EVENING OF ELOCUTION.

First Meeting of the High School Literary Society. The High School Literary society gave their first entertainment on Tuesday evening. A constitution and by-laws were submitted to the committee and some general business was transacted. Then followed a programme previously arranged. An address was given by Professor C. M. Lusher, followed by a banjo solo by Miss May Gannon. The subject of debate was as follows: "Resolved, that steam is of more benefit to mankind than electricity." The affirmative of the question was argued by Misses Mary Cavanaugh and Meeta Kenworthy and by Fred Art. The negative was upheld by Miss Millie Moran, Herther Dix and Albert Estabrook. Miss Mary Drennan gave a pleasing recitation. The society adjourned to meet next Tuesday evening.

SHORTAGE IN ACCOUNTS.

Collector for Armour Company Charged with Embezzlement. Constable Neary placed a young man named Kee under arrest yesterday charged by the Armour company with shortage in his returns of $28. The warrant was issued on a charge of embezzlement made by one representing the Surety company which furnished his bond. He was taken to Scranton yesterday afternoon. He is a man of pleasing manners and has been living beyond his income.

Injured by Fall of Coal. Thomas Lewis was seriously injured at the Wilson Creek mine yesterday by a fall of coal from the roof. A large quantity fell on him. He was removed to his home where Dr. F. E. Jenkins found several serious scalp wounds and also injuries to the back. It is thought that he will recover.

Brakeman Injured. Reed Fowler, a brakeman on the Delaware and Hudson, received a bad sprain and cut upon his wrist yesterday morning while running over the top of the cars he stepped and fell into the coal pit. Dr. Thompson dressed the wound.

In the city. Sergmund Kirzsch will occupy the place when finished. John J. O'Neill, head salesman for J. B. Shannon & Co., is ill at his home on Battle avenue. Conductor Vincent Swingle, of the Delaware and Hudson, is seriously ill. The Mitchell Hose company has nominated the following officers who will be elected next meeting: For president and foreman, J. H. Kelly and Thomas Herbert.

Miss Rachel Breckstein, of Honesdale, who has been the guest of Mrs. Jonas Stone, has returned home. Mrs. Ann Bereson and daughter, Mrs. John Cleveland, of Topeka, Kan., who were called to this city by the death of David Jones, have returned to their home. The Cycle club are considering the advisability of moving from their present quarters and locating in the rooms above the Miners' and Mechanics' bank. A special meeting will be held in which the matter will be discussed.

George Kubina, the lad recently in the employ of Dr. H. C. Wheeler, has been fortunate in securing a situation with a large shoe manufacturing firm in Connecticut and left for that place Tuesday evening. George is a Hungarian and speaks four languages, English, French, Italian and Hungarian. The firm which has employed him do a large business with the latter class of people and George will act as an interpreter.

The Delaware and Hudson company have discontinued running trains through to Oneonta, N. Y., from Carbondale. The last trains which were run through was Saturday last. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Lewsley entertained in honor of their guests, Miss Anna Wilcox, of Nineveh, N. Y.; H. W. Crocker, Miss Fannie Crocker and Miss Annie Bordell, of Scranton.

The friends of Isaac Levene will be glad to hear that he has been acquitted of attempted larceny by bailie preferred by E. D. Vosburg, of Binghamton. It was proved by Mr. Levene that the goods were purchased on credit and not held in bailment.

TAYLOR.

A surprise party was tendered to Mr. William H. Nicholas on Tuesday evening at his home on Washington street by his young friends. Mr. Nicholas, although taken by surprise, made the evening as pleasant as possible for the young people. Games and other amusements were the features of the evening until a late hour, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Mary Ann Nicholas, Martha Griffiths, Lydia Hoskins, Susie Powell, Ellen Evans, Annie Mary Jenkins, Bertha Davis, Lizzie Jenkins, Sarah Hughes, Maggie Davis, Charty Mitchell, Annie Jones, Sarah Ann Evans, Janet Thomas, Mary Jane Thomas, Mary Robbins, Annie and Louisa Williams, Mary Jane Bevan, Jennie Howells, Hannah Williams, and Messrs. George Williams, William J. Hoskins, William H. Nicholas, David R. Davis, David Reese, John Morris, Reese Lewis, Henry Lloyd, M. Davis, Morgan Marsh, Bayard Griffiths, David J. Davis, John Jones, Robert Davis, Jenkin Reynolds and Edwin White. Jack M. Thomas, the popular mine foreman of the Pyne mines, has been promoted to the Storr's mine. Mr. Thomas has been foreman of the Pyne mines for a number of years and will be greatly missed by his fellow workmen.

TUNKHANNOCK.

