CARBONDALE.

ments, orders for job work, and items for publication left at the establishment of Shannon & Co., newsdeslers, North Maip street, will receive prompt attention; office open from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m.]

BANQUET OF THE Y. M. I.

A Large Number of Guests Entertained at Burke's Building. On Wednesday evening the first an-nual banquet of Council 121, Young Men's Institute, brought more than 200 guests to Burke's building, and then to Hotel Anthracite for the conclusion of

The Mozart orchestra furnished music for the dancers at the Burke build-The grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. I. F. McDonald at 12 o'clock when the guests adjourned to meet at the dining room of the hotel. The room was beautifully arranged with colored lights, emblematic of the society. An illuminated motto of the order was displayed "Pro Deo, Pro Patria."

The opening speech of welcome, following the elaborate courses, was made by J. F. McDonald, who congratulated the members on their first grand banquet. Although appointed toastmaster he gracefully passed its duties, to his friend, Richard J. Burke, of Scranton, Mr. Horn was first introduced and spoke on "The Y. M. I." He spoke of the history of the organization of the society, and its social, intellectual and FINE ICE AT POYNTELLE. moral purpose. After his interesting address P. H. Gilleran responded to the motto of the order "Pro Deo, Pro The Harvest of the Chilly Crop Fur-Patria," Robert Emmet O'Boyle, of Scranton, then spoke in a very agreeable happy manner upon the subject of Fraternity

Mayor O'Nell, who was to speak on the subject of "A Catholic Citizen" was unable to be present. W. H. Gilliespie, of Pittston, made a short speech gave place to J. A. Burke, who responded to the toast "The Ladies." P. J. Ruddy, esq., of Miner's Mills, lakes assisting in the work of gathering spoke of "The Law," and received a the chilly crop which is placed upon editor of the Scranton Tribune, restore houses on the shores. Lake sponded in a happy manner to "The Poyntelle, which is the largest and finspeech was aptly illustrated with two well told stories. The address was excellent and received hearty applause

A PLEASANT WEDDING.

W. J. McDonough and Miss Kate A Scott United in Marriage.

On Wednesday evening in St. Rose church Rev W. A. Nealon joined Miss Kate A. Scott and William J. McDonough in marriage. A large number of friends witnessed the impressive ser-The bride was beautifully dressed, and was accompanied by her sister, Miss Lizzie Scott, as bridesmaid. A cousin of the groom, James McDonough, was best man. The young people are well known and popular among a large circle of friends. ception was given them at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Scott, and a large number of friends congratulated them and passed a please ant evening. Many beautiful gifts were received as tokens of love and friend-

Mr. and Mrs. McDonough will make their home in this city, where he is known as a successful man of business the manager of the Crystal Lake Ice

LCCAL AND PERSONAL NOTES.

Miss Flo Allen, of Forest City, is visiting Miss Charlotte Giles on Lincoln avenue Michael Boland, of Chicago, is in the city, called here by the death of his brother, James.

F. P Coates is now engaged in busi ness in Scranton

The tramps who entered E. D. Lathrope's house Tuesday night made at tempts to enter the houses of Mrs Mary L. Crane on Lincoln avenue and C. G. Avery on Carfield avenue. Dr. Alexander F. Gillis was in For est City yesterday. The Ladies' Aid society, or Little Gleaners, of the Baptist church, held a social in the lecture room of the church Wednesday evening. Mrs. J. O'Connor, of Jermyn, sang several selections during the evening and light refreshments were served. The tithes for the year amounted to over four hundred dollars, which will be applied on the debt on the church property.

Miss Lizzie McAndrew, of Cottage street, is entertaining Miss Mamie Bresnehan, of Pittston. The members of the Germania Singing society held a social at their hall in the McTighe building Wednesday evening

Miss Carrie Davis and Miss Nettle friends in Scranton the past week, have returned home The Ladies' Ald society of the Second Presbyterian church will hold a basket social this evening.

gust of her sister, Mrs. P. F. Fox. on Dundaff street, has returned to her home in Olyphant. The annual masquerade ball of the Shield of Honor took place in the Watt building last evening Miss Mary A. Burke, of Brooklyn street, is entertaining Miss Jennie Martin, of Moscow.

