PERSONAL.

Mrs. E. A. Fish has returned from a visit to New York city.

Miss Katie Grady, of William street, left last evening for a two weeks' visit with friends in Wilkes-Barre and Minooka Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hessler and daughter have returned from Paterson, N. J., and have taken rooms at J. D. Caryl's, on Linden street.

GANNON WILL LEAVE THE JAIL.

Thursday He Is to Be Taken Before Commissioner McGinley.

Attorney Richard Busteed and Attorney J. H. Burns yesterday made an application to Judge Gunster for an order permitting them to have James Gannon, who is in the county jail, taken before Commissioner M. A. McGinley that his deposition may be officially taken.

Gannon is the man who for over two years has been in the county jail because he refused to sign a deed as directed by the court. Recently his attorneys began proceedings to secure Gannon's release and one of the steps taken has been the appointment of Attorney McGinley as commissioner to take testimony with reference to the case.

Judge Gunster granted the order prayed for and on Thursday Gannon will be taken before Mr. McGinley and his deposition recorded.

PLANS ARE ADOPTED FOR A PARSONAGE

Congregation of First Church Decides to Erect Such a Building.

RESOLUTION THAT WAS PASSED

Directs the Building Committee to Proceed to Have a Parsonage Erected on the Ground Heretofore Obtained for That Purpose--Plans Were Drawn by Architect L. C. Holden--Building Will Be Stone and Cost About $15,000.

A special meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church was held last evening in the auditorium of the church, G. A. Fuller presided and W. J. Hand acted as secretary. The meeting was called for the express purpose of taking action on the question of building a parsonage. The following resolution, was presented and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the trustees of the church be authorized to secure a lease of the Sherrerd home and lot for use as a parsonage during the coming year.

Resolved, That in accordance with action heretofore twice taken by the congregation after full discussion, the building committee be and is hereby directed to proceed to erect a parsonage on ground already obtained for the same, and for that purpose they be duly authorized to receive subscriptions, which, together with the money already on hand for the purpose, will be sufficient to erect the parsonage without debt.

The building committee of the church, to which is entrusted the work, is composed as follows: James Archbald, W. W. Scranton, W. F. Hallstead, A. H. Storrs, C. C. Matros, W. J. Hand and F. E. Platt.

The plans for the parsonage submitted by Architect L. C. Holden have virtually been adopted. They provide for a beautiful stone structure, to cost about $15,000, the details of which will be in perfect harmony with the church edifice, to be constructed as soon as the present property of the church on Washington avenue has been sold. The parsonage and the church, when completed, will occupy the elevated plot of ground at the corner of Madison avenue and Olive street, which the church has owned for some time, and which is known as the reservoir lot. The plans of the committee are to immediately proceed to secure the desired amount of money by subscription and to begin as soon as practicable the actual construction of the residence.

NOON WEDDING AT GREEN RIDGE.

Miss Rose Married to Dr. Lockard, of New York City.

At noon yesterday Miss Jessie Viola Rose, daughter of L. A. Rose, of Monsey street, was married to Dr. John Archbald Lockard, of New York city. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home by Rev. Charles E. Lee, of the Carbondale Presbyterian church. Miss Rose wore a dark green traveling costume.

After the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Lockard left for New York city. From there they will go on an extended wedding tour through Ohio and Illinois. They received many handsome and valuable presents.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Ladies' club that was to have been held last evening in the Young Women's Christian association rooms, was postponed on account of the anniversary meeting of the city Christian Endeavorers, held last evening in the Penn Avenue Baptist church. Instead of the programme that was to have been presented, an informal social gathering was held. The evening programme which was to have been given last night will be given Thursday evening, Feb. 18.

Miss Helen Brooks, the recently appointed college state secretary of the association, is visiting at the Keystone academy in Factoryville.

KEYSTONE ACADEMY TRUSTEES.

Met in Annual Session in This City Yesterday.

The trustees of the Keystone academy at Factoryville held their annual meeting yesterday morning in the Penn Avenue Baptist church. The president, Dr. D. A. Capwell, of this city, presided.

Officers were elected as follows: Dr. Capwell, president; vice presidents, Luther Keller, of Scranton, and Theodore Hart, of Pittston; secretary, E. M. Peck, of Carbondale; assistant secretary, George Sisson, of LaPlume; treasurer, A. H. Fassett.

It was announced that $20,000 had been subscribed pursuant to John Rockefeller's offer to contribute $10,000 to an endowment fund if $10,000 more was raised by the trustees. Mr. Rockefeller's original offer had been made for one year only, but he agreed to extend the time another when the partial success of the trustees was made known to him.

Rev. E. Hully, principal, presented a gratifying report of academy work, showing an increased enrollment of students, 150 of whom are now attending the school.

Resolutions of condolence were adopted on the deaths of S. C. Matthewson and Clarke Sisson, who were members of the board.

ALDERMANIC CASES.

Samuel Lesh was arrested yesterday, charged with stealing trees from the property of the Scranton Gas and Water company in Elmhurst. The company has been missing valuable fruit trees from its property for some time past and watchers were employed to detect the assuming parties. Lesh was caught chopping down an apple tree, and he is believed to be the person who is guilty of the former thefts. He was sent to the county jail in default of $500 bail by Alderman Howe, before whom the case was tried.

