THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 5, 1897.

Headaches of All Kinds Cures in Three Minutes.

The or two dowes will stop Sick Head-ache, Neuralgia, Headaches from Indiges-tion, Nervousness, Overwork, Colds, In-temperance, Constituation, Railroad or Ocean Travel, Habitual Headache, Head-aches of Children, and, in fact, all forms of Headache. Those who suffer from headache from late suppers or immoderate cating or drinking will find in these tablets imme-diate relief, and a grateful tonle to the overworked stomach and jaded nerves. A separate cure for each disease. At all dragsists, mostly 25 cents a vial. Personal letters to Prof. Munyon, 1505 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

[Readers will please note that a ments, orders for job work, and items for publication left at the establishment of Shannon & Co., newsdealers, North Main Street, will receive prompt attention; of-lice open from 8 a, m. to 10 p. m.]

SATURDAY'S PRIMARIES.

The Choice of Republican Delegates Hotly Contested.

The Republican primary elections on Saturday for the choice of delegates to the city convention next Wednesday, were warmly contested in several of the city wards. In the First district of the First ward, the following delegates were elected: William Gramer, George Hudson, John B. Shannon, W. L. Thompson, Henry Pierce, Dr. F. E. Jenkins, J. B. Nicholson and H. D. Reynolds. In the Third district the successful candidates were: James Faulkner, Isaac Atno and Nicholas Rogers. In other digtricts John W. Dimock and J Vandermark were elected.

In the First district of the Fifth ward the delegates are: Fred Topping I. H. Colvin, Harry Masters, George Gilbert, William Griffiths and William Taylor.

In the First district of the Sixth ward the delegates are: C. F. Masters, George Norris, George Simreil, John Moon, John Emmett and Bert Dimock. From the Third ward: John Thomas, W. E. Geary, L. Carey, Second district W. E. Watkins, E. L. Thomas, W. I. Finch; Fourth district, W. H. Bone, Louis Correll, George Chapman and J R. Thomas.

In the Second ward, W. B. Evans, Henry Krantz and James Greig.

NEARLY $1,500 DONATED.

Christmas Offering By St. Rose Parishioners to Their Pastor.

The last Christmas offering made by St. Rose church congregation amounted to the generous sum of $1,499. This is a sum larger by $250 than the offering on the previous year.

The generous contribution is an evi dence of love and devotion felt toward the pastor, Rev. T. F. Coffey, Although in St. Patrick's cemetery. the past year has not been prosperous for the working people, yet this evi- North Scranton. dence of warm appreciation comes from his parishioners. Father Coffey is held terations and improvements in his store JERMYN on North Main street. Rev. John Holmes was celebrant of the mass at 10.30 o'clock on Sunday at St. Rose church. He left for Blossburg today to become assistant to Rev. G. J Lucas, D. D. Miss Lizzle Hitchcock, of Green Ridge, was a visitor in town yesterday.

The International society of Union ly custom, the Methodist and Baptist and Strength have elected new officers: churches are holding a week of prayer. President, D. A. Rolca; secretary, C. Mr. C. P. Ball, manager of the Scran-Rienzo; treasurer, P. Cerra. F. E. Kilpatrick, of Darte avenue, is ton Keeley cure, was a caller in town Saturday. entertaining his nephews, Ward and Nelson Kilpatrick, of Windsor, N. Y. The borough constables made their are artists in their line.

Mr. Benjamin Maxey, formely inhis way to New York, where he is at-

Miss Emily Rich was the recipient

Miss Jessie Winter last evening en-

At the meeting of the board of trade come here, and address the board on the matter. The finance committee

Mr. G. H. Yost has accepted a position tending a College of Pharmacy.

friends in North Carolina.