OLYPHANT.

The general caucus of the Democrats will be held tonight by order of the vigilants, First ward, Thomas Gannon, Dominic Howard, Edward How ard, Second ward, P. W. Feeley, Thos Paddon, Patrick Murphy, Third ward, J. J. Flynn, A. F. Gillispie, J. A. Lennon; Fourth ward, John O'Neil, John McLaughlin, James C. McAndrew. Ward caucus will be held in the First and Third wards tomorrow night.

The Republican borough caucus will be held in Mahon's hall next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. The Second ward caucus will be held immediately after

Annual Inventory Sale

CARPETS

We have concluded our annual inventory of stock, and find we have a great many desirable lengths that we will close out at much less than cost, to make room for our spring goods that we are receiving daily. Bring the size of your room along with you if in need of a carpet and we will guarantee you a bargain, as this is no humbug sale. A word as to our third annual remnant sale, we have some short lengths that we will close out at haifprice. See them, as this sale lasts only for ten days.

Carpets, Wall Papers and Draperies, 419 LACKA. AVENUE.

in the same place, John Penman, J. B. Brown, committee, The Jolly Bachelors Club will be given a complimentary social in the rooms of the club of '95 this evening. The grand march will commence at 8.30 o'clock. All are cordially invited. Rev. J. A. Evans has resigned the pastorate of the Susquehanna Street Baptist church. The resignation will take effect on March 31. Mr. Evans came to this place from Sharon, Pa., and has had the pastorate of the Baptist church about three years. The pupils of St. Patrick's parochial school gave a recital in the Convent hall yesterday afternoon. The following musical program was well render-"Chant du Berger." Grace Pettigrew; "Manonetts," Edward O'Hallor-an; "Alphine Glow," Jennie McAndrew; 'Gussie Waltz," Esther Hearlis; "Ermain," James and Martha Brennan; "Day Lilly," Mollie Hannick; "Alice, Nellie Gallagher; "Jack and the Beanstalk," Mary Best; "Old Folks at Home," Belva Taylor: "Little Gem Waltz," Katle Rogan; "A Happy Though," Lizzie Dempsey; "Shoe-maker's Song," Alice Williams; "Golden Wedding," Jacob Rosenfeld; "Ripple of the Alabama," Sadie Rogan; "Sky Lark Polka," Marie Cummings; "Polka," May Kennedy; "Luci, di Lammermoor," Nettie McDonald; "Dance of the Hay-makers," Nellie Farrell.

Madge Tucker with a repertoire of fine plays will appear at the F. M. Opera House for three nights, commencing January 28.

nishes Employment for a Large Number of Laborers.

Special to the Scranten Tribune. Poyntelle, Jan. 21.-The ice harvesting season is now on in full blast in that was very intertaining and then this locality, and many residents who would otherwise be idle at this time of the year are finding employment at the earty welcome. James Mitchell, city cars and shipped away or packed in the Press," and spoke of the nature of est of the bodies of water in this vijournalism and its requirements. His cinity; is the scene of greatest activity. Stevens and Silsbee, of Scranton, has W. J. MacDonald, of Carbondale been commenced and will furnish emand many teams while the season lasts. | seph Jay, jr. By the aid of approved machinery ice can be stored in the Stevens and Sils- was a caller upon friends in town yesbee houses at the rate of three tons a The ice at present is about and entirely free from snow water or being polluted by drainage, it is easy to understand that the ice cut from its surface is unexcelled.

