attempting to hide the fact; the season has been against cold weather garment selling, and we've got left with more than we care to carry over.

Consequently

We have marked down the entire stock to a point where buying for next season's use even will prove a profitable investment, as in most cases.

The New Slaughter Prices

Do not represent the cost of the materials. Another point: The garments offered are not of ancient date; each and all are of present season's manufacture and the highest grade of custom tailoring can do no more for them than is represented in these goods.

DOLPHIN'S FIRST DETECTIVE WORK

The Dispatch Boat Holds Up the Clyde Steamer Delaware.

TOOK HER FOR A FILIBUSTER

Suspicious Actions Arouse Lieutenant Sutherland, Who Boards the Steamer and Sails Into Port with Her-Clyde Line Officials Threaten to Sue the Government.

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 14.—The steamship Delaware, of the Clyde line, came into port this morning, having on board Lieutenant Sutherland of the United States dispatch boat Dolphin. The presence of the lieutenant on board the steamer is accounted for by the fact that she was held for a filibuster when she departed for the bar.

All grew out of the lighting of a match and the officers on the government vessel ever on the alert to catch any filibuster along the Florida coast, flashing its searchlights over the waters to learn the meaning of the little flame. The light settled on a small row boat in which was cased a pilot awaiting the arrival of the Delaware to bring her on over the bar.

MR. CLYDE INDIGNANT.

New York, Jan. 14.—William P. Clyde, head of the Clyde Steamship company, and owner of the steamer Delaware, which was seized by the United States dispatch boat Dolphin early this morning off St. John's bar, near Jacksonville, Fla., was indignant this afternoon when informed of the report. "It is absolutely ridiculous," he declared, "to even suspect the Delaware of being a filibuster. The Delaware is owned by the Clyde Steamship company and you may rest assured that none of our vessels are engaged in lawful pursuits.

"The boat was making a regular trip from Boston to Jacksonville, and carried a general cargo."

CAPTAIN M'GIFFIN INSANE.

Melancholy Fate of an Officer of the Chinese Imperial Navy.

New York, Jan. 14.—Captain Philo McGiffin, the former officer of the United States navy and afterward of the Chinese imperial navy, who fought the flagship Chen Yuen against the combined attacks of the entire Japanese fleet in the memorable battle of the Yalu river, on the afternoon of September 17, 1894, has been taken to the Post Graduate hospital in this city, a violent mad man.

His ravings grew so violent toward the last that it became necessary to ask the assistance of the police to subdue him. The police failed, owing to the fact that Captain McGiffin stood at the head of the stairway with a navy revolver in each hand, threatening to shoot the first man who approached.

It was only when John McGiffin, the captain's brother arrived in haste from his home at Little Washington, Pa., that the raving man could be induced to listen to a rational word.

MR. BLISS DECLINES.

He Will Not Be a Member of Mr. McKinley's Cabinet.

New York, Jan. 14.—"I am not to be a member of Major McKinley's cabinet," said Cornelius N. Bliss to a reporter today.

"It is said on the highest authority that you were offered a portfolio and declined it, Mr. Bliss."

FIRST CUBAN STAMP.

It Causes Much Comment at the Washington Post-Office.

Washington, Jan. 14.—The appearance of the stamp of the so-called Cuban republic in the United States mails has caused much comment here and was the source of much discussion at the postoffice department today, as to whether such stamps should be recognized as proper for the transmission of mails into the United States, as this government has not recognized Cuba as a free and independent country. This

SPAIN WILL NOT YIELD A POINT

A Denial of the Report That a Settlement is Proposed.

BOTH SIDES ARE DETERMINED

The Fight is to Go On Unless Spain Offers Independence—President Cisneros's Letter—He Says Insurgents Will Renew Their Offensive Campaign.

Washington, Jan. 14.—It is positively and authoritatively denied that the United States and Spain have practically concluded an agreement regarding terms to be offered to the insurgents for the settlement of the Cuban rebellion. It is denied also that a special envoy of Spain has been or is to be sent to the United States shortly as a private negotiator with special instructions from Senor Canovas and the Duke of Tetuan. It is said that this latter report probably arises from the fact that Senor Solar has arrived in Washington to succeed one of the secretaries of the legation.

PLATT NOMINATED.

Selected for United States Senator from New York—Joseph Choate Receives But Seven Votes.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 14.—Thomas Collier Platt, the most prominent and influential Republican in the state of New York, was tonight nominated for United States senator by the Republican members of the legislature in joint caucus. His name was not presented, the only candidate formally placed in nomination being Joseph H. Choate, of New York city.

The nomination was made just a half hour after the caucus convened. Of the 149 Republican votes cast, Mr. Platt received 142, although his name was not mentioned until after the roll call had begun.

Such a condition has never before been presented in party politics in New York state. Mr. Platt was steadfastly said that he was not a candidate and the program carried out by the party leaders tonight was in deference to his wishes. As one of the prominent leaders said:

"We will let Mr. Choate's friends do the talking and we will do the voting." Mr. Choate only received seven votes, but this was four more than Mr. Platt's friends had figured out for him.