AND

MAYFIELD

returns to court at Scranton yesterday. B. L. Singer, of the University of Mr. H. C. Clinger, adjuster for the Pennsylvania, who has been visiting his parents, has returned to his studies. National Insurance company, of Hartford. Conn., is in town for the purpose Ex-County Treasurer and Mrs. D. W. of adjusting the loss of the recent fire Powell, of Scranton, spent Sunday with at the home of James Biglin. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lloyd, of this Miss DeGraw, of Scranton, spent Sunday in town, and sang with the

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Keene, of Lincoln Baptist choir at the evening service, avenue, were visitors in Wilkes-Barre Miss Stella Arthur, who has been visiting in town, returned to her home at Marion Mills is ill at her home on Vandling yesterday, Lincoln avenue. Mr. J. D. Stocker received yesterday Mrs. Priscilla Graves, of Scranton, a large box of holly from friends in who has been visitng at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Corby, returned North Carolina. The Ontario and Western has improved their depot on the interior.

city

Saturday.

in Berwick.

home yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Madison, of Ot-isville, N. Y., are visitng Mrs. Henry The work was done by the company's Pierce, on Lloyd street.

Mrs. S. Spangenburg, of Eighth ave-nue, is ill with typhoid fever.

Miss Amanda Curtis, of Chicago, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Milo Gardner, of Cemetery street. Misses Gertrude and Nellie Murray, of Scranton, are visitng friends in this Grace Carter, Marjorie Mumford, Helen Maurice G. Watt left yesterday morn-Waring, Helen Crocker, Edith Couch, ing for Norwich, N. Y., to atend the funeral of the father of William Han-Grace Maynard, Grace Townsend and Clara Morris. kins, formerly of this city.

Mr. Thomas Rich and daughter, Em-Miss Ethel Clark is visiting relatives ily, who have been the guests of Mrs. Henwood, of Dunmore, for several Miss Mary Murphy, of South Main days, returned home yesterday. street, is entertaining Miss Mary Mof-Mr. and Mrs. George S. Dunn and daughter have been visiting the for-fitt, of Scranton. Mrs. E. W. Reynolds, of Washington mer's parents in Forest City. place, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Road-The regular meeting of the Crystal knight and daughter, of Honesdale, Fire company, No. 1, will be held this Sunday. evening.

Miss Marlon Crane returned to her art studies in New York yesterday. Misses Ella Harte and Ella Boland, of Dundaff street, returned to the Mansfield State Normal school yesterday

Charles Orchard has returned from Tinafly, N. J., where he spent the holidays with H. Torrance, jr.

OLYPHANT.

played, after which a lunch was served. term. Anthony Barrett, a well known resident of Jessup, died at his home on At leaving, the guests having enjoyed Sunday evening after a brief illness. Deceased was born in Ireland 55 years ter's a successful term at the seminary. He is survived by a wife and five Those present were the Misses Emma children. The funeral will take place Moon, Gertie Davis, Clara Davis, Mary tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. In-Swick, Cora Davis, Carrie Murray, terment will be made in Archbald cem-Eva Wheeler; Messrs. Henry Hemeletery. right, Joseph Tennis, Willie Parks, Er-Charles Hathaway returned yesternest Boyard, Frank Gendall and Frank day to resume his studies at Yale col-Winters. lege The ladies of St. George's Mission will serve a chicken supper in the building tions received from manufacturers, a recently vacated by Lally Bros. on Lackawanna street, Saturday evening. committee was appointed to find a suitable building, containing about 5,000 Supper will be served from 6 until 9 feet floor space. The secretary was ino'clock. structed to invite the manufacturers to

Steve O'Boyle, of Providence, was a visitor in town Sunday. The funeral of Michael Reap, who died was instructed to canvass the town, to on Friday last, occurred yesterday estimate upon the capital stock which morning at 10 o'clock. The remains could be raised in town for the advancewere taken to St. Patrick's church where a solemn high mass of requiem ment of the industry. was celebrated. Interment was made with Peck & Wonnacott, the laundry-men, at Carbondale. Miss Sadie O'Malley spent Sunday at Miss Jennie Patten and J. Rossa Mc-

Cormac returned to Mansfield vesterappreciate it, when they will allow the The Presbyterian Sabbath school have been spending their holiday vacation with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. F. A. King, of this place, have returned Syracuse university to resume their studies. .

ARCHBALD.

In accordance with their usual year-Mrs. Patrick Quinnan, of Laurel street, who has been ill during the past week, is improving. Miss Sarah O'Connor, of Wayne street, is still seriously ill. She has been sick for five weeks with typhold fever and her friends are beginning to fear that she cannot recover. Mis O'Connor is one of our most popular school teachers and her illness is a cause of sorrow to her many friends.

