

DEARMOND DROPS INTO VERSIFICATION

Missouri Free Silverite Lets Out on Secretary Morton.

AGAIN FIGHTING THE OLD WAR

The Lower House of Congress is Frenzied to a Half-Hour of Energetic Flooded, Apropos of Nothing—Very Little Done in the Senate.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Several interesting and at times humorous and acrimonious political speeches were unexpectedly precipitated upon the house today just at the close of the day's proceedings and during the consideration of the Indian appropriation bill, begun on Monday last, was concluded and the bill passed with some material changes, all reducing the scope of the measure.

Mr. Wadsworth, of New York, had called up the bill making appropriations for the agricultural department for the year 1897-98 and following Mr. Sherman's course in the management of the Indian bill, yielded the floor to Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio.

Mr. Grosvenor said the measure was both in the Republican and Democratic vote, and had in fact, in it, Mr. Grosvenor was followed in the same line by Mr. Brownell, of Ohio, and then Mr. Dearmond, Missouri, took the floor.

Mr. Dearmond, Missouri, took the floor, after briefly alluding to ex-Governor Altgeld's charges, he read from newspaper articles a number of after the election to show that there was some ground for them, so far as Ohio was concerned.

RIVAL FALLS DOWN AN ABYSS.

Two Fight for a Fair Dancer's Favor, and One Disappears.

Hazleton, Pa., Jan. 28.—John Brinko and Mike Lensch, rivals for the hand of a young woman at McAdoo, quarreled at a dance at that place last night. Friends interfered, and a fight was prevented. Both men then left for the woods near by to settle their differences. They got too close to a stripping abyss over eighty feet in depth. Then they began to spar at each other, and in an instant Brinko stumbled and fell head foremost into the cavity. His friends made a search this morning, and upon approaching the precipice heard agonizing moans. They found marks in the snow where he had rolled down, and, descending the pit, they discovered his outstretched form. He was carried to his home, where restoratives were applied, and after a few moments he regained consciousness. He was seriously injured, and his hands and ears were badly frozen. Lensch has not been seen since the fight.

WYOMING COURT NEWS.

Sentences Imposed in Criminal Court. Next Week's Programme—Grand Jury Recommends a Memorial Shaft.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, Pa., Jan. 28.—The Ames damage case is still occupying the attention of the court and will in all probability continue throughout the week. The next case on the docket is that of Addison E. Mowry, of Meshop, who is charged with the murder of a woman named Walden Sprout & Co. Mr. Mowry erected a grist mill at Meshop some time ago and purchased his machinery from Walden & Co., who guaranteed it to do certain work. Mowry claims that the machinery did not come up to the standard. Hence the suit.

Criminal court was held last week, and the sentences imposed were as follows: Abe Rosenkrantz to pay $5 fine, undergo an imprisonment of six months in the county jail and restore the stolen property. It will be remembered that during the county fair last September Rosenkrantz, in company with Claude Dickinson, went to a farm near East Lemon and stole a gold watch while the family were in the kitchen. Both were tried at the November term of court. Dickinson was sent to the Huntington reformatory. Rosenkrantz was found guilty and about the time Judge Dunham was preparing to read his sentence Abraham Walden quietly left the court room. He wandered around in the vicinity of Scranton for some time and was finally captured by Sheriff Knapp near Luzerne.

Henry Waterman, of Nicholson, was fined $50 and sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of three months in the county jail. Waterman hit a woman on the head. He is a son of the late Washington Waterman, who was killed near the Garhart coal chutes a few years ago.

True bills were found against Stark and Gorman by the grand jury. These are the two young gentlemen who broke into the Evangelical church at Bardwell and damaged the furniture. They are still at large, but it is expected that they will be captured before long.

The grand jury also reported in favor of a soldiers' and sailors' monument to be erected on court house square. This will again go before the next grand jury and if they decided favorably it will then go to the county commissioners.

INSANE MAN HEIR TO MILLIONS.

Driven Crazy by Privations Caused by Poverty.

City of Mexico, Jan. 28.—Oscar Helmsund, a physician, who some time ago was known here as a massage operator, disappeared suddenly by the street. He was found in a Swedish consular building through the death of an uncle who resided in Stockholm, Sweden, Helmsund had fallen heir to $1,000,000.

Helmsund was yesterday discovered in an insane asylum in this city. His deplorable condition is the result of the privations he has undergone, and it is believed he will recover.

PHOTOGRAPHERS IN SESSION.

Overtures Are Made for a Tri-State Organization.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 28.—At this morning's session of the Pennsylvania Photographers' association a proposition was read from the brethren of the craft in Delaware and New Jersey, favoring the organization of a tri-state association of photographers, all of the meetings of which would be held in Pennsylvania.

While the proposition was looked upon rather favorably by the majority of members, it was voted to refer the matter to the next annual meeting at Altoona.

HER IDEA OF WARMTH.

This Drunken Woman Tries to Burn the House Down.

Philadelphia, Jan. 28.—As the result of a debauch Mrs. Rose Hoban this morning set fire to her residence, 2905 Oakford street. Her husband and three children were in bed and the former was awakened by smoke and noise at the kitchen. The children were rescued and the flames were extinguished by policemen.

FORMAN GOES THROUGH.

But Not Until the Free Silver Democrats Sharply Rebuke Him for Deserting Bryan.

Washington, Jan. 28.—For more than an hour the senate this morning discussed in executive session the nomination of William S. Forman, of Illinois, to be commissioner of internal revenue, and finally confirmed him by a vote of 41 to 15.

splendid violin, which he never used except for the rendition of sacred music. On his death bed he asked that the old instrument should be kept sacred for the playing of hymns only, and if sold at all, should not fall into flippant hands and be used to play at frolics. His dying wish will be observed by his relatives.

YOUNG ITALIAN MURDERED.

To One Shocking Crime Is Virtually Added Assassination.

Philadelphia, Jan. 28.—It developed today that the 1-year-old lad, Morestino Mofli, whose body was found in an alley yesterday frozen stiff, was the victim of an unnatural assault at the hands of Fiasquell D'Addio, who is in jail on the charge of murdering the boy.

The accused, after taking the child from his home on Monday night, apparently in order to keep it safe from a foul crime in a vacant house next door to the Mofli residence, choked the boy to death and then threw the body from the roof to an alleyway. D'Addio was already in jail for abducting the lad when the body was found, and the charge against him was changed to murder.

MARKETS AND STOCKS.

New York, Jan. 28.—Speculation was extremely dull again today at the Stock Exchange and a heavy market was expected. The market was dull and the transactions aggregated only 8,700 shares. Prices yielded half per cent, but the losses were not covered, and the market closed with a further decline which left the leading stocks fractionally below last night.
