WASHINGTON AND THE INAUGURATION

ing the winter must be taken to be appreciated. The gay city is at its gay-est; congress is in session; the ministers and attaches of all foreign legations are in town, and Washington, in itself, a beautiful city, is made kaleidoscopically picturesque by the multitudes which throng the streets. Particularly is this so during inauguration week. Washington is the Mecca for thousands of pilgrims from all over the country. The glittering pageantry and pomp of the inaugural parade and ceremony are a feast to the eyes of the American people, always lovers of display and magnificence, One of the grandest features of the ceremonies is the inaugural ball, which as unrestricted as to attendance.

To enable all to participate in the pleasures of the capital during the inauguration week, greatly reduced rates will be made by the Lehigh Valley railroad system from all points along its lines. Tickets will be good going on March 1, 2 and 3, and good for return March 4 to 8.

The route traversed by this line is too well known and popular to require particular description. The beauties of scenery are many; the service and equipment of its trains are the best.