Charles Law, jr., the enterprising young furniture dealer of this place has purchased the stock of Neville & Law, of Hyde Park, and is now placing it in his store in this town. Thomas Law, his father, who was also assoclated with him in business here, has withdrawn from the partnership and Charles is now sole proprietor of the business.

Miss O'Connor, of White Mills, spent Sunday with the Misses Foote, of Main street.

Henry Jordan, of North Main street. painters from Middletown, N. Y., who s confined to his room by pleurisy. The fair of St. Thomas' congrega-Florence, the little daughter of Mr. tion closed on Saturday evening to reand Mrs. J. J. Miller, entertained a open on Saturday evening of this week. number of her little friends on Friday The attendance on the closing night afternoon. Those who attended the was very large. The door prize, a $5 tea party were: Ida Baker, Ruth and Nellie Gendall, Florence Nicholson, gold plece, was won by Miss Keenan, of South Scranton.

Misses Lillie Logan and Mary Haggerty, of Scranton, spent Sunday with friends here.

A regular meeting of the school board was held last evening, all the members having been present. The following bills were ordered paid: J. M. Dougher, $29.90; John Otto, $1; John Schiffler, $1; H. W. Probst, $4.50; James Gilgal-lon, $37.50; John Barrett, $4; Thomas Price, $12.55; Archbald Water company, $25; Crescent Electric company, $4; T. J. Gildea, $1; J. H. White, $13; Donahue & Henneberry, $9.60; Henry Revels, $12.63. The education commitstructor in the Jermyn graded schools, tee reported that the night school on called on friends in town yesterday, on the hill was overchowded and the night school on the Ridge not sufficiently at tended to warrant continuing it. The committee recommended that Mr. of a box of fresh cut violets from Burke be transferred from the Ridge to the hill. Complaint was made of the ill conduct of some of the boys attendtertained a number o her friends at ing night schools and it was decided her home, prior to resuming her studies to give the supervision of the schools at Wyoming seminary. Games were to Mr. Davis for the remainder of the

the second second second

PECKVILLE.

A supper will be served at the Methdist Episcopal church under the auspices of the official board Wednesday evening, January 27, proceeds to go towards refraying the expenses of the electric lights and fuel for the church Albert Chapman and Leonard Simpkins returned to resume their studies last evening to act upon communica- at Wyoming seminary yesterday. The employes of Grassy Island, Delaware and Hudson colliery, will be paid this afternoon.

All members of the Heptasophs are requested to meet at their hall Friday evening, as business of importance is to be transacted.

Mrs. Henry Chapman has been indis posed for the past few days. Miss Hannah Latham, of Tompkinsille, spent New Year's will her cousin, Miss Belle Wallace. Henry Joppling and Will Lincoln, of Pittston, spent Sunday with Mr. and It is an indisputed fact that the Methodist church have the best organ in Mrs. James Joppling. A number of young folks tendered town, and it is also a fact they do not asenh English motor to get out of order. What is the bome of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. vious to his returning to resume his school. Refreshments were served lace, May English, Grace Sickler, Mary Walker, Louisa Hendricks, Carrie Best, Bessle Craig, Jennie Williams Pearl Whitman, Mabel Harding, Ella Ketheum, Maggie Jones, Peckville; Nora and Gussie Sutter, of Lehigh Miss Richardson, of Dickson; Hannah Latham, of Thompson: Messrs, Ernest Breisch, Howard Allen, John Patterson Leonard Simpkins, Roy Wademan, Edward and George Loughlin, Edward Miles, Charles Seip, Eddie Day, Arlie Jenkins, Isaac Davies, John Williams Peckville; Marion Suddoth, of Wyoming, and Roy Kelly, Olyphant. Miss Myron Mills, of Scranton, spent New Year's and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. F. D. Simpson.

Celebrated for its great leavening strength and healthfulness. Assures the food signing alum and all forms of adulteration common to the cheap brands. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

leg while skating, Dr. F. D. Lamb reduced the fracture. The Hallstead Herald appeared or Saturday in the form of a semi-weekly. Only about a year ago this enterprising paper doubled in size and they now publish twice a week. It is now supplied with telegraphic news. The pub lication days will be Wednesday and Saturday. William T. Morgan, who at one time published the Lestershire News, has taken a position as foreman of the Hallstead Horald.