Stevens and Silsbee, of Scranton, and Mr. Kramer, of Wilkes-Barre, have control of the ice crop on Lake Poyntelle. white the Consumers company and several smaller concerns harvest ice from other lakes in the locality. Mr. Kramer ships all of his ice from the lake as soon as it is cut, sending it over the Ontario and Western railroad to his ice houses in Luzerne county. Mr. Kramer's men shipped 40 carloads yesterday over the Ontario and Western.
While cutting ice at four o'clock this Mr. George in Peckville.
Mr. Willia morning one of the horses used at Kramer's plot, went though the ice. A young man was on the back of the evening in Scranton. horse at the time and both came very near being drowned. The man was easily pulled out of his perilous position but considerable difficulty was experienced in getting the horse out, which was finally rescued by the aid of nother steed.

A party of Scrantonians including ex-Sheriff A. B. Stevens, Fred E. Stevens. Division Passenger Agent T. Flitcroft. f the Ontario and Western, and W. S. Palmer, visited the lake today and in pected the workings of the Stevens and Slisbee plant which has been erected under supervision of Mr. Silse and greatly admired the perfec arrangements for rapidly harvesting he ice. They took dinner with mine ost Simons at the Poyntelle hotel and eturned on the afternoon train. Options have been secured on the ic-ipon several of the smaller lakes herebout by other parties and from present indications the ice business will soon be one of the booming industries of Poyntelle.

TAYLOR.

The funeral services over the remains f the late Henry Fahner occurred yesterday afternoon at the German Luth- Jaz. Owens and Edward Williams; superan church and was attended by a large concourse of sympathizing friends Borst, who have been the guests of and neighbors, Rev. Dr. H. H. Harris, porters of the vice president, right, Rev. A. Weber, and Rev. Mr. Langough, of Scranton, officiated and each delivered a touching and appropriate address in which the many virtues of the deceased were appropriately set Miss Mary Coggins, who has been the forth. There were a number of beautiful floral offerings received. At the lose of the services the remains were borne to the Forest Home cemetery for announces that he is an aspirant for tax interment. The Knights of Pythias, Improved Order of Red Men, and the Gernan Lutheran lodge of which the deeased was a member attended in a

John Powell, of Plymouth, visited friends in this town yesterday. Mrs. T. L. Jones visited relatives in Scranton on Monday.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Michael Ryan occurred yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from his late home on Oak street and was largely attended. Impressive services were held at the house. Interment was made at the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. Mrs. Blackburn, of Pittston, visited riends in this town on Tuesday. Dr. F. W. Sanborn, of Green Ridge was here on business yesterday.

PRICEBURG.

Miss Ina Carpenter entertained a number of friends at her home, on North Main street, Wednesday even-Games of all kinds were indulged in during the evening, and refreshments served, after which the merry gathering lispersed.

A citizens' general caucus was held n Smith's hall last evening.

The Priceburg social and dancing class will hold its regular meeting in Fadden's hall this evening. Kane and McLaughlin have arranged to have a dancing master from Scranton present and to teach many of the new dances. George Mumford was a visitor in Olyphant yesterday. S. C. Hodson, the new aspirant for the postoffice, has retired from the confecionery business. Mrs. William Proudouck has purchased the stock and will ntinue to do business in the old stand. Professor J. Haydn Couzens was a caller in town today. James McGettrick has accepted a position as clerk in W. C. Griffin's store.

JERMYN the building.

The many clerks in town are beginning to look forward with pleasure and are counting the weeks, when the closing of the stores at an early hour will allow them the evenings to themselves. The merchants of Jermyn are very considerate in relation to the needs of their employes, and do not believe in having them work during the sweltering heat of summer evenings. John E. Quinn, proprietor of the Traction house, at Mayfield, was robbed by some unknown person a few nights ago. They knew that it was pay-day in that vicinity and that they would be likely to get a haul. The robbers the bar room, and did it so quietly that the proprietor failed to hear them. Affer they were inside they went through the till and pocketed the contents which consisted of small change. They acted as if acquainted with the place, as they continued their search into Mr. Quinn's pocketbook from his trousers. There was considerable money in it. It is surmised about one hundred dollars. After helping themselves to good clgars and a couple of bottles of whisky they decamped. A shooting match at clay pigeons was held on the East Side Wednesday afternoon. W. G. McDermott and Wil-He McDermott each shot seven out of ten birds. William Cunningbam and Edward Feury each shot six out of nine. Albert Moon shot four and missed five. Thomas Long shot three and missed six. Michael Mulherin shot three and missed seven. Matthew Leslie took the cake by shooting one and missing eight.

