SKATED ON THIN ICE.

One Young Woman Dies from Shock and a Second Very Ill. Dolansville, Pa., Feb. 2.—Miss Eva Gardner, a pretty 19-year-old girl of this town lost her life while skating on the pond at this place on Monday. She was skating with a crowd when the two young women left the others and went about 100 yards on the pond. Soon the other skaters heard cries of distress and saw some one struggling to fall through the thin ice. A party of men went after them as soon as possible. A boat was pushed out on the thin ice and the young woman, both apparently unconscious, were brought to shore. However, the girl had already succumbed, but Miss Gardner was afterwards revived but is suffering from shock.

RIOTERS OVERPOWER POLICE.

The Military Called Out to Quell a Spanish Mob. Madrid, Feb. 2.—Most of the workingmen at Azafrán in New Castile, twenty-eight miles south of Madrid, went on strike today and began marching through the streets. The crowd quickly assembled around the town hall, and the mob began to break down a number of windows. The police charged the mob and arrested a number of the rioters, including several women, but in the end the crowd proved too strong for the police, who had to retreat. The rioters were dispersed by the military. Soldiers are now patrolling the streets.

BILLY BRYAN GROWS FUNNY.

Expresses Contempt for Mr. Gage's Views on the Currency. Galveston, Tex., Feb. 2.—In regard to the published statement of Lyman J. Gage's views on the currency, William J. Bryan said today: "Mr. Gage is a dandy. Greenbacks should, he says, be retired and silver purchased under the Sherman act should be sold and treasury notes redeemed and cancelled. Then we ought to have bank notes that are redeemable only in gold. And he says that the government should not act as a warehouse for other gold or silver. There is no doubt about Mr. Gage being a dandy. I wonder if he wouldn't like to inaugurate a system by which we would have doctors start in the morning, each morning to live through the day."