The Presbyterian Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will elect officers Monday evening.

If the Baby Is Cutting Teeth.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by mil-lions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colle and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold allays all pain, cures wind colle and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and call for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Trousers And Suits

See our windows for wondrously low prices in Trouserings. Now is the time to enjoy the luxury of a perfect fit and perfect workmanship at the price of readymade goods.

WE HAVE REMOVED

PHILADELPHIA MANUFACTURERS OF CLOAKS AND SUITS Magnificent Display.

We have just purchased 25,000 dollars worth of stock of CAPES, COATS, SKIRTS, and WAISTS only. Our enor-mous trade tells the story of wonderful saving of spot cash buying and spot cash welling. Our preparations for the holiday trade were made by reducing prices be-fore Christmas in order to give our pat-rons a chance to have their garments for midwinter wear. It is not necessary to wait until the season is over. You will must be benefit to come and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere. 200 Boucle Coats half silk lined $2.98 for the Persian Astrachan coats, lined with the finest Rhadame silk, trimmed with little pearl buttons, former 4.98 200 extra fine French caterpillar coats, half

3

200 extra fine French caterpillar coats, half s)lk lined, made up in the newts effects, former price $10.98; now 7.98

effects, former price $10.58; now 7.98 275 all wool Kersey Coats, lined with fine Taffeta silk, handsomely trimmed, sold in New York cily for $15 each, Owing to our fortunate purchase can 5.98 100 fine crushed Astrachan Capes, silk lined, full sweep, Thibet fur trimming, sold in this city at $11.00; re-duction price 300 beautiful figured mohair skirts, 4 yardy wide, lined and interlined, velvet bind-ing; a bargain at $3.00; our 1.49 If we bought up the whole space of this paper we would not be able to give you a ⁷⁵ handsome Lizerine plush Capes, 30-inch lengths, full sweep. Thibet and Marten trimming, some embroidered in cut jets and in applique styles. The like never was sold in this city for less $8.98 than $15; our reduction price ... $8.98 SPECIAL BARGAINS IN SEPARATE DRESS SKIRTS-500 Roucle skirts, lined and interlined, full width in brown, green, black and blue; regular price $3.93; now paper we would not be able to give you a correct idea of the bargains we have. Con-2.98 sequently we save expenses in every way brown, in order to give you the full benefit in bargains.

> Z. WEINGART, Proprietor, 421 LACKAWANNA AVENUE

Holiday Goods AT A SWEEPING REDUCTION IN PRICES.

Screens, Easels, Umbrella Stands, Brica-Brac, Tabourettes, Onyx Top Tables and Cabinets, Tea Tables, Fancy Chairs and Rockers, Carpet Sweepers, Blacking Cases, Ottomans, Hassocks, Etc.

Rug Department.

Turkish Dagestan, Wilton, Moquette, Sheepskin, Goatskin and Smyrna Rugs, Baby Carriage Robes and a Full Line of Cocoa, Rubber and Wire Door Mats, all sizes.

in high estimation by all clases in the duy community.

BANQUET AT THE ANTHRACITE.

Contractor A. E. Tiffany Entertains His Employes at a Feast.

Contractor A. E. Tiffany entertained in a social manner those in his employ on Saturday evening at the Hotel Anthracite. On Christmas his employes presented Mr. Tiffany with a chair and so expressed the cordial feelings existing between them.

Those present at the banquet were: W. T. Price, E. J. Bly, John Proctor, Thomas Gilligan, Fred Sluman, Henry ent play will be presented every even-Lewis, Judson Burcher, Frank Robinson, N. C. Alvord, Joseph Wilson, Frank son, N. C. Alvord, Joseph Wilson, Frank Smith, Wellington Hobbs and John Mc-iting relatives at this place. Connon.

Death of Mrs. Coleman.