The joint caucus was held in the assembly chamber. The spacious room and galleries were crowded long before the appointed hour. Senator Ellsworth at 8:29 o'clock announced that the caucus had met to nominate a United States senator and a regent of the university. Senator Parsons, of Rochester, was chosen chairman.

When the roll was called, one senator and one assemblyman was absent. When nominations for United States senator were in order, Senator Brush, of Brooklyn, named the Hon. Joseph H. Choate, and Assemblyman Sanger, of Oneida, seconded the nomination.

Senator Raines then asked if there was any other gentleman who wished to second the motion or present the name of any other candidate.

No one responded, and he offered a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, to the surprise of every one in the chamber, who had expected to see Mr. Platt's name formally presented. This was Mr. Raines's resolution:

"That the roll of the members of this caucus be called by the secretaries and as each man's name is called he rise in his place and name his choice for United States senator, and that the person receiving the majority of the votes of all the Republican senators and members be the unanimous choice by this caucus and be voted for in the senate and assembly by every member hereof."

At the conclusion of the roll call it was announced that 149 votes had been cast, of which Joseph H. Choate received 7 and Thomas C. Platt 142.

Mr. Platt received the vote of every Republican in the legislature, with the exception of those cast for Mr. Choate and of the two absent members.

The nomination was made unanimous with much applause.

Chester S. Lord, managing editor of the New York Sun, was nominated regent of the university and the caucus adjourned.

MEN OF PROMINENCE.

JOHN SHERMAN, OF OHIO, Who Will Probably Be the Next Secretary of State.

SHERMAN FOR SECRETARY

It is Stated That the Ohio Senator Has Accepted a Place in Mr. McKinley's Cabinet.

Canton, O., Jan. 14.—The statement made by C. N. Bliss, of New York, today, to the effect that he was not a member of Major McKinley's cabinet, expressed the situation tersely. Mr. Bliss is not a member of Major McKinley's cabinet, and he is not at all likely to be. The reasons which would make it impossible for him to accept a cabinet position are not of a political nature.

Gossip, which is never idle, plays tonight with unwonted vivacity about the name of General Stewart Woodford, of Brooklyn. Another New York Republican who is discussed somewhat as a cabinet possibility tonight, is Hon. J. Stuart Farnsworth.

The New England field was scanned for cabinet possibilities today by the president-elect, who invited Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, to consult with him upon the subject.

Senator Lodge said: "I am not a candidate for cabinet position. I am satisfied to remain in Massachusetts. We talked about ex-Governor Long and others. Governor Long is very highly esteemed by the people of our commonwealth and Major McKinley is considering ex-Governor Long for his cabinet, and the chances are that he will become a member of it, though a portfolio has not been tendered him."

Senator Sherman was stated yesterday, has been tendered and has accepted the portfolio of state.

This announcement may be considered conclusive. There is no room for doubt or further discussion of the subject except as an established and accepted fact. Major McKinley appointed Senator Sherman without any thought as to his successor, assuming, of course, that he would be a Republican.

MADE SOAP FOR THE CHURCH.

Young People Adopt Novel Methods of Strengthening the Treasury.

Cape May, N. J., Jan. 14.—Members of the Young People's Christian Endeavor society, of the old Cold Spring Presbyterian church, set earnestly to work to raise funds for the church treasury, and as a result of their efforts $255 was gathered in.

One young lady, of the many who took part in the work, cooked and served as a means to fill her bank. Others made aprons, shopping bags, kitchen utensils, soap and about every other domestic contrivance ingenuity and industry could suggest.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.

New York, Jan. 14.—Arrivals: Germanic from Liverpool, Hibernian from Glasgow, Mississippi from London. Arrived out: Britannia at Queens-town, Anar at Bremerhaven, Massachusetts at London, Samaritan at Glasgow, Sailed for New York: Teutonic, from Queens-town.

COOK COUNTY FOR LORIMER.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 14.—The Cook county caucus tonight instructed for Congressman William Lorimer, of the Second district, for United States senator. The delegation is not a unit, and those opposed to Lorimer, twelve in number, held the caucus.

SOMEILLAN'S SENTENCE.

An American Prisoner Condemned to Imprisonment in Chains. Havana, Jan. 14.—Today the sentence was read in the case of Luis Someillan, the naturalized American citizen, who has been found guilty of conspiring against the Spanish government. The sentence of the tribunal before which he was tried is that he be imprisoned for life in chains.

Someillan's lawyer will appeal to the supreme court at Madrid against the decision of the Havana tribunal.

The Herald's Weather Forecast. New York, Jan. 14.—In the Middle States today generally fair weather and fresh northeasterly and northerly winds, preceded on the coast by light snow and possibly high winds and with nearly stationary temperature. On Saturday slightly warmer, with fresh southerly and northwesterly winds, followed by snow in the northerly districts and possibly with increasing northeasterly winds and rain or snow on the southern coasts.
