STOLE A BOX OF FISH.

Phillip Harris and John Howley Were Arrested at an Early Hour Yesterday Morning.

An ancient and fish-like smell pervaded the station house for several hours yesterday. Phillip Harris and John Howley, both of this side, had been arrested at 3 o'clock yesterday morning on suspicion of stealing a box of fish which they had with them in a cutter. The arrest was made by Lieutenant Williams and Patrolmen Hart and Saul. The young men had been driving about town all Thursday night and after stopping at very saloon they were at midnight in a semi-unconscious state. The police officers were standing on the corner of Seventh street and Lackawanna avenue about 2:30 o'clock when the cutter crossed the Lackawanna avenue bridge.

When the young men spied the officers they turned down Sixth street and up Schell's court to Seventh street and out again to the avenue. The officers followed them and later found the cutter standing in front of a saloon on the corner of Lafayette street and Main avenue. The box of fish was still in the cutter and Harris and Howley were inside the saloon trying to sell their booty. When questioned about the fish Howley said he had bought it at Hall's fish market.

Upon saying this he jumped into the cutter and tore the ticket from the box. The officers picked up the pieces and found that the box had been taken from A. G. Gilmore & Co.'s store. The young men were then arrested. Two whips were found in the cutter, also a quantity of loose fish. At the hearing yesterday morning before Alderman Blair John Geige, of West Lackawanna avenue, appeared and claimed the loose fish. The box of fish, as supposed, was supposed to be the Gilmore firm, and the whips had been stolen, one from a cab on Lackawanna avenue, the other from Dr. J. J. Roberts. The last mentioned theft was made by Howley about three weeks ago while Dr. Roberts' buggy was standing on Lafayette street. Howley was held in $500 bail and Harris the same. Harris furnished, but Howley is still in jail.

RAID BY THE POLICE.

Police court was held at 12 o'clock last night as a consequence of a raid by the police on the house at No. 722 Schell's court, rear of West Lackawanna avenue. The keeper of the place, Lizzie Smith, five young girls and a man, Stanley Hawley, were captured in the den. The raid was brought about in an interesting way. William Hawley appeared before Alderman Blair last evening and swore out information against the place, charging the Smith woman with "inveigling young men and women into a house of ill repute."

At 11 o'clock Lieutenant Williams, and Officers Jones, Saul, Marker, Currell and Hart, surrounded the house, a dilapidated wooden building. Officer Jones first entered the house, the other officers following. When the batch were brought to the station house Alderman Blair was called and the case proceeded. The Smith woman offered to enter bail. She was accommodated in the sum of $500 dollars. She keeps a boarding house, she said. First came the other woman, Lizzie. Then came Kaufman, age 21, works in the kitchen. She was born in the shadow of the governor's mansion at Harrisburg.

LAST NIGHT'S FIRE.

The alarm that was sounded from box 28, of Sumner at the intersection of Washburn street, was caused by a slight blaze in a wooden "block" building, 412 Fourteenth street. Before the Franklin and Columbia companies reached the scene the fire had been extinguished by the bucket men. The blaze was in a downstairs basement room and was caused by the carelessness of some one who after thawing out a frozen pipe forgot to smother the sparks on the wooden joists. The house is inhabited by Mrs. William Owens and family.

Dr. S. E. Feinberg's horse, "Nellie," attached to a brand new cutter was stolen last evening about 8 o'clock while the physician was making a professional call on Luzerne street. Later police found the outfit in Keyser valley.