The announcement of Mrs. Michael Coleman's death, which occurred on Sunday, brought sincere sorrow to a large circle of her friends, and to all who had known her during the many years of her life passed in this city. Mrs.Coleman was born in Bally Castle, Ireland, fifty-six years ago, but a large part of these years were passed in this city. She is survived by her husband and five children, namely: P. A. Coleman, Loretta, Cecilia, Gabriella and Agnes. A requiem high mass will be celebrated at St. Rose church this morning at 9.30 o'clock. Interment will be made in St. Rose cemetery.

Fine Entertainment.

A social entertainment was held on Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lown in honor of Mrs. Lown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Davenport, of East Windsor, N. Y. Vocal and instrumental music, hypnotic exhibitions by Mr. Maxwell and a social season made a very pleasant entertainment. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Dimock, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. E. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Harding and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gardner, Robble and Hazel Gardner, Andrew Blank, jr., of Brandt, and Mrs. James Harvey, of Oneonta, N. Y.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NOTES.

Ex-Mayor Hendrick has returned last, is still in bad state. from his Western trip 1. W. Shannon is making extensive al-

Rocking Chairs, Centre Tables, Stands, Screens, Pictures, Hassocks, Carpet Sweepers, Rugs and Mats, and the largest and finest assortment of Carpets in the city, PRICES always the lowest.

Carpots, Wall Papers and Draperies, 419 LACKA AVENUE elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Superintendent, Mathew Mackey; assistant, S. M. Snook; sec-retary, Arthur Widdowfield; treasurer, Andrew Patten, jr.; organist, Miss Jennie Kennedy.

Miss Grace Callender leaves today to resume her studies at Lewisburg seminary. "The Shadows of a Life" was produced at the Father Mathew Opera house last evening before a good audience. The drama throughout was ably presented and all the members of the ing during the week.

Miss Mamie McNulty will enter St. Rose, Carbondale, as a novice today. Mr. and Mrs. John M. Evans and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Parry spent New Year's day at the residence of David Evans, of West Scranton. Miss Alice Lillibridge left yesterday for Philadelphia Medical college and N. L. Kennedy for Wyoming Seminary, Isaac Mendleson, of Jermyn, was a caller in town Sunday. Mrs. John Jones, of Archbald, was he guest of Mrs. Edward Jones, of Blakely, over Sunday.

FOREST CITY.

Miss Nellie Lyden, of Pleasant Mount, is visiting Mrs. John Humbert. B. F. Maxey returned to New York on Monday. Mr. Maxey is a student of the New York School of Pharmacy. John E. Free, of Wyoming, spent Sunday the guest of Forest City friends. The condition of Mr. Charles Melville who is at present in the Carbondale hospital, is slightly improving. Some time ago Mr. Melville underwent an operation. Since that time he has been in a critical condition. At the present time his condition is encouraging and his friends expect that he will soon be able to leave that institution. William Williams, who was admitted to the hospital a short time ago is gradually improving. Misses Myrtle Alexander and Edith Brown returned to Mansfield on Mon James Murray, the young man who was stabbed on the 25th of December

-----NICHOLSON.

Miss Effle Darrow, while skating at Bacon Town New Year's day, skated into an open place near the shore. Some of the young men present went to the rescue and succeeded in landing her safe on shore.

Bert Warner, Miss Mame Benjamin and Miss Genevieve Bacon took a drive to Dalton last Saturday afternoon.

Communion service was observed at the Presbyterian church last Sabbath. There was a large attendance of the nembers of the church present. The students who spent their holiday vacation with parents and friends here, and returned to their several schools Monday were: Miss Clara Tiffany, of Mansfield; Harry Williams, of Kingston; Miss Nellie and Harold Shields, ieranton; Morton and Ira Stephens, of Clark's Summit. Clifton Colvin, of Scranton, was call ing on friends here Saturday last. R. D. Newton, of Montrose, was in town yesterday.

