INOFFENSIVE ITALIAN BRUTALLY MURDERED

Port Griffith.

John Kurnot, Defeated in Wrestling and Taunted by Onlookers, Plunged a Knife Up to the Hilt in Joseph

Half Clad, Into the Night and was Half-Frozen When Captured in a Wagon Shed.

An unprovoked and brutal murder took place Tuesday night at "Brier Hill," a locality near Port Griffith, below Pittston. Joseph Korlotta, an Italian, was stabled through the neck by a felow countryman, John Kurnot, who has been arrested and lodged in the Luzerne county jail. Each is 22 years old and unmarried. Kurnot had been engaged in a wrestling bout with several others in the Italian boarding house and was badly worsted. Taunted by the participants and onlookers, he seized a large knife and assuming a threatening attitude exclaimed:

"Come on, any of you. I'll fight you with this," pointing toward the knife. Nobody accepted the challenge. Kor lotta appeared in the doorway leading into an adjoining room where he had been seated. He had not been wrestling and made no remark to the enraged man with the knife.

THE MURDEROUS STROKE. But Kurnot assuming that Korlotta wanted fight, leaped toward him and dunged the ugly knife up to its hilt in his neck. Korlotta fell forward mo-tionless on his face. His juglar vein and windpipe had been severed. He died in a few seconds.

Kurnot gave a glance at his victim and went out into the cold night. Clad
