock if the mercury drops to zero.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 3.—The unprecedented rains of the past three days have been checked by a cold wave and Kansas is tonight experiencing its first winter weather. Snow has fallen all day in various parts of the state. It is feared that great loss of cattle will result from the storm.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 3.—Nebraska is enjoying an old-fashioned blizzard, the most serious one of the winter. High winds are drifting the snow and if they continue throughout the state may make the situations on the plains alarming.

Omaha seems, so far, to have escaped the worst of the storm. At 10 o'clock tonight the thermometer at the local weather bureau registered 3 degrees above zero and the chances are that the temperature will fall several points before daylight.

Steamship Arrivals. New York, Jan. 3.—Arrived: Aurania, from Liverpool; La Gas, from Genoa; Lancia, from Queenstown; Slight; Patricia, from New York for Hamburg; passed the Light; Elys, from Amsterdam, for New York; passed Dover.

Death of a Cardinal. Rome, Jan. 3.—Cardinal Giacomo Santolice Di Acquaviva, archbishop of Naples, died today. He was liberal and conciliatory and was very popular. He was born at Avessa April 15, 1821, and was created a cardinal March 25, 1884.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

- Weather indications today: Showers Probable; Warm. 1 Collapse of the Wanamaker Boom Predicted. 2 Californians Seek a Cabinet Portfolio. General Maceo Reported Alive. 3 Forecast of the Week in Congress. 4 (Local)—Sermons by Rev. Dr. Robinson. 5 (Local)—Sermons by Rev. Dr. Robinson. 6 (Story)—The Liberty of the Little Red Man. 7 News of the West Side. 8 News Up and Down the Valley.

French Elections. Paris, Jan. 3.—Elections which were held today in various parts of France for one-third of the members of the senate resulted in the defeat of the radicals who failed in their attempts to oust moderate republican candidates wherever the latter contested the districts.

Suicide of a Cashier. Liberty, Ind., Jan. 3.—Henry Husted, cashier of the Union County National bank committed suicide yesterday by hanging. Mr. Husted was 67 years of age. His financial affairs are in good condition, and as his health was good, no motive can be assigned for self destruction.

Temporary Embarrassment. Fargo, N. D., Jan. 3.—National Bank Examiner Anshier took possession of the Citizens National bank yesterday. Little excitement was created, as the general opinion is the embarrassment is only temporary.

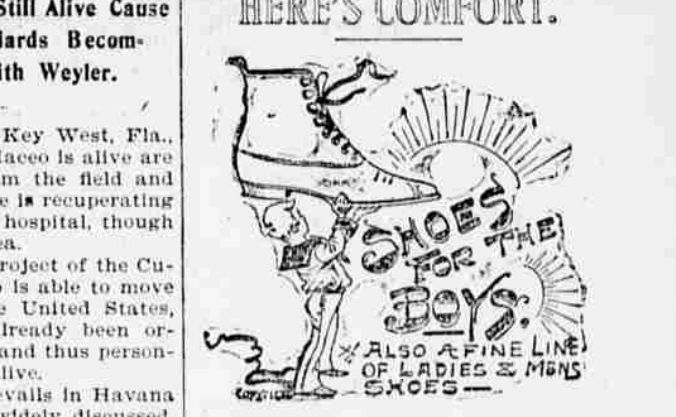

FINLEY'S

JANUARY SALE OF Muslin Underwear

We will open the season of 1897 by a Muslin Underwear Sale, COMMENCING SATURDAY, JAN. 2, 1897. At prices so attractive as to make it an object for you to purchase now.

Gowns, Skirts, Chemise, Drawers, Corset Covers, Etc. Child's Short White Dresses and Kilt Skirts. 510 AND 512 LACKAWANNA AVENUE

HERE'S COMFORT.

Winter Shoes for Boys and Girls, Shoes that will stand all sorts of sports, and protect the health at the same time—whatever the weather.

LEWIS, REILLY & DAVIES 114 AND 116 WYOMING AVE.

Greatest Reduction

On all our Holiday Goods. Call and let us prove it to you in

DIAMONDS, WATCHES, SILVERWARE, UMBRELLAS, BRIC-A-BRAC. Watches from $4.50 up. Every one warranted at

Weichel's

408 Spruce St. NEAR RIME BANK. WOMANS REVENGE.

Belle Smith Kills Her Brutal Husband with a Pair of Scissors. New York, Jan. 3.—Belle Smith, colored, 32 years old, this morning killed her husband, Jesse Smith, by stabbing him in the neck with a pair of scissors. She claimed that her husband had brutally beaten her daughter, Lizzie, 5 years old, and when she had run to the child's assistance, he threw her on the top of the stove, whereupon she grabbed the scissors and stabbed him.

Big Hotel Burned. Avalon, N. J., Jan. 3.—The Hotel Peersmont was destroyed by fire this morning. Loss, $25,000; insurance, $12,000.

Herald's Weather Forecast. New York, Jan. 4.—In the Middle states today, cloudy warmer weather and brisk easterly winds will prevail followed by rain by the afternoon with a dangerous increase of storminess on the coast. On Tuesday, cloudy to partly cloudy, colder weather, preceded by rain or snow, with dangerous southerly winds on the coast, the winds shifting to westerly, followed by a cold wave.