ROBBINS-BONHAM WEDDING.

A Well-Known Couple Joined in Matrimony at New York on Jan. 21. Jackson J. Robbins, proprietor of the Robbins feed and flour mill on Eighth street, and M. E. Bonham, of South Main avenue, were married on January 21 at New York city by the Rev. Mr. Randolph, of that place. This announcement—the first that has been made—will be interesting news to the many friends in our city concerned.

MR. STETTER'S ANNIVERSARY. Frank Stetter, proprietor of the Stetter house on North Main avenue, attending his sixty-first birthday on Tuesday, Mr. Stetter has lived in this country for 32 years after spending a few years in New York city, where he served as apprentice to a baker, came to Scranton and located on the West Side. Since then he has conducted a bakery in connection with his home. He is one of the oldest and most successful business men on the West Side. In commemoration of his birthday Bauer's band tendered him a surprise Tuesday night in a serenade, making the house hall resound with the strains of the "Wizard of the Nile," "El Capitain," "Germans Before Paris," and "About Town," and others. Mr. Stetter has been an honorary member of the Bauer organization from its existence, and always a liberal supporter to its treasury. The members were treated in a most hospitable manner, to refreshments and cigars. Supper was served at midnight which ended a most pleasant event.

ANOTHER FISH THEFT. A stubby man, red-mustached, with tumbling hair and clothing and a suggestion of whiskey surrounding the whole, was passing Reese's grocery store on South Main avenue last evening and as he jogged along he picked up a keg of herring from in front of the store. He was captured twenty yards further down the street. When questioned concerning the theft he said: "I was hungry." Mr. Reese had the man locked up and a herring court will be given this evening. Tuesday night Mr. Reese missed five ten-pound cans of jelly from the front of his store. The man who stole the fish is known by the name of "Fisgon McGuire." He is from Wilkes-Barre and is wanted by the authorities of that city for larceny. A constable, deputized by Alderman Davidson, arrived here from Wilkes-Barre for the purpose of taking McGuire back with him. It is not yet decided whether Fisgon will be held on the "fish" charge or handed over to the Wilkes-Barre police.

FIRST FIGHT OVER WITH. The Polish wedding on Everett avenue is still in progress. Yesterday morning there was a big fight in the house. A gang of young men from the Keyser valley riding in their cars out of carousal and a free-for-all battle resulted. One fellow, Welsh, by name, was kicked in the face and the fellow who did the kicking sustained a gash over his eye. Officers Hodge and Barry were stationed in the house during the morning. They had all they could do to prevent knife sticking. The wedding festivities will continue until Saturday night.

PELL FROM A SCAFFOLDING. Fred Crawford, a carpenter, whose home is on Pine street, fell thirty feet from a scaffolding on a house on Washburn street yesterday morning and was badly injured. He was taken to his home. The injuries are chiefly about the leg and arm being badly cut and bruised. Crawford is a middle aged man and has a family.

THE ELITE CLASS SOCIAL. The forthcoming elite class social on February 18 is the cause of much delightful anticipation on the part of our young society people. The social will be held in Moore's hall and the music for dance will be furnished by Bauer. Invitations have been sent to a large number of our dance lovers.

HURT IN THE MINES. Will James, of Eynon street, had his left leg injured yesterday afternoon in the Bellocut mine. James is a runner in the mine. He was on a run away trip and his knee was squeezed between the bumpers of two cars.