For the fourth time within two weeks Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Bruce were called upon yesterday morning to mourn the loss of another child, this time the pet of the family and the only daughter and sister. There were eight place this afternoon. Miss Josie Gilligan, of the South Side, entertained a number of her friends at her home last evening and a very pleas- friends in Scranton yesterday. ant time was enjoyed. The following were in attendance: Misses Mame Kennedy, Mamie Walker, Mary Lavelle and The work of filling the immense store-houses, just completed, here by Messrs. Thomas Morgans, J. W. Hanophy and Miss Lizzie Glanville, of Mount Pleasployment for from sixty to seventy men ant, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Jo-Mr. Charles Stone, of Binghamton, terday. A widespread rumor is affoat that twelve inches thick, remarkably clear | Contractor L. Hoffecker will shortly succeed Mr. Charles L. Bell in the mansediment. As Lake Poyntelle is fed entirely by springs and is situated in a Mr. Hoffecker is a practical carpenter. from the First ward. Mr. Jones is manner that prevents the water from and undoubtedly will make a success in the new enterprise.

street, is visiting friends in Scranton. Mr. Thomas Solomon is aspiring to inspector of election at the Republican caucus of the Second ward this evening. Attorney P. E. Timlin attended the lawyers' banquet at Hotel Jermyn in Scranton, last evening.

The Citizens caucus will be held in Edmunds' hall on Saturday evening. hall

Mr. George Merritt spent last evening

Last evening C. E. Helmes, justice Smith, issued a warrant for the arrest of George Belsh. Until the first of Friday evening next week September, 1896, Mr. Smith, claims he and Mr. Belsh worked in the Delaware ing so fast that the bridge will be ready and Hudson colliery on shares, and for use tomorrow. Contractor Spillon used the same number tickets on the has done strong and durable work on it cars which they loaded. When they dissolved partnership, each one then had tickets, with a number for each At the time of the dissolution, there were three cars on the switch, which had been loaded by the two men, and which bore the former ticket. Mr Smith further states that Mr. Belsh few days' illness of pneumonia. Detook the regular ticket and placed one of his own numbers on the car thereby preventing Mr. Smith from getting his pay on the three cars. Mr. Belsh waived a hearing and gave ball for his appearance to court. Casswallon Lodge, No. 16, True Ivorites of America, elected and installed the following officers at their last meeting: Past president, Henry Williams; president, J. W. Griffiths; vice president, J. W. Williams; secretary, Richard Owens; treasurer, Edward D. Market street cometery, Pittston, George: conductor, Thomas Williams: steward, J. T. Williams; guardians, porters of the president, right, David Phillips; left, William L. Jenkins; sup-William Williams: left, James Lewis; trustee for three years, Thomas M.

Griffiths. John McGarry, of Mayfield, states that his son, Michael, who left here a few days ago, has a position in a cigar rs in New York

Thomas McGouldrick, of Mayfield, collector. There are a number of candidates in the borough of Mayfield who have announced their names for the various offices who would like to know when and where the caucus will be held. I wish to state that I have not the slightest suspicion of party or parties who participated in the robbery of last Saturday night. Nelther have I made efforts to bring any parties to justice at present as has been stated. John E.

FOREST CITY.