The Young Ladies' Shakespeare club met with Miss Carrie Graham last evening. The club are reading "Much Ado About Nothing" and enjoyable evenings are reported. Mr. E. E. Mintzer is home again, having finished his business course at Wyoming university. The oratorical contest of the Tunkhanock high school will be held in Platt's opera house Monday, Feb. 22. Miss Agnes Stark, who went to Allentown a few weeks ago for her health, is reported much better. Special revival services are being held in the Methodist Episcopal church this week. Rev. J. C. Leacock, Rev. Westlake and Rev. J. E. Sumner, the joint services, are taking charge of the meetings. Dr. John Cortright, of Scranton, is visiting Tunkhanock friends. Jacob Milhouser and son, of Pittston, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Louis H. H. White. A letter from W. A. Kittredge, who is in Whitehall, N. Y., states that the thermometer registered 18 degrees below zero on Monday morning. The Presbyterian club met in the church parlors Friday evening. This club is becoming very popular and "is free for all." If the Baby is Cutting Teeth. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and call for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD

One week from next Tuesday the citizens of Jermyrn will have the chance to ballot for their favorite nominee, and all citizens who are interested in the welfare of the borough will not fail to come out to the polls on that day and do their utmost. It is their duty to do so and elect just and good men, as those filling public office are really the servants of the people. Those interested in the Republican party feel they have selected their right man, while the Democrats feel the same. Although there are three borough tickets in the field, still there are but two aspirants for each office, with the exception of tax collector. For this office there are three aspirants and it is imagined the fight will center on this office. It was rumored by some that Mr. Sullivan would withdraw, leaving the field open to Jay and Sampson, but Mr. Sullivan has denied such, and says he will remain in the fight until the finish. His remaining in the fight for collector changes the aspect, and it is a hard matter for any one even to form an opinion as to which of them has the largest pull. In political circles in the village it is well for each of the parties to gather their forces and stand ready for the advance of the enemy, and as politicians are not exempt from scheming, it might be well to remain on the alert. The Republican party is almost always had a majority and it will be very strange if they allow the opposite party to break into their ranks and capture the prizes, but there is very little doubt as to that being the case.

Yesterday afternoon a very interesting shooting match took place on the East Side. The contestants were John Stiles and William McDemott. They each had five birds. McDemott shot two and Stiles succeeded in shooting the five.

Mrs. Alfred Butterworth, who has been visiting her mother in Pittston for the past month, returned last evening. Mr. John Cox, the North Main street tonsorial artist, is visiting in Tamaqua. Mrs. James Timlin, Mrs. George Baker and Misses Mary Gannon and Mary McDemott, who have been sojourning at the Bruce family, have secured $115.85. Master Joseph Meehan, of Mayfield, entertained a number of his friends on Monday evening in honor of his ninth birthday. Those present were: Celia Brady, Alice McAllister, Julia, Mammie and Annie Green, Clara and Clara Neary, Gertrude Edmunds, Lizzie Farrell, Bina Swingle, Mammie Walker and Lizzie McQuadrick; Masters John Green, George James and Eddie Edmunds, John Brady, Thomas Lally, Robbie and Willie O'Brien.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Luke O'Brien, of Avoca, held a very happy reunion at the home of the son, Mine Foreman O'Brien, on Second street, on Tuesday. They attended a reception at St. Rose church, Carbondale, at which a number of young ladies were admitted to the convent. Among those to take the final vows was Miss Mary O'Brien, daughter of Mr. O'Brien. The members of the family present were: Mr. and Mrs. Luke O'Brien, sr., Mr. and Mrs. Luke O'Brien, jr., and daughter, Mrs. Patrick O'Brien, Miss B. O'Brien, Mrs. Kearns and Miss Ward, all of Avoca, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien, of this place.

The school board met Tuesday evening in regular session. Mr. A. C. Carbondale, was present, and stated he was selling a dustless oil to put on floors, which was a microbe killer, an enemy to dust of all descriptions, and a protection to children and walls. The cost of this oil is five dollars a barrel. The board gave Mr. Moses the privilege to place it on one platform to see how it works. The following bills were ordered paid: Eagan & O'Donnell, $25; Dr. S. D. Davis, $22; Henry Soly, for twenty-five dollars of coal drawn during January, $29.95; Ernest Boward, day's work, $1.50; Water company, $8.00. A motion was made and carried to the effect that all books, which have been in families afflicted with diphtheria, be destroyed. The school will continue another month. After some other business the meeting adjourned.

Yesterday the 11-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hall, of Third street, died of bronchitis. Burialment will be made in Calvary cemetery this afternoon.

High Constable Herbert Smith made a business trip to Scranton yesterday. Postmaster Bergan, of Mayfield, was a Scranton caller yesterday. Miss Hattie Hollenback, of Moosic, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Edward Waters, of Bacon street, returned home yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholson, of Carbondale, spent yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. James Nicholson, of South Main street. James Rennie, of Scranton, spent yesterday with friends in town. Misses Sadie Timlin, Sallie Thomas visited friends in Scranton yesterday. Yesterday, while George Pedrick, jr., teamster for Green & Morris, was delivering goods, the horse which he was driving ran away. Mr. Pedrick had just left the wagon when the horse became frightened and started in a gallop, and ran up Main street to Walter's Meat market, at which point he was stopped. No particular damage was done.

