Big Throng of People Visited the Institution Saturday. Between 3,000 and 4,000 people visit ed the West Side hospital Saturday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock, the time arranged by the Hospital association for a public inspection. The large attendance was decided testimonial of the interest taken in the hospital by West Side people. A constant stream poured in California, with his wife and daughter and out of the building and comment was generally complimentary of the adaptability of the Phillips homestead tien of the Green Ridge church to sup for hospital usages. Last Saturday night at the dance Cassie Williams, of Feltz Patch, Taylor, was tearful when she left the hall. When she began to dance the girl took off her heavy coat and placed it in the cloak room. When she picked up her cont again she suspected nothing, but upon opening her purse, which she had left in the coat, she found that $1.50 had been stolen.

C. E. SPECIAL SERVICES.

Christian Endeavor services, commemorative of the sixteenth anniversary of the birth of the organization were held last evening in the Washburn Street Presbyterian and the Plymouth Congregational church. The Junior society of the Washburn street church held its meeting in the afternoon. In the evening the senior society gave an interesting programme. Mis-Mary Barlingame, president of the society, was in charge of the meeting. After the Christian Endeavor service large congregation at the Washburn street church heard a very interesting lecture on "The Illustrated Shepherd Life of the East," by F. Moghabghab, a native Syrian. The speaker exhibited many objects of oriental usage. The koran was shown, silk dresses, etc. After the service many of the congregation examined the articles. At the Plymouth Congregational church last evening the Christian Endeavor society held their service. The meeting was presided over by Miss Jennie Daniela, president of the Junior so-ciety, and Gomer Reese. Scriptural mittance, to defray incidental expenses, reading, hymns by a quartette and a solo by Miss Vannie Williams were included in the evening's exercises. The society will hold a social tomorrow

This evening at the Plymouth church the Womans' Foreign Missionary auxfliary will hold a public meeting. An entertainment will be given.

At the Jackson Street Baptist church last evening the pastor, Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, preached in a style peculiar to himself an eloquent sermon upon Job's Consolation." The congregation tested the capacity of the house, the singing was spirited and full of enthusiasm. At the close of the sermon the pastor administered the rite of baptism to six candidates. In the Sunday school it was deemed advisable to or ganize an industrial school to be held in the vestry of the church every Saturday afternoon, the school to start before long fully equipped with a corps of

Welles, who was a delegate to the general assembly met him and extended him an invitation to visit Green Ridge and supply the pulpit made vacant by the illness of the pastor, Rev. N. F. Stahl. Dr. Worrall, who was not disposed to secept any extended call, agreed to fill the pulpit for two Sundays. As recited above he has staid twenty, and if he se willed he could stay longer. however has been tendered him from California and as he believes it would e beneficial for him to live in that climate for a time, he proposes to g there for a few months and if he finds things agreeable accept the call.

Dr. Worrall is the son of President Worrali, of the Danville (Conn.) seminary, and a brother of W. R. Worrall, of the New York Mail and Express. He s regarded as one of the foremost of the younger preachers of the Presbyterian church in this country. During his brief stay in Green Ridge the church has made wonderful strides increasing in every branch and what is particularly noticeable in the attendance, the large auditorium of the beautiful new church being crowded every Sunday. At both services yesterday Dr. Worrall referred to his departure in feeling terms, speaking his deepest gratification at the kind treatment he had received at the hands of the Green Ridge Presbyterians, and saying that he could not have been made more of had he been the regular pastor instead of a stranger come to bide with them for a brief space His farewell charge, delivered at the morning service, was based on I Cor-inthians, xv. 58: "Therefore, my ba-"Therefore, my ba loved brethren, be ye steadfast, un-movable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord." It was one of the strongest sermons he has preached during his stay, and served to increase the regret which his new found friends and admirers feet at his departure. It is not altogether impossible but that Dr. Worrall may be a Scrantonian yet. The leave of absence of the present pastor, Rev. N. F. Stahl, expires April , but it is not likely he will be able to resume his charge owing to the fact that his health has shown but little signs of improvement. The matter of securing a new pastor while Rev. Mr. Stahl's resignation remains un-considered will not be discussed by the church on account of the proprieties of the case. A congregational meeting, in the near future to secure supply, is, however, among the possibilities. Next Sunday Rev. Dr. J. T. Stewart, of Towanda, will fill the pul-

Bouquet Joe Arrested on a Charge of Having Stolen It.

On her way to Scranton, in a Peckville car Saturday, Mrs. Thomas Henley, jr., of Archbald, lost her pocketbook containing $28 in cash and a check for $990, drawn on the Traders National bank and made payable to She missed the pocketbook when near the city line, and though a diligent search was made at the time. no trace of it could be found.

Yesterday the police got a tip that a Providence Polander named Joe Sigwitch, familiary known on account of his dudish proclivities as "Bouquet Joe," had been around town Saturday night trying to sell a large check for a very small price. Lieutenant Spellman and Patrolman Saltry were put Polander and his big check. It proved. as expected, to be the one lost by Mrs. Healey. He also had $17 in cash, which he admitted was the remnant of the $28 that was in the pocketbook. He claims he found the pocketbook on the Valley House corner.

That he is lying is fairly well proved by the fact that Mrs. Healey lost the pocketbook Before she reached the central city. The police are satisfied that he stole it, and expect to find that he was a passenger on the car. Mrs. Healey, the conductor and any passengers that can be summoned will today take a look at "Joe."

The Gouse murder occurred at Arch-bald Sept. 16, 1894. John Gouse, the murdered man, had invited a number of friends to his house to spend Satur day evening. Before midnight every body was crazy drunk. Gouse threat ened to call the police to eject the rev elers, Gouse's son, August, and Jo-seph Reminsky, a boarder, it was alleged, killed him, the son striking him with an iron and the boarder stabbing from his late home this morning at 8.20 him with a table knife. The son fled but the boarder was captured.

At his trial it was shown on the tes-timony of Coroner Kelly and by other means that the blow delivered by the son caused death, and consequently the jury acquitted Reminsky. The so was captured July 15 in Shamokin and brought back here. He denies the crime and says he fled when he was drunk and feared to come back when he learned he was charged with the
