MUNYOR TALKS ON DYSPEPSIA

How to Cure Yourself

In all forms of stomach trouble Mun-yon's Dyspensia ture will promptly cure where there are such symptoms as pain or sorchess in the stomach, indigestion or distress after eating, pressure and fullness in the stomach, shortness of breath, poor names. Litter taste in the mouth and sallow skin take Munyon's Liver Cure in alternation with the Dyspepsia Cure, an aday by using Munyon's Constipation constipation keep the bowels open once a day by using Munyon's Constipation cure until they become regular under the effect of the Dyspepsia Cure. When there are troublesome heart symptoms alternate Minyon's Heart Cure with the Dyspepsia Cure. If there is great nervousness or nability to sleep, alternate Munyon's Mood Cure and Dyspepsia Cure. If the blood is poor in quality alternate Munyon's fileod Cure and Dyspepsia Cure. If this plan of treatment one can eradicate the worst forms of stomach troubles and their complications, and make the cure permanent.

The Carbondaic Cycle Club to Be Reorganized.

A special meeting of the Carbondale Cycyc club was held to consider the question of its continuance. Of late there has been a lack of interest in the club and it seemed best to consider its financial condition. A resolution was personal requiring every member in arrears to pay up to the first of January if he wishes to become a member of the new organization to be effected. Failures to meet this requirement will debur one from future membership.

The initiation fee for the reorganized club will be $2 instead of $3, as at present. Another meeting will soon be called to consider matters connected with the reorganization, Funeral of Thomas Waite.

The funeral of Thomas Walte, who vas killed at the Conibrook colliery on Saturday afternoon, was largely at tended yesterday at the Second Presbyterian church, of which he was a member. The services were conducted by Rev. W. A. Beecher, pastor of the church. Olive Lent lodge, No. 156, Independent Order of Odd Pellows, 2nd charge of the funeral. A large number of beautiful floral decorations and the attendance of many friends testified to the regard felt for a departed brother The flower bearers were M. L. Oliver, Joseph Wilce, John McMynne, Richard Curnow, George Emmett and William Arthurs. The pall-bearers were William Masters, J. B. Palmountain, Harry Curnow, Thomas Llewellen, Fred. Burtor and Robert Berd.

Fire on Beimoni Street.

Yesterday afternoon the house of John Moon, on Belmont street, was damaged to some extent by fire and considerable loss resulted from damage to the furniture and carpets from water. In a few moments after the alarm had been given the Mitchell Hose company were at work and saved the buildng from destruction. The fire was confined to two or three rooms and reached the roof. It appears that the water pipes in the bath room had been frozen during the night and in thawing them out the flame of a lamp in some way started the fire.

Martin Barrett Recovering.

The operation performed by Dr. A. F. Callies upon the muscles of Mr. Barrett's throat, which was paralyzed, appears to have been successful. The power of speech has been regained, and food can received. His complete recovery is looked for in a short time.
