THE STRUGGLE FOR CUBAN RECOGNITION

in the Senate.

DENOUNCES ITALIAN STATESMEN

Also Criticises the President and Secretary of State -- The Resolution Recognizes the Independence of Refunding Bitt.

Washington, Jan. 11.-Senator Allison, of lowa, appeared in the chamber today for the first time this session, taking his seat just as Senator Mills, Texas, was complimenting him on his eminent qualifications for the office of secretary of state in McKinley's enbinet. Mr. Allison smiled benignantly at the suggestion, but gave no further sign as to how far it coincided with his own views.

A resolution on the subject of a violation of the eight hour law on the part of the contractors with the navy department on work in Brooklyn, was offered by Mr. Allen, of Nebraska. He was informed by Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshire, a former secretary of the navy, that the law only applied to work done directly for the government, and not to work done under contract. The resolution went over till tomorrow, The house bankruptey bill was made a special order in the senate for Monday, January 25. An argument was made by Mr. Proctor, of Vermont, in favor of a proposed constitutional amendment, making the presidential term six years and making the president ineligible for re-election; also making the term of representatives in the lower house of congress three years.

FEATURE OF THE DAY.

Then the great feature of the day's session was begun, with a speech by Mr. Mills, of Texas, in support of the joint resolution introduced last Thursday, declaring that the expediency of recognizing the independence of a new government belongs to congress; recognizing the independence of the republic of Cuba, and appropriating $10.-000 for the salary of a minister to the new republic. Most of his speech was argumentative and was supported by precedents in the cases of the Spanish-American republics, and of the republic of Texas, but the principal part of it, and that which attracted the greatest attention was in severe criticism of the president and secretary of state, and in the angry denunciation of the Italian and Spanish statesmen who had ventured to suggest an interference by European powers with the government of the United States in case of the recognition of Cuba. In the course of his invective he derided to being "turned loose in the rabble Italy as a power whose symbols of greatness was a monkey and organ

Several other senators took part in the discussion, but only of the question of exclusive power of the president to recognize foreign powers. The resolu-tion went over without action, Mr. Bacon, of Georgia, giving notice that he would speak upon it on Wednesday. and after an executive session, the senate at 5.45 adjourned until tomorrow, AGAINST PACIFIC RAILROAD BILL

The decisive vote in the house against changed the condition of affairs with respect to that bill in the senate. It is probable that a meeting of the committee will be called at once or that an informal conference of the members will be held to decide upon a plan of action. Under the programme arranged by the steering committee it was to be made the unfinished business after the vote on the Oklahoma free homestead bill which would have been disposed of within a few days.

The judgment of members of the Pacific railroads committee of the senate is that it would be useless to consume the time of the senate in the discussion of the measure, and it appears to be the desire to either construct a different measure, meeting some of the objections raised in the house or let the senate bill go by default.

GOVERNOR MOUNT MODEST.

He Objects to Being Turned Loose in the Rabble.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 11.-At 12 o'clock today James A. Mount and Thomas Haggard were inaugurated governor and lieutenant governor respectively of Indiana. In his inaugural address Governor Mount warned the legislature against corporation lobbyists, saying that "trusts and comdnes, through lobbyists, are able to look after their interests, while the mechanic, the farmer and the miner have no one outside the legislature to exert an influence in their behalf."

The custom of giving an inaugural

NO NEW TARIFF BILL.

Dingley Says the Measure Will Not Be Completed This Session.

Washington, Jan. 11.-Mr. Dingley, chairman of the ways and means committee, exploded the rumor that the new tariff bill would be reported to the house this session. He doubted if it would be finished by the fourth of March, and if it is, there is no intenion of laying it before the house until the extra session.

The measure will be subject to change ot only until it is reported, but during the general debate on the floor, as well as open to amendments, when it is considered under the five-minute rule, The Republican members of the committee will work on the bill as a whole.
