REGARDING STOCK DIVIDENDS.

Scranton Capitalists Win an Important Fight at Harrisburg.

Major Everett Warren yesterday filed in the office of Recorder Charles Heuster the charter for the Citizens' Water company, of Phillipsburg, Center county, Pa., of which Joseph J. Jermyn, John S. Mears and other local capitalists are the stockholders.

This is the charter against which the Phillipsburg Water company through Senator McCornell of Harrisburg, made protest, because the present company had not yet relinquished its right to an exclusive franchise, not having divided among its stocholders a dividend of in Minooka yesterday, eight per cent, for five years. The Har-risburg correspondent of the Philadelphia Press yesterday had this to say of the matter:

Secretary Reeder has decided a ques tion regarding stock dividends that has never been adjudicated in the state departments or the courts of the state It relates to a favorite method many Pennsylvania corporatous have of retaining their exclusive franchise by increasing their capital stock in order to avoid paying their dividends which would have amounted to more than 8 per cent The act of April 25, 1874, confers exclu sive franchise upon gas and water com-panies until the corporation has realized and divided among its stockholders a dividend of 8 per cent, for five years upon its capital stock. An application was made by Scrantor an apprehens was made by stranton capitalists for a water company charter in the borough of Phillipsburg, against which the Phillipsburg Water company lodged a protest on the ground that it had exclusive franchise.

It was shown at a hearing before Sec-retary Reeder that the old company had paid in dividends in fifteen years 85 per cent., and in stock dividends, represent-ing surplus carnings expended for the Improvement and betterment of the plant,

The company's attorney contended that these stock dividends were in reality in-resiments by the stockholders and could-not be taken into consideration in esti-mating the profits of the concern for the urpose of terminating its exclusive fran-

The secretary decided that whether th dividends were declared in stock or in cash, they were the profits realized by the stockholders upon their original in-vestment, and had precisely the same Rev. F. P. Doty, of Hampton street, legal effect as though declared in cash.