On Wednesday evening about 11.30 clock fire was discovered in the shoe store owned by John Matey, It was first discovered by the young ladies who lived in rooms over the store. They saw the smoke making its way into their apartments through the floor and immediately gave the alarm. The Enerprise Hose company quickly respond ed and in a few minutes extinguished the blaze. The stock in the store was badly damaged by the water. Matey's repairing tools were completely de stroyed. They were in the rear of the building where the fire originated. The fire is supposed to have been caused by

asy to Take asy to Operate

Are features peculiar to Hood's Pills. Small in over," 25c. C. I. Hood & Co., Proprietors, Lowell, Mass.

The only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

live coals falling from the stove in the rear. Very little damage was done to

There were no new applicants for MAYFIELD liquor licenses this year. All the old places had their licenses renewed. On Saturday evening the Democrats of the First ward will hold their caucus in McDonaid's hall. The caucus in the Second ward will be held in the vacant store room in the Manning building on the same evening. John Matey and Philip Mattey will go to Montrose on January 25. They are on the list of traverse jurors drawn to serve during the week commencing on the 25th inst. The Ladies' Aid society of the presby terian church heid a very successful supper and entertainment on Wednesday evening. The entertainment was furnished by the Junior Christian Endeavor society. The Crystal Lake correspondent of gained entrance by forcing a window in the Forest City News is engaged in a controversy with the noted Susquehanna correspondent, Whitney. The News correspondent had better lookout for

On Monday afternoon Joseph Hall was struck by an engine on the Jefferson branch of the Erie. He resides sleeping room, where they secured his near the old Delaware and Hudson mill across the river, and was going to this place via the railroad when he was struck. It was during the heavy snow squall on Monday that the aecident occurred. Hall did not see an approaching train until it was too late to get out of the way. He attempted to do so but was unable to avoid being struck. He was knocked across the Forest City breaker switch, striking his head on a rail. His inturies were not of a serious nature and at present he is able to walk around again,

ARCHBALD.

School Director Henry Myers, of Main street, had his leg broken by a fall while on his way to work yesterday morning. Mr. Myers had just left the powder house of the Delaware Hudson company at No. 5 with a keg of powder and as he was going down boys and one girl, now their remains the incline near the house he slipped but five boys. The funeral will take and fell with the result above stated. He was taken to his home in the ambu-

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kearney visited

As predicted in this column yesterday F. J. O'Rourke was nominated for school director and P. F. Loftus for council from the Third ward at a Democratic caucus held in Newcomb's hall. Last evening also the Republicans of that ward held their caucus in Probst's hall. John Schiffler was the nominee for school director and Thomas Caffrey for council. As there will be no other candidates in that ward the struggle between the Democratic and Republican candidates will be very interest-young, energetic and enterprising and would undoubtedly represent the ward Mr. Henry Collins, of South Main with credit to himself and his constituents. As yet there is no one named in opposition to him.

Archbald contave, Improved Order of Heptasophs, installed the following officers last evening: Past archon, W. H. Murphy; archan, Max Klopfer; procost, John F. Boland: prelate, Fred Kinback; financier, W. H. Philbin; treasurer, Frank Cawley; secretary, P The Second ward Republican caucus J. Coolican; warden Chris Muller, and her suffering was terrible and her suffering was ter was conducted by District Deputy Wolfe, of Carbondale, The many friends of Miss Sarah

Mr. William Tennis and Misses Dora O'Connor, of Pine street, will be glad to Tennis and Mabel Davis spent last know that she is recovering from her recent severe sickness. Rev. Dr. McLeod, pastor of the First the peace, at the instance of Herbert | Presbyterian church, of Scranton, will avenue. lecture in the Presbyterian church on Work on the new bridge is progress-

AVOCA. The death of Walter Fitsimmons, a popular young man of this town, c curred at the family residence on Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock after : ceased was about 25 years of age and possessed a wide circle of friends who will be shocked to learn of his early demise. He was a son of Walter Fitzsimmons, Sr., and a brother to postmaster Fitzsimmons, of this place. Th ther members of the family are Mary Annie, Agnes, Kate, and Patrick. Th funeral will take place tomorrow (Saturday) morning at 9.30 o'clock. A requiem mass will be celebrated in St. Mary's church. Interment will be in HALLSTEAD.

