

CARBONDALE.

Readers will please note that advertisements for job work, and items for publication left at the establishment of Shannon & Co., newsdealers, North Main street, will receive attention; office open from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m.)

ANDREWS' RAID.

The Proposed Entertainment by Knights of Pythias.

A very interesting entertainment will be given on the 16th and 17th of this month at the Academy of Music by the local lodge Knights of Pythias. The entertainment will be an illustration of "Andrew's Raid in 1862." It will be descriptive of a memorable event in the war when twenty-two Union soldiers stole a train from the Southern army and escaped with their prize, though several were afterward captured and shot.

Stereoscopic views, illustrating the incident, will be given and a lecture by J. W. Knight, who rode the locomotive, will be delivered. The entertainment is said to be one of remarkable interest.

G. M. PATTERSON INJURED.

He Falls in a Punt at the Union Depot.

As ex-Councilman G. M. Patterson was about to take the cars for Forest City yesterday morning, he was seized by an attack of fainting. Before his friends could reach him he fell forward, striking his head upon one of the trucks. A severe concussion was the result and the wound bled profusely.

He was taken to his home on Lincoln avenue, but his injuries will not prove serious. It will be some days however before his health and strength will be restored.

Tenth Anniversary.

A committee of Branch 39, Catholic Mutual Benevolent association, are making arrangements to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the society on the 27th of this month. The membership is so large that a banquet may not be considered desirable, but a more informal celebration be arranged instead. The committee will report at the next meeting when definite plans will be arranged.

House-Warming Entertainment.

About fifty of their friends were entertained on Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wisole at their handsome new residence on Hospital street. The company were guests of their daughters, Misses Sadie and Gertrude. Music for dancing was furnished by Professor Wagner's orchestra. Refreshments were served, and a delightful season was enjoyed by all.

Revised Meetings at Methodist Church.

Large congregations have welcomed Evangelist Walker of the Methodist church each week on Wednesday. It is thought that much interest will be awakened by his plain, practical, earnest appeals. His sermons are logical and powerful and treat of the great essentials of the gospel.

Meeting of the Poor Board.

On Wednesday evening a special meeting of the local poor board was held. The board will at once advertise for bids for the services of a steward and matron for the poor house for the year beginning April 1. But little business was transacted before adjourning.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NOTES.

The many friends of Harry Skeels, who is now at Hot Springs, will be glad to hear that his health is greatly improved.

Miss Ida Reese, who suffered from blood poisoning, is much improved in health.

Miss Sadie and Gertrude Wisley entertained friends at their new home on Cliff street Wednesday evening. With dancing and social recreations a pleasant season was enjoyed.

The members of the Welsh Methodist congregation are preparing for their annual festival in March. An effort will be made to have it surpass all previous occasions of the kind.

Conductor Vincent Swinge, of the Delaware and Hudson, is seriously ill. John J. O'Neill, head salesman for J. B. Sherman & Co., is ill at his home on Battle avenue.

The Young Ladies' Cooking club will meet on Friday afternoon with Mrs. T. L. McMillan, of Salem avenue. Lawrence Burke, of Onondaga, is visiting friends in this city.

Professor and Mrs. E. E. Pitts, of Scranton, were visiting friends in this city yesterday.

Mrs. Mattie Hughes-Brown, who has been visiting her parents for several weeks, returns to New York on Saturday.

Miss Lillian Baker leaves today for Brooklyn, N. Y., for a visit with friends.

Dr. H. C. Wheeler gave an address to the nurses at the hospital last evening on "The Circulation and the Blood." Miss Maggie Bowell, of Herrick Centre, called on friends in this city yesterday.

Matthew McNally, who was struck by a Delaware and Hudson engine at Vandenberg last Friday and taken to Emer-

Easy to Take Easy to Operate Hood's Pills

Annual Inventory Sale CARPETS.

We have concluded our annual inventory of stock and find we have a great many desirable lengths that we will close out at much less than cost, to make room for our spring goods that we are receiving daily. Bring the size of your room along with you if in need of a carpet and we will guarantee you a bargain, as this is no humbug sale. A word as to our third annual remnant sale, we have some of the lengths that we will close out at half-price. Some of them, as this sale lasts only for ten days.

J. SCOTT INGLIS, Carpets, Wall Papers and Draperies, 419 LACKAWANNA AVENUE.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Miss Elizabeth Ronch, the popular bookkeeper at C. D. Simpson & Co.'s store, is visiting friends in Honolua, C. J. Holmes, of Scranton, was a caller in town yesterday.

The Jermyn Ice company are busily engaged filling their ice house. They have a capacity of storing 1,000 tons of ice and will be on hand furnishing this article during the sweltering heat of summer.

Armin Battenburg made a business trip to Scranton yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nicholson, of Pittsburg, are visiting relatives in town.

Miss Julia Gill visited friends in Carbondale yesterday afternoon. C. L. Bell made a business trip to Vandling yesterday.

A merry crowd gathered at the Delaware and Hudson depot yesterday afternoon. Upon inquiry it was found they were going to spend the evening at the home of Edward Jermyn, in Scranton. The gathering comprised the employees of the Jermyn Milling company, of which Mr. Jermyn is manager. Those attending were: William Rawling, Calvin Yall, James Shields, J. Henry Wheeler, Frank Maynard, Louis Pizer, William Winter and John F. Loughney. It is unnecessary to say they spent an enjoyable evening, as the entertaining qualities of Mr. Jermyn are well known.

Until further notice the Delaware and Hudson colliers will work one-half day and three-fourth day alternately.

Miss Ida Carpenter, of Priebeburg, is visiting at the home of her uncle, Curtis E. Helmick.

Miss Mary Price, of Scranton, is visiting at the home of Thomas Frynn, on Second street.

On Wednesday evening the Christian Endeavor society of the Baptist church and friends, will observe the anniversary of the society at the home of Jacob J. Kresge and enjoyed a very pleasant time.

The suit which was held in Dr. E. Helmes' office on Wednesday, and which was adjourned until last evening was settled, the defendant paying the costs.

Mrs. Whitlock is quite sick at her home on Fourth street.

Miss Clara Davis entertained a number of her friends at her home on Second street last evening.

Thomas Reimb, who has been suffering from the grip for some days, is now much better.

Frank Helmerlight has purchased the house occupied by Alonzo Darrow adjoining the planning mill from James L. Crawford, of Scranton. Consideration, $1,300.

Dr. S. D. Baker and Clarence Blakeslee went to Carbondale to play whist with the crack players of Carbondale.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Jenkins, who is employed as an driver at Keystone, was mortally injured yesterday morning. While riding a mule from the barn to the mines he was thrown, striking his head against a piece of ice, which caused a scalp wound five inches long on the back of the head. Dr. Shields was called and sewed the wound together.

Jesse, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, of Third street, is quite sick.

Miss Florence Maines, who has been visiting her aunt in Priebeburg, returned home yesterday.

Miss Edith Vest, of Main street, is visiting at her home in Priebeburg.

The board of health met Wednesday evening at the office of the secretary, Dr. S. D. Baker. The report for the past year was given by school workers generally. B. W. Pense is editor and Fred Lamb, Jr., business manager. It is a meritorious publication and deserves success.

M. P. Currier is in Hackettstown, N. J. Timothy Shannon, who has been ill, is recovering.

Philo McDonald had the misfortune to fall and sprain an ankle on Monday.

Mrs. C. L. Rosecrants, of Sherman, is visiting in town.

Mrs. W. K. Hatch has done a great deal towards liquidating the debt on the new Presbyterian church building in this place. Last year she collected in small amounts the sum of $10,223.

Mrs. W. W. Adams has been the guest of friends in this place this week.

W. W. Adams was in Binghamton on Tuesday. He met the advance agent of the Canadian Jubilee singers and made arrangements to have them give a concert in the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association hall on Tuesday evening, March 2.

H. S. Jamison has moved his household goods in the Jacobs building on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Trowbridge visited friends and relatives in Scranton and Danville this week.

Mrs. M. J. Cooligan has returned to Scranton.

C. C. Depart, of Dover, N. J., is in town.

The concert Monday evening by Nicholson musicians, given in the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association hall, was a success. A collection amounting to about $20 was taken. It will be used in the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association library of this place.

Miss Alice Burlough, of Binghamton, N. Y., has been the guest of the Misses Summerton, on Main street, this week.

The members of the Baptist church of this place will give their pastor, Rev. John Davis, a donation on Thursday, Feb. 12.

F. W. Swigert, of Carbondale, has taken a position in the Herald office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Seymour, of Hancock, are visiting at the home of Edward Sande, on Dulois street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McLoud were in Elmira on Wednesday.

Mrs. George Dewey, of Binghamton, visited her sister, Mrs. George Lamb, the first of this week.

The people of this place will have the pleasure of listening to Hugh McLean, of Bellefonte, Pa., who will address the people of this place on Wednesday evening, Feb. 12.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Miss Elizabeth Ronch, the popular bookkeeper at C. D. Simpson & Co.'s store, is visiting friends in Honolua, C. J. Holmes, of Scranton, was a caller in town yesterday.

The Jermyn Ice company are busily engaged filling their ice house. They have a capacity of storing 1,000 tons of ice and will be on hand furnishing this article during the sweltering heat of summer.

Armin Battenburg made a business trip to Scranton yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nicholson, of Pittsburg, are visiting relatives in town.

Miss Julia Gill visited friends in Carbondale yesterday afternoon. C. L. Bell made a business trip to Vandling yesterday.

A merry crowd gathered at the Delaware and Hudson depot yesterday afternoon. Upon inquiry it was found they were going to spend the evening at the home of Edward Jermyn, in Scranton. The gathering comprised the employees of the Jermyn Milling company, of which Mr. Jermyn is manager. Those attending were: William Rawling, Calvin Yall, James Shields, J. Henry Wheeler, Frank Maynard, Louis Pizer, William Winter and John F. Loughney. It is unnecessary to say they spent an enjoyable evening, as the entertaining qualities of Mr. Jermyn are well known.

Until further notice the Delaware and Hudson colliers will work one-half day and three-fourth day alternately.

Miss Ida Carpenter, of Priebeburg, is visiting at the home of her uncle, Curtis E. Helmick.

Miss Mary Price, of Scranton, is visiting at the home of Thomas Frynn, on Second street.

On Wednesday evening the Christian Endeavor society of the Baptist church and friends, will observe the anniversary of the society at the home of Jacob J. Kresge and enjoyed a very pleasant time.

The suit which was held in Dr. E. Helmes' office on Wednesday, and which was adjourned until last evening was settled, the defendant paying the costs.

Mrs. Whitlock is quite sick at her home on Fourth street.

Miss Clara Davis entertained a number of her friends at her home on Second street last evening.

Thomas Reimb, who has been suffering from the grip for some days, is now much better.

Frank Helmerlight has purchased the house occupied by Alonzo Darrow adjoining the planning mill from James L. Crawford, of Scranton. Consideration, $1,300.

Dr. S. D. Baker and Clarence Blakeslee went to Carbondale to play whist with the crack players of Carbondale.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Jenkins, who is employed as an driver at Keystone, was mortally injured yesterday morning. While riding a mule from the barn to the mines he was thrown, striking his head against a piece of ice, which caused a scalp wound five inches long on the back of the head. Dr. Shields was called and sewed the wound together.

Jesse, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, of Third street, is quite sick.

Miss Florence Maines, who has been visiting her aunt in Priebeburg, returned home yesterday.

Miss Edith Vest, of Main street, is visiting at her home in Priebeburg.

The board of health met Wednesday evening at the office of the secretary, Dr. S. D. Baker. The report for the past year was given by school workers generally. B. W. Pense is editor and Fred Lamb, Jr., business manager. It is a meritorious publication and deserves success.

M. P. Currier is in Hackettstown, N. J. Timothy Shannon, who has been ill, is recovering.

Philo McDonald had the misfortune to fall and sprain an ankle on Monday.

Mrs. C. L. Rosecrants, of Sherman, is visiting in town.

Mrs. W. K. Hatch has done a great deal towards liquidating the debt on the new Presbyterian church building in this place. Last year she collected in small amounts the sum of $10,223.

Mrs. W. W. Adams has been the guest of friends in this place this week.

W. W. Adams was in Binghamton on Tuesday. He met the advance agent of the Canadian Jubilee singers and made arrangements to have them give a concert in the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association hall on Tuesday evening, March 2.

H. S. Jamison has moved his household goods in the Jacobs building on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Trowbridge visited friends and relatives in Scranton and Danville this week.

Mrs. M. J. Cooligan has returned to Scranton.

C. C. Depart, of Dover, N. J., is in town.

The concert Monday evening by Nicholson musicians, given in the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association hall, was a success. A collection amounting to about $20 was taken. It will be used in the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association library of this place.

Miss Alice Burlough, of Binghamton, N. Y., has been the guest of the Misses Summerton, on Main street, this week.

The members of the Baptist church of this place will give their pastor, Rev. John Davis, a donation on Thursday, Feb. 12.

F. W. Swigert, of Carbondale, has taken a position in the Herald office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Seymour, of Hancock, are visiting at the home of Edward Sande, on Dulois street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McLoud were in Elmira on Wednesday.

Mrs. George Dewey, of Binghamton, visited her sister, Mrs. George Lamb, the first of this week.

The people of this place will have the pleasure of listening to Hugh McLean, of Bellefonte, Pa., who will address the people of this place on Wednesday evening, Feb. 12.

OLYMPIANT.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The funeral of Master George Watkinson took place yesterday afternoon. The scene was most beautiful. The Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank Howell, John Robbins and Lazarus Williams. Interment was made in Marry cemetery.

The Club of 36 rooms contained a delightful and interesting Wednesday evening when the members of the club and their invited guests assembled to do honor to one of their number, Mr. Frank Farrell, who was recently married to Miss Jessie Marie, of Chicago. At 5 o'clock the Primitive Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Van Hoesen. The pall-bearers were Benjamin Hiddely, Frank