County Superintendent J. C. Taylor was in town on Tuesday, and made a professional call at the High school. The Rev. W. P. Davis, of Providence, preached an eloquent sermon at the Welsh Baptist church, Mayfield, last evening. Last evening a warrant was issued and served upon Asa Curly at the instance of William Williams. The charge was that Curly did assault and threaten said defendant, and that he is afraid defendant will do him harm in body or estate. In the defendant's appearance and bail being given the case was adjourned. Mr. George Merritt will open a meat market in Mayfield, in the building vacated by Savers Brothers, the butchers, who recently moved to Scranton. The men who were working for C. L. Bell were paid yesterday ninety cents on the dollar. The reason for accepting the ninety cents on dollar was for immediate settlement. Eight labor claims were placed after the sheriff's sale and were not allowed.

Arthur, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baufeld, who has been visiting relatives in Scranton for the past three months, returned home yesterday. The political situation in Mayfield waxed warmer as the campaign grows older and what a few weeks ago seemed like a spiritless and lethargic campaign has, since the caucuses, developed into one of unusual interest and activity. Both parties have nominated fairly good tickets and as there seems to be a disposition in some quarters to "relegate the powers that be" the result will be awaited with much interest. The recently organized Euchre club, held an interesting session at the Timlin residence on Main street Tuesday evening.

ing. One of the features of the meeting was a contest for a prize with Mammie Timlin and W. L. McLaughlin on one side and Annie Walker and Thomas Morgan on the other. It was decided to play a series of five games, but Miss Timlin's side winning three of the first four games played, were declared winners with a total of 35 points to their opponents' 15. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Walker on next Tuesday evening. Miss Annie Dowling, of Scranton, is visiting at Walkers on Main street.

WAWERLY.

Hon. N. C. Mackey is at Harrisburg. Mr. Jesse E. Case is seriously ill at his home. Mr. Burt Klees, of Scranton, who is recovering from an operation performed for appendicitis, is here recuperating. W. D. Spencer, as administrator of the late Pardon Corley estate, as guardian of his children, has succeeded in placing the two boys, Verney and Willie, in the Hartford school.

Last Friday afternoon congregation of the African Methodist Episcopal church met at the parsonage and presented their pastor, Rev. J. W. Brown, their annual donation, which amounted to a very handsome sum of money. Pastor Brown wishes to thank all the friends who so kindly and liberally contributed thereto. News items for publication in the Scranton Tribune should be left at Mr. Taylor's office, 115 Washington Ave. Mrs. Andrew Bedford, of Scranton, was a visitor here last Tuesday. Mr. A. J. Smith is confined to his room and bed by a severe cold. The formal opening of the Waverly school will take place tomorrow (Friday) afternoon. From 1 to 2 o'clock the school will be open for public inspection to which everybody is invited. At 2 o'clock the formal exercises will take place. County Superintendent J. C. Taylor will deliver an address, followed by the former principal, N. S. Davis. Rev. S. S. Kennedy will give a history of Madison academy, from its commencement fifty years ago up to the present day. A. J. Colborn, jr., of Scranton, on the part of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, will present the school with a steel engraving of George Washington. Rev. E. Hulley, of Keystone academy, will deliver the address of the day. The commercial and business class of the school is making good progress under the able teaching of Professor E. C. Hanzen. Any persons desiring to take this course should apply at once to the principal of the school.

At a citizens caucus held at the band room the following citizens received nominations: For burgess, Sterling Bedford; school directors, A. B. Cowles, J. L. Stone, Arthur D. Dean, Dr. J. P. Cully; council, Julius Sherman, D. L. Doty, Frank Jennings; tax collector, W. G. Letson; auditor, John W. Mershon; Judge of election, E. G. Carpenter; inspector of election, Sam W. Hall, H. B. Miller.

HONESDALE.

The lecture by Rev. Charles Lelz, which was to have been delivered in the town hall Feb. 2, has been postponed until Tuesday evening, Feb. 9. The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church will hold a social in the chapel Friday evening, Feb. 5. Word comes from Mr. W. E. Holmes that Miss Laisy is gradually failing in health. Revival meetings still continue in the Baptist and Methodist churches and many have manifested a desire to live a Christian life.

PRICEBURG.

It has been falsely rumored that the Priceburg Social and Dancing class was to break-up on last Monday evening. The class will meet as usual in Scranton's hall next Monday evening and Manager McLaughlin and Kane have so arranged as to have Professor James Walsh take charge of the class. James W. O'Brien, of Olyphant, was a caller in town yesterday. Miss Anna Shokowski, of this place, and Walter Gotski, of Jermyrn, were married in the Polish Catholic church Tuesday morning by Rev. Iwanowski. After the ceremony the couple and merry party marched to Smith's music hall where the peculiar Polish festivities were held. The corner of Main street and Snyder avenue, is still in the same deplorable condition. Our council should have a crosswalk laid at this corner as soon as possible.

NICHOLSON.

Attorney S. L. Tiffany is in Pottsville, Pa., on legal business, where he will be held in custody. Mrs. Philander Bell is in Foster with her brother, Solomon Bell's family, assisting in the care of their son who is very ill with typhoid fever. William F. Shield moved his family from Scrantonville to his place last Tuesday and they now occupy the house vacated by Benjamin Pedrick. Rev. Dwight Waterbury's mother and sister, of New York state, are spending a few weeks with him. The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church met at the opera house.