H. S. Jamieson, of Afton, N. Y., has purchased William O'Dell's burber shop on Main street.

Mr. Walter E. Burton and Miss Jennie King, two of our most popular young people, were united in marriage in the Baptist church last Wednesday evening by Rev. John Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Currier will leave

Most Torturing, Disfiguring, Humiliating

Of itching, burning, bleeding, scaly skin and scalp humors is instantly relieved by a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, a single application of Curicura (ointment), the great skin cure, and a full dose of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, greatest of blood purifiers and humor cures economically cure, when all else fails, PIMPLY FACES Purified and Board by

ON THE LINE OF THE

are located the finest fishing and hunting grounds in the world. Descriptive books on application. Tickets to all points in Maine. Canada and Maritime Provinces, United States Northwest, Vanyouver, Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, Ore., San

First-Class Sleeping and Dining Cars attached to all throught trains. Tourist cars fully fitted with bedding, curtains and specially adapted to wants of families may be had with second-class tickets. Rates always less than via other lines. For further information, time tables, etc., on application to

E. V. SKINNER, G. E. A., 353 Broadway, New York.

MY SICK SISTERS.

"I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For twenty years I had suffered with loss of appetite, nausea, constipation, palpi the heart, headpains in nearly heate.

tation of ache and all parts
My physicinn said it was only but his indigestion. medicine did not help me any. I began the use of the Pinkham Remedies. particularly Vegetable Compound. I have taken four bottles, and now those troubles are cured. "I cannot praise it enough, and our druggist says the medicine is doing a world of good among his customers.

-Belle S. Thomson, New Bedford.

Lydia E. Pink

on Friday for a visit with friends in New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City Rev. J. B. Sweet, of Scranton, delivered an excellent lecture in the Meth edist church Tuesday evening to a largand appreciative audience.

Edward O'Brien had an arm quite badly injured while at work in the round house on Wednesday. William Hanrahan died at his homon Railroad street on Thursday morn ing after a long illness. The funeral services will be conducted from St. Lawrence church in Great Bend next Saturday morning at 10,30 o'clock. The pupils of the high school have established a paper in the school to be known as "The High School Gazette with Professor B. W. Pease as editor It will be issued bi-monthly. The first Issue will appear February 1.

MOSCOW.

Miss Blanche Olmstead, of Apalachin, s visiting the Misses Sue and Bessie

Mrs. Adam Krotzer, of Madisonville was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noack on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Monahan and children, of Tobyhanna, spent Sunday with Mrs. Monahan's mother, Mrs Cunningham. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Travis returned home Sunday afternoon from Nicholson, where they were visiting their daughter, Mrs. Verdam Smith.

Mrs. Margaret Wardell spent Monday in Scranton.

Juvenile Curiosity. "Mr. Diggles," said the little boy with big ruffles on his shoulders, "I wish you would let me come and see where you live. I want to look at your root "Why, certainly. But what made you think of that?

"My sister said it was better than you company, so I thought it must be som thing fine."-Washington Star.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured in 3 Days.

Morton L. Hill, of Lebanon, Ind. says: "My wife had inflamatory rheumatism in every muscle and joint body and face were swollen almost be-yond recognition; had been in bed for six weeks and had eight physicians but received no benefit until she tried the Mystic Cure for Rheumatism. It gave immediate relief and she was able to walk about in three days. I am sure it saved her life." Sold by Carl Lorenz, druggist, Seranton, 418 Lackawanna avenue.

Trousers And Suits

See our windows for wondronsly low prices in Tronserings. Now is the time to enjoy the luxury of a perfect fit and perfect work manship at the price of ready made goods.

