FORECAST OF THE WEEK IN CONGRESS

Appropriation Bills to Be Considered in Senate.

CUBAN RESOLUTION NOT IN SIGHT

The Utterance of Senator Sherman on the Subject is Regarded as a Request for Silence on Part of the "Jingoes" --- No Programme of the House.

Washington, Jan. 17 .- Appropriation bills will demand the attention of the senate this week. The army bill has been reported and the military academy and legislative bill will be reported from the committee tomorrow.

Senator Morgan will probably address the senate tomorrow on his bill for the appointment of a board of government trustees to operate the Pacific roads until the government's claim is liqui-

The Nicaraguan canal bill, in accordance with the decision of the Re-publican steering committee, will be made the unfinished business Monday. The proposition to guarantee the canal bonds will be antagonized by Messrs. Turple, Vest, Teller and others. There is no indication of any intention to call up the Cameron Cuban resolution. The utterances of Mr. Sherman on this subject since the formal announcement of his acceptance of the state depart-ment portfolio are looked upon by his associates as a request from the incoming administration that nothing should be done pending its accesson to power. Several influential senators who were previously charged with being "Jingoes" have since their visit to Canton, become very conservative, and no one on the Republican side of the chamber is now urging action of any kind with respect to the war in Cuba.

The extradition treaties between the United States and the Orange Free State and the Argentine republic will probably be disposed of this week and the remainder of the time will be devoted to clearing up of unobjected matters on the calendar.

In the house of representatives, no programme of business has been arranged except a Virginian contested election case. It is the expectation of the members of the committee on rules that in the course of the week the agriculture and Indian appropriation bills will be considered.

Hundreds of letters giving advice are being received, and the new journalism is taking an active interest in the case. A reporter arrived from New York this morning accompanied by an alleged hypnotist, to try to awaken the girl. The hypnotist got no further than the gate of the Pittilla residence, where he encountered a negative subject in the person of a stalwart servant girl. THE CURRENCY PROBLEM.

Vice-President Ferris, of the Bank of

New York, Has a Solution. Washington, Jan. 17.-The house committee on banking and currency gave hearings today to Gamallel Bradford, of Boston, and B. B. Ferris, vice president of the Bank of New York, all of whom had suggestions to make concerning the solution of the currency problem

Mr. Feris advocated the passage of a hill which, he explained, was chiefly drawn by himself and had been introduced by Mr. McClellan, of New York. Mr. Ferris said his plan was not a new system, but was amendatory of the resent national banking act. Among other features, the comptroller of the currency should be authorized to issue notes to banks up to the par value of their bonds. To provide for the redemption of the notes issued under this act the secretary of the treasury should be authorized to create redemption districts, each bank in such a district to select a bank in the central city of such redemption district to act as its redemption agent, and to be required to keep with this redemption agent a deposit equal to 5 per cent. of its outstanding circulation. Mr. Ferris also argued in favor of permitting banks of large capital to establish branches in their various redemption districts, for which provision was made n the bill. Mr. Bradford said that for thirty years he had devoted himself to the study of various problems concerning the rational finances. He asked now the people of the United States could Business Has Been Arranged for be blamed for going astray on the financial question, when the United States senate set the example in insisting upon the free coinage of silver and gov-ernment bonds were sold under conditions recently existing. It would not do, he said, to retire the greenbacks without providing something to take their place, else a panic might come and the people would demand that the retirement be stopped, as had been done before. Mr. Bradford criticised the Indianapolis convention for taking no effective steps toward the solution of the currency question. He wanted the secretary of the trensury to come before congress and tell what he wanted in the line of currency legislation. He thought this was the only way to make any progress.

Press despatches three weeks ago announced that Mr. Kellett, who is an unpaid official, appointed by Minister and Consul-General Barrett two years ago, had been fired upon and wounded by Siamese soldiers. It was impossible to confirm this news at the state department at the time, but it was said there that Mr. Kellett had a right to engage in trade, and possibly some per sonal affair of his own had led to his irrest by local authorities