Constable Cole yesterday arrested a colored man named Melvin on a warrant sworn out at the instance of another colored man named Madison Brackett. The charges against Melvin were the allegation of the affections of Brackett's wife and the carrying of concealed weapons. The evidence adduced by the prosecutor proved insufficient, and the prisoner was discharged by Alderman Howe, who heard the case.

George Barber and William Spencer were arraigned before Alderman Howe yesterday charged with the larceny of a harness belonging to N. A. Shimer. There appears to have been some misunderstanding regarding the proprietorship of the harness and as the evidence was deemed insufficient the defendants were discharged.

Jennie Selzer, who resides at 59 Lackawanna avenue, and Joe Fitzer were before Alderman Millar yesterday afternoon and as a result both are now inmates of the county jail in default of $300 bail each. Fitzer caused a warrant to be sworn out for the arrest of the woman, charging her with stealing $5 from him. Before the alderman she charged Fitzer with assaulting her and caused his arrest on the charge of assault and battery.

DYNAMITE CASE.

Seven True Bills Were Found Against Wintersteen and Knorr at Bloomsburg Yesterday.

Bloomsburg, Pa., Feb. 2.—One of the most remarkable criminal cases in Pennsylvania was brought into court here today. On September 10 last an attempt was made to blow up the residence with dynamite of the Hon. Levi L. Waller, a prominent lawyer of this place. The attempt was traced to Clifton Knorr, a young man of good family, but of dissolute habits. Knorr confessed on his arrest that he had been hired by Lloyd S. Wintersteen, a lawyer prominent at the bar of this county, and interested in many business ventures, to blow up Mr. Waller's residence for the purpose of killing Mr. Waller and his family. Wintersteen was arrested and today the grand jury found seven true bills against Wintersteen and Knorr charging them with several forms of attempting to kill. A still more dastardly attempt at murder was confessed to by Knorr today. He made a confession that prior to the attempt to blow up Mr. Waller's family, that Wintersteen had induced him to attempt the assassination of Mr. Waller by shooting him. Knorr laid in wait for Waller, but the latter's life was saved by his unexpected departure from home. As if this was not enough, Knorr confessed to an attempt to kill his step-mother, Mrs. Knorr, and that too, by means that only the wildest of fictionists would have thought of. Knorr in his confession says that he twice attempted to poison his step-mother by putting poison in her tea, but each time, by a fortunate chance the attempt was frustrated. Then on the suggestion of Wintersteen, he wrote to a certain place in New York city and there procured the bacilli of diphtheria with the purpose of imparting the disease to his step-mother. When the bacilli arrived Knorr learned that the only way the disease could be imparted by this means was by inoculation. It was impossible for him to do this without his step-mother's knowledge, but in the hope that she would contract the disease anyhow he scattered the germs through her clothing.

All these attempts at murder, according to Knorr's confession arose from a business transaction in which Wintersteen was worsted by Mr. Waller and in which Mrs. Knorr had a financial interest. When the bills from the grand jury were returned to court today Frederick Ikeler, counsel for Wintersteen, asked for continuance until the May term of court. The prosecution wanted to know on what grounds the continuance was asked for, but Mr. Ikeler refused to state and his refusal was sustained by the court. Judge Ikeler, father of counsel for the defendant, and formerly an intimate friend of Wintersteen, was the sitting judge. On this account he telegraphed to Judge Metzgar, of Williamsport, to come here tomorrow and hear the argument for a continuance of the case.

BIG TASK THAT IS BEFORE COUNCILMEN

They Are Loath to Tackle the Annual Appropriation Ordinance.

HEARD IT READ LAST NIGHT

Then the Estimates Committee Adjourned Until Next Monday Night to Give the Members an Opportunity to Study the Problem in All of Its Details--Edward Wenzel, of Common Council, Chairman of the Committee.

The joint estimates committee of councils held its first meeting last night but did not accomplish anything toward cutting down the 1897 estimate ordinance to meet the anticipated revenue. After organizing an adjournment was taken until next Monday night.

There were present the following committeemen: From select council, Messrs. Ross, Clarke Manley and McCann; from common council, Messrs. Wenzel, Moir, S. Thomas, Noone and Gordon. The absentees were Selectmen Lansing and Williams.

Edward Wenzel, of common council, was chosen chairman. He was the only nominee.

City Clerk Lavelle read the appropriation ordinance and on his conclusion Mr. Noone moved an adjournment in order to give the members opportunity to study the ordinance. Mr. Moir objected, intimating that nothing could be gained by delay, that the members were as conversant with the different items as they could ever be. Mr. Manley took Mr. Noone's view of the matter, which, when voted upon, revealed a tie, which was broken by Chairman Wenzel's vote favoring adjournment.

The ordinance provides for the expenditures for general city purposes to the amount of $375,116.19, to meet which there is an estimated revenue from all sources of but $285,000, leaving $88,116.19 as the amount which the committee will have to cut out of the ordinance. Last year the total amount appropriated was $274,827, about $10,000 less than can be provided for this year.