matter with the music committee, if John English, New Year's night, prethere is one. It is a very pleasant task for the pastor to call for a volunteer studies at Mansfield State Normal from the congregation to pump the organ. What use is it having an article Those present were: Misses Belle Walwhere it is not used and it is also exeedingly pleasant for those present. especially for the young men who are called upon while in company with their lady friends. Miss Ina Weed, Mrs. Wilcox and daughter Nellie, of Vandling, were among friends in town Saturday. At the meeting of the Order of Foresters of America court, No. 75, last Friday evening, the following officers were installed: Chief ranger, Alfred Butterworth; sub-chief ranger, Isanc Owens; nnancial secretary. Philip Tucker; recording secretary, Christopher Clifford; treasurer, Steve Morcom; senior woodvard, David Jenkins; junior woodward, John Vaughan: senior beadle, George Tucker; junior beadle, Peter Henry; rustee for three years, Gomer Griffiths At the close of the meeting a social was held among the members. The programme that was arranged by the committee was rendered in good style, both the vocal and instrumental. Lunch was served and the boys enjoyed a good time.

'The Farmers' Alliance and Industrial union held their annual convention on representing the different societies of the Lackawanna valley attended. In the evening the Rosedale lodge, No. 662, entertained a number of the delegates by giving a social in their hall at West Mayfield.

PRICEBURG. The funeral of the late Mrs. James Riley took place yesterday morning. The procession marched from the late ome on Main street to St. Thomas church, where a high mass of requiem was said, Rev. J. L. Shanley acting as elebrant; Rev. J. J. McCabe as deacon, and Rev. J. A. O'Reilly as sub-deacon. The remains were then taken via Delaware and Hudson 10.33 a. m. train to Carbondale and were laid to rest in Carbondale Catholic centery.

Mr. William Roberts, the able leader of the Priceburg Citizens' band, is selously ill John McGuire visited in Scranton vesterday. The Priceburg dancing class met last evening in Fadden's hall.

A cross walk at the corner of Main street and Snyder avenue is very badly needed.

P. J. White, of Archbald, called on friends in town yesterday,

TAYLOR.

Mr. Edward Jones, of Scranton, and Misses Annie and Ella Jones, of this place, visited Pittston on Sunday Mrs. Thomas Thomas, of the First ward, is confined to her home with sickness. The officers of the Taylor castle, No. 67, will be publicly installed next Thursday evening by District Grand Chief Mr. John Conley, at their meeting place. Reese's hall, on Main street. The meeting will open at 7.30 p. m. The infant child of Mr. and Mrs.

Lesley Nyhardt, of North Main street, died on Sunday evening. Funeral an-nouncement will be made later. ways efficient, always Mr. William Gordon, who has been isfactory; prevent a cold visiting at Port Jervis, N Y., has re- or fever, cure all liver ills turned he

1 1 1 1 1 1

HALLSTEAD.

George Ackerly, of Scranton, was in town last week. The Farmers' Alliance gave an entertainment in their hall Monday even-John R. Douglass has sold his build ing on Main street to Stephen Tingley Saturday last. Thirty-three delegates | and will move his goods to Binghamton this week. As soon as he vacates the building Mr. Tingley will move from his brick building into his newly-purchased block.

The Brotherhood of Andrew and Phillip of the Presbyterian church will elect officers Tuesday evening.

The Epworth league of the Methodist church, at a recent meeting, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. A. J. Sawyer ice presidents, Mrs. L. N. Frandd, Miss Lizzle Frandd, Mrs. A. J. Sawyer and Mrs. A. F. Merrilli; treasurer, Mrs. Joseph McLeod; secretary, E. J. Groton; rganist, Miss Lizzie Frandd. W. W. Adair is to conduct evangelis tic meetings for two nights and onday in the First Presbyterian church in Union, N. Y., commencing next Sun-The services will continue day. through the week. Dr. G. Parsons Nichols and Rev. Edward Taylor, of Binghamton, will take charge of the later dates.

Daniel Munson and Miss Eva Gallaway, both of Susquehanna, were united in marriage at the home of Chester Munson in this place, Friday evening, by Rev. John Chidester.

The public schools of this place re opened on Monday after a ten days' vacation

Elmer McCroy on Friday had the misfortune to fall and break his right

Much in Little

Is especially true of Hood's Pills, for no medi-cine ever contained so great curative power in so small space. They are a whole medicine ways efficient, always sat IIIS sick headache, jaundice, constipation, etc. 25c Misses Grace and Long King, who | The only Pills to take with Hood's Sarsavarilla, of the city.