Mr. Evans has been director of music in St. Patrick's church for five years and has been director and organist for about four years. During the time he has been in charge of the choir it has become one of the best in the city and has received the most unqualified praise for the manner in which the most difficult masses have been ren dered. Before going to St. Patrick' church Mr. Evans was organist at th Second Presbyterian church. He will continue the quartette which for a long time furnished the musiat the Penn Avenue Baptist church, but will also organize a small choir from among the members of the con-gregation which will assist the quarette at the various services. After th choir is organized Mr. Evans will hav the members rehearse a light oratoric which will be produced in public, DEATH OF MICHAEL O'MALLEY. It Took Place at Moses Taylor Hos-
