IT WASN'T POISON.

Dr. Hall Says Mrs. Jeremiah Was Suffering from Nervous Exhaustion. No Laudanum Symptoms.

"The statement in yesterday's Tri-bune to the effect that Mrs. Jam's Jeremiah had not taken laudanum or any other poison and that her candi-Hon was caused by nerve exhaustion. is the truth, reports to the contrary notwithstanding. F. C. Hall."

notwithstanding. F. C. Hall." Dr. Hall furnished the above to a Pribune reporter last night and request-14 its publication as a contradiction of false statements. Dr. Hall offered amplep roof that Mrs. Jeremiah had not att apted to take her own life. His story is substantially as follows:

'About 6.20 o'clock Monday evening James Jeremiah asked me to come im mediately to his home, saying that his wife had taken laudanum. I went there immediately taking with me the medical properties used in cases of poisoning. When I entered the room where Mrs. Jeremiah lay upon the bed I found several members of the household, all excited and each person under the belief that Mrs. Jeremiah had taken

"As no time is to be lost in such tases I immediately administered an antidote to the poison and I then began to look for symptoms. There were none. The woman was merely suffer-Ing from nervous exhaustion; her pulse was regular and if poison had been taken the beat would have been markedly retarded. This and other symptoms I could not find an' I .. formed the family of the truth. After I made the discovery I treated the patient for nerve exhaustion and she soon railied."

While Dr. Hall was employed with his pa lent some member of the housel old after a therough search of the roo found a partially filled bottle of land-Brum. As a proof that it had not been used the bottom of the cork was dry and covered with dust when foun L.

MR. SWEET PREACHES.

Second of the Prayer Services at the Scranton Street Baptist Church. The second meeting of the week of prayer was held last evening at the Scranton Street Baptist church, when the members of the four observing churches filled the main auditorium to its fullest capacity. Rev. J. B. Sweet.

Mr. Sweet took for his them, "The Church Universal," He divided the ser- day evening mon into two parts, "Praise" and "Prayer." For the first his texts were: Cornthians I, xii, 12-27, for the reality of Christian unity and for its Increasing recognition; second, Acts II; I, 18; John I, 3-7; Matthew, xill, 31-33, for the Holy Spirit; for a pure Gospel; for the fellowship of believers; for the fulfillment of the church's mission. The sermon was eloquently delivered and claimed an interested attention

This evening the service will be held at the Washburn Street Presbyterlan church, Rev. S. F. Matthews, of the Scranton Street church, preaching the sermon.

HOLDING SEPARATE SERVICES. The Jackson Street Baptist church is holding a special week of prayer. Last night Edward Howell was in charge of the meeting. The basement of the church was filled, every seat being taken. At the first meeting of the series held Monday night Mr. DeGruchy preached a sermon on "The Needs of the Holy Spirit. During his remarks Mr. DeGruchy said:

"When we read the book of the Acts. the beginning of the Christian era, the wonderful achievements it brought about, we are somewhat amazed at the present condition of the church We see no such a thing taking place today and wonder if it is possible in the present century to again behold such mighty results. As for me, I be lieve the same things are possible to the church of today. Let the church fulfil known conditions and comply with them and the blessings of the pas will be the blessing of the present God is the same today, yesterday and forever, and no promise was made to the primitive church that we cannot claim or receive.

The great trouble is our lack of compliance to conditions which are a necessity to the reception of the blessings. Let us return to primitive methods. Prayer and communion with God brought from heaven the power needed to do effective work. The Holy Spirit brought the power of Pentecost. And those that received it were not the same as before it transformed their lives; they were men of power and equal to the very obstacle in the way; they had a firm grasp of the truth, th Holy Spirit came to them in much as surance. Let us comply with conditions and we will receive the blessing.

DEBATE THIS EVENING.

St. Brenden council, Young Men's Institute, has the big night tonight at St. Thomas' hall when a team of de baters from among the members will meet and it is hoped defeat a similar team from Father Coughlan council Philadelphia. The subject of the debate is "Resolved, That Cuba should be granted belligerent rights,"

MAY BE ARRESTED.

That some men are not as careful of their rectitude when away from home as when in the light of home influences was exemplified last night on the West Side. A couple of well dressed gentle-men, evidently of high standing at home, went out to see the town and all would have gone well had not the man of the house where they called appeared on the scene as the men were leaving his home. One was slightly intoxicated. They denied any wrong do ing but the husband chastised one and intends calling them to account which he thinks he can do from a card left at the house. He believes it will be an easy matter to locate them.
