HOUSE AWARDED A NEW TRIAL

He Was Mixed Up with City Solicitor Morchead in the Pittsburg Municipal Scandal .- Point on Which the Court Below Was Reversed -- Raised for the First Time in Pennsylvania. Court Was Not Unanimous in Its Conclusions.

A big batch of opinions was handed down yesterday afternoon by the judges of the superior court, among them one written by Judge P. P. Smith granting a new trial to William H. House, of Pittsburg, who was convicted of embezzling funds belonging to that city. House was mixed up with City Solicitor Morehead in the municipal scandal which shook the Smoky City from stern to stern a year ago. About $100,000 of city funds were stolen and Morehead and House were arrested and charged with the embezzlement.

Morehead pleaded guilty and House was put on trial on an indictment which charged him with the theft of about $10,000. When the case was called for trial one of the jurors was Joseph Nevin, a part owner of the Pittsburg Leader, a paper that had repeatedly, in its edijudges and a few personal friends was torial columns, charged Morehead and ever given in public or private in victed, a new trial was refused, and an appeal taken to the superior court the The dinner was served in the hotel principal specification of error being breakfast room, an apartment sugges- that the court below erred in refusing to lowed Court's Literal Instructions. In view of the opinion handed down Saturday by President Judge Archbald in reference to the foreign attachment executed by Sheriff Clemons on the property of the Phoenix Contract company, in which the sheriff was severely criticised for having exceeded his authority, the following exact copy of the prit which Sheriff Clemons caused to be served, as taken from the original document on file in the prothonotary's office will be found to possess interest. The writ is No. 202, Nov. Term, 1896, and is as follows;

[SEAL.] The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
To the Sheriff of Said County, Greeting: We command you that you attach Phoe- Nay Aug Park Colliery, Canavan nix Contract company, late of your county by all and singular their goods and chattels, lands and tenements, rights and credits, all books, letters and papers, in whose hands or possession seever the same may be, so that they be and appear before our Court of Common Pleas, to be holden at Scranton, in and for said county, on the 2nd Monday of November next there to answer George W. Koons & Co. of a plea in assumpsit, and also that you summon Thomas Aubrey so that he be and appear before our court on the said 2nd Monday of November to answer what shall be objected against them and abide the judgment of the court therein. At have you then and there this writ. Wit-ness the Hon. R. W. Archbald, Presiden Judge of said Court, at Scranton, the 6th day of October, in the year of our Lord C. E. Pryor, Prothonotary.

It will be seen that the sheriff acted in the matter precisely in the line of his written instructions as contained in John W. Adams, appellant, against William H. Ford, M. D., et. al. Board of health appeal from the common pleas, No. 1, of Philadelphia county. Affirmed.