WE HAVE REMOVED

One door from our old stand-to to Balances and Responsibility. the left of The Arcade instead of the right. Our increasing business required more room, which shows that the people appreciate low prices, good workmanship and honest dealing.

DAVIS, Originators of Modern Methods in Merchant Tailoring 213 Wyoming Avenue.

DUPONT'S

MINING, ELASTING AND SPORTING

Janufactured at the Wapwallopen Mills, Luzerne county, Pa., and at Wil-mington, Delaware.

HENRY BELIN, Jr. General Agent for the Wyoming District. 118 WYOMING AVENUE. Scranton, Pa Third National Bank Building.

AGENCIES: THOS. FORD. Pittston, Pa.
JOHN B. SMITH & SON, Plymouth. Pa.
E. W. MULLIGAN, Wilkes-Barro, Pa.
Agents for the Repainto Chemical Com-

What Sarah Bernhard says

GIGANTIC COAT SALE AT MARVELOUSLY LOW PRICES

All previous attempts at bargains are insignificant in comparison with this. Having bought up the entire stock of two of the largest manufacturers in New York, we are now able to give our customers the greatest bargains the world has ever seen. Coats that we paid $12 and $15 for wholesale and were considered elegant bargains at that, are now on sale in our store for $4 and $5 each.

The following may discount With the The following may give you a little idea of some of our bargains: ELEGANT BOUCLE COATS, shield front, half lined, rolling collar, wholesale price, $4.75; OUR $1.98 LADIES' BLACK KERSEY JACKETS, lined with satin rhadame, wholesale price, $6.75; OUR $2.98 PRICE 32,98, addler jackets, in fine Persian cloth, silk lined, wholesale price, $7.50; $3.98 OUR PRICE $3.98 rench caterpillar coats, lined throughout with changeable silk; wholesale price, $10.00; OUR PRICE, $3.98 sale price, $10,00; OUR PRICE. 33.38
Ladies' fine imported jackets, beautiful effects in silk astrachan, Kersey and in black, brown and green, silk lined; wholesale price, $11; OUR $5.98
Ladies' seal plush capes, handsomely embroidered; wholesale price $2.98
Ladies' suits, skirts and silk waists in all the latest styles are now on sale at half price.

PHILADELPHIA MANUFACTURERS OF CLOAKS AND SUITS 421 Lackawanna Avenue.

Z. WEINGART, Proprietor.

KERR'S.

CLEARING SALE

GOODS TO BE CLOSED OUT AT ONCE. SALES FOR CASH ONLY. NO DISCOUNTS ALLOWED

Our selections for the spring trade are arriving. We must have space, and in order to make it will clear out the patterns in stock.

ALL NEW GOODS,

The greater part made in anticipation of the coming season at a price which will insure their speedy removal,

LOOK AT OUR STOCK. COMPARE PRICES and QUALITY

G. KERR, SON

And we are confident of the result.

Carpets and Draperies.

Opp. Main Entrance to Wyoming House. 4.08 LACKAWANNA AVENUE.

THIRD NATIONAL BANK

OF SCRANTON. Special Attention Given to Business and Personal Accounts. Liberal Accommodations Extended According

3% Interest Allowed on Interest Deposits.

*** **$$$$

WE ARE GOING TO MOVE OUR CLOTHING DEPARTMENT from the special store it now occupies inst at present, to our main store. We want it under the same roof with our Furniture and Carpet Departments. We want our business all together. It will be more convenient. It will lessen our expenses and give you Clothing at lower prices than ever before. It will give our Clothing department better light and more room. In order to do this we want to lessen our Clothing stock as much as possible, so that we will not lose money by damaged goods during the removal of the stock, or for drayage expenses. We are, therefore, offering everything in our Clothing department at greatly reduced prices. The style and fit and wear of our Clothes you well know. They are proverbial in and around Scranton. The prices just at present are remarkable.

as during our ordinary business. You can get better Clothes at far cheaper prices, and you needn't pay for them now. What more could you

000000000

225-227 Wyoming Ave.