SOUTH SIDE SEWER ORDINANCE.

Mayor Bailey Has Not Decided What He Will Do About It.

The Seventeenth district sewer ordinance was delivered to Mayor Bailey for his signature yesterday. He has until the 17th of this month to sign the measure. He stated to a Tribune reporter that he would take no action until he had ascertained what he believed to be the wishes of the majority of the residents of the three wards affected, the Eleventh, Twelfth and Nineteenth.

Mayor Bailey remarked that he should take into consideration the sanitary phase of the case and the question of money-saving as presented in the intended drainage of water from the streets in the area affected.

On Monday and yesterday a number of South Siders informally visited the mayor's office and had something to say concerning the sewer, without exception, they favored it. Several intimated that the opposition was not as general as was claimed and that much of it was prompted by certain residents on political grounds.

The opponents of the sewer will, however, have their innings after tonight when is to be held in St. John's hall on Stone avenue a citizens' mass meeting. There will be formulated a plan for procuring a petition to be signed by non-sewerites in the three wards and protesting against the proposed improvement. It will be presented to Mayor Bailey early next week.

O'BRIEN, THE CONTRACTOR.

Produced by Daniel Sully and Company at the Frothingham.

Daniel Sully presented his well known play, "O'Brien, the Contractor," at the Frothingham last night before a good sized audience. It was his second apearance in this city this season.

"O'Brien, the Contractor," is a drama with a strong vein of interest running through it and it enables Mr. Sully to make a good display of his original line of Irish character acting. A fairly good company supported him.

Savings Association Officers.

The third annual meeting of Scranton Branch of the Republic Savings and Loan association of New York took place at 4 p. m. at the office of their resident director, S. N. Callender, W. W. Lathrop, esq., presiding. There was a good attendance of members and considerable enthusiasm manifest in the selection of officers and directors for the ensuing year. Col. F. B. Case, jr., of New York, general manager of the association, was present and gave an account of the growth and prospect of the Republic. The treasurer reports that 13,500 shares have been sold to this branch, $70,000 loaned to members and $14,650 returned to withdrawing members, and that there was an increasing demand for loans. The following are the officers-elect: President, James M. Everhart; first vice president, James G. Bailey; second vice president, F. D. Bruster, M. D.; secretary and treasurer, S. N. Callender; attorneys, W. W. Watson, esq., W. S. Diehl, esq; appraisement committee, A. R. Raub, John Benore, M. T. Kellar, W. W. Youngs, M. M. Dewitt.

Little February.

Shortest month of all the year. Twenty-four days for shop going, 4 for church going. Yet we want to do more business than last month, when we had three days more. February's called a bad business month, too. Still we must beat January. Know why? Every month in the new store has been better than the preceding one. And we don't propose to slump in February just because it's a bit shorter. A few more dollars every day will soon make up the three days we lose. Here's the business bringing prices that will save the day:

Carving Sets 50 sets of carving sets, marked for a quick good bye. Hand forged steel blades, with ebonized handles, 3 pieces in a set and the steel in every piece all that steel should be.
Carving Sets that cut, 50c. a set.

Novels We've concluded these take up too much space, so we close out all we've left. They're all good, copyrighted novels, by best authors. Good print and good paper; 25 cents apiece the bookstore charge you. These are to go at 4 for a quarter,
Four Good Novels for 25c.

Writing Paper In boxes. Pretty fair paper, too. Not nice enough for the over fastidious, but good enough for ordinary correspondence. 20 sheets and 20 envelopes in a box.
200 Boxes go on sale today at 5c each

A Piano An interesting surgical operation is the cutting off of more than half the value of an upright piano. Touch and tone are unexcelled. Been used? Yes, a little. You'd never know it if we hadn't told you. The little stump of price left is only $110. Not much for a first-class upright piano, is it?

Gas Globes How you've been robbed in buying glass shades for the chandelier. It nearly broke your heart every time you heard one crack, because you knew how you'd have to pay to replace it. Now we've bought some at right prices. Wide flaring tops that the gas can't crack if it is turned a little high. And we've turned the price down
So very low, 19c. each.

Fancy Photo Frames Silver plated frames, for cabinet photos. Warranted not to tarnish. The silver plating is covered with some secret preparation that protects it from the action of the air. Service and beauty at the extreme littleness of price,
19c. each today.

Sterling Pocket Knives Two blades of good quality set in a sterling silver handle. These are part of the Wright stock, and $1.00 is what he sold them for.
Yours today for 38c. each.

Writing Paper Paper by the pound in original packages. It's so much cheaper to buy it this way. If once you'd try it you'd always buy your paper by the pound. Two qualities, four kinds.
Congress Note, 10c. a pound. 120 sheets to the pound.
White Wove, Cream Laid, Royal Velvet and Linen, 19c. a pound. 168 sheets.

Envelopes A special lot of XXX envelopes to go today at 3c. a bunch of 25. And they're not thin trash either, but good, strong, well gummed envelopes.

School Pads A special good thing in school pads. Good paper. You can write on it with ink. A good five-center, but Today they're only 3c. each.
