OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Very Pleasant Last Evening Conducted by Lackawanna Council, No. 1133, Royal Arcanum.

Lackawanna council, No. 1133, Royal Arcanum, met last evening in Robert Morris hall on South Main avenue, and after installing officers a social time was enjoyed by the seventy-five members present.

The other officers installed were: John H. Reynolds, vice regent; James Leysion, orator; Thomas Cosgrove, past regent; A. E. Vorhis, secretary; G. F. Eymon, collector; G. T. Rogers, chaplain; V. H. Lauer, treasurer; Walter Tison, guide; L. E. Giles, warder; John H. Harris, sentinel, vice E. T. John, deceased. The installing officer was District Deputy Grand Regent D. M. Need, assisted by members of Scranton councils.

A pleasant episode of the session was a presentation by the lodge of a gold band ring to Thomas Cosgrove, who vacated the office of regent. The ring is very handsome, suitably inscribed on the inside and ornamented with the emblem of the order inlaid in gold and enamel. Dr. W. A. Palm made the presentation speech, mentioning Mr. Cosgrove's efficient service and expressing the thanks of the lodge for the excellent program made during his regency as regent. Sandwiches, coffee and cigars were furnished in the Ivory-ite club quarters.

MR. BOWER'S LECTURE.

The lecture delivered last evening by A. Vincent Bower at the Scranton Street Baptist church was a rich treat. Mr. Bower's subject was "Michael Angelo," and he was aided in his description by the use of a very fine stereoscopic operated in the rear part of the church by an assistant to Mr. Bower. The lecture deserves more than a passing mention. Mr. Bower led his hearers through a maze of instruction, first showing the masterpieces of other world-famed artists and then contrasting their creations with those of Angelo. The renowned Italian's greatest piece of sculpturing was of Moses, now in St. Peter's church at Rome. In lauding this particular creation Mr. Bower analyzed the construction. It was the work of the soul. Angelo was inspired and he seems to have imparted the inspiration to the marble. One day, after the statue was finished the great sculptor drew back apace and looked intently at the still figure. Then carried by the stillness, he rushed up to the great figure and struck it a blow with his chest—"why don't you speak?" he cried. It was this power, the divine ability to imbue the cold marble with passionate life that characterizes the work of Michael Angelo. A large audience heard the lecture.

The West Siders will do well to patronize this patriotic people, not only by silent sympathy but practical work by sending along something substantial to the above address. The captain assures us it will be welcomed.

DUNMORE.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES. Burgess-Dan Powell. Treasurer-Dan Powell. Tax Collector-William E. Correll. Councilmen-C. S. Weber and William McCallister. School Directors-M. K. Kellam and Jerry McPeak. Street Commissioner-George Jackson. Auditors-Harry Winters and H. F. Marshall. Justice of the Peace-A. A. Krotzer.

William E. Correll, the Republican candidate for tax collector, is a man the people of Dunmore should take pride in supporting. Especially qualified for such an office every citizen would agree that the borough received every cent that could be collected of the tax placed in his hands. Mr. Correll was born in Waymart and comes of a family noted for its staunch Republicanism. For twelve years he has been a resident of this borough, during which time he has been employed by the Erie and Wyoming Valley Railroad company. During his residence in Dunmore Mr. Correll has gained a host of friends and when elected to the position for which he is now a candidate he will fill the office to the entire satisfaction of his constituents.

James Thompson, of Clay avenue, is the guest of friends in Pittston.

Mrs. Alexander Smith and daughter, Ethel, of Ladies' society, are the guests of Mrs. William Young, of Cherry street. The property owners of Dunmore are indignant against the contractors who are putting up the poles for the Electric Light company. In some of our streets they are erecting the poles in the middle of the gutters, thus destroying the paving stones and blocking the street.

Yatesville morning the boss in charge of the work took a property owner on Brook street, and when breaking one of her flags upon the sidewalk by placing for a pole, the Dunmore borough had already received a reduction of 25 per cent. on their electric light bills, which must be content; he did not intend to put a nail into his pocket for such paltry damage.

Mrs. Williams, a well-known character in police circles, was arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct last night at 7:15 p. m. by Officer Bulger, and spent the night in jail. She will be given a hearing before Burgess Duggan this morning.

Mrs. