Brief Mention of What Is Doing in the Pleasure Way.

OPENING OF THE SCRANTON CLUB

Will Take Place Some Evening in the Week Following the Annual Election on Saturday, Feb. 20 -- Members Will Invite Their Families and Friends--News of a Personal Kind.

Arrangements for the opening of the rooms of the Scranton club were for-warded at a meeting of the directors yesterday afternoon at the office of Colonel H. M. Boies. On Saturday evening, February 20, the annual meeting and election will be held in the club rooms. A lunch will follow. The formal opening, however, will not take place until one of the evenings of the week following when a reception will be held for members and their friends and families. A supper will be served, On that occasion the board of trade rooms on the eighth floor will be utilized. George O'Neill, the steward, is here and in charge of the work of atranging the rooms. He was formerly steward of the Sewanaka Yacht club, of New York city. There is no doubt that everything will be in place on the opening night. The house committee is being complimented on all sides for its splendid work and good taste displayed in providing the decorations and furniture. The club membership numbers 125, or, within twenty-five of the allotted limit.

The pair games on Friday evenings have been discontinued, and contests for "teams of four," will hereafter be the Friday evening feature. This is the best form of duplicate whist, and affords valuable training to the whist players. It is expected that four or five teams will be formed for this contest. Dale and Broadbent had a long lead in the Friday pair match and were declared the winners. Thursday evening, Feb. 11, will be ladies' night at the Scranton Whist club. Compass whist for pairs will be the feature. A large attendance of women whisters is hoped for. These games are proving very popular.

The Newark Evening News of Feb.

3, speaks kindly of the local club as follows: "The Scranton Whist club of Scranton, Pa., was organized about two years ago, and has now a membership of about seventy-five men. It has a commodious suite of rooms in a central part of the city, with accommodations to play from sixty to eighty players. There are many of the members who have a high grade of natural whist talent, and they are cultivating this assiduously and successfully. A good whist library is owned by the club, and the whist papers, including the Newark News, are on file in the rooms, Ladies' nights are held twice each month and are well attended. The members are desirous of playing a serles of match games with the New Jersey Whist club, the first game to be sey Whist club, the first game to be held in Newark, and a return game in Scranton, and if each club wins a game, the place where the third game will be played to be decided by lot. Scranton has defeated Easton, Pa. El-Scranton has defeated Easton, Pa. El-mira and Binghamton, N. Y., and doubtless wants to add some New Jer-sey scalps to their belt, but New Jer-sey would not object to hanging a Sabbath Scranton banner upon the walls of the club in Newark." New Jersey's wish is all right, but if the Scranton club should place a wide black border on that banner, it would not prove to be

WASHINGTON AND THE INAUGURATION

A visit to the National Capital during the winter must be taken to be appreciated. The gay city is at its gayest; congress is in session; the ministers and attaches of all foreign legations are in town, and Washington, in itself, a beautiful city, is made kaleidoscopically picturesque by the multitudes which throng the streets. Particularly is this so during inauguration week. Washington is the Mecca for thousands of pilgrims from all over the country. The glittering pageantry and pemp of the inaugural parade and coremony are a feast to the eyes of the American people, always lovers of display and magnificence. One of the grandest features of the ceremonies is the inaugural ball, which as unrestricted as to attendance.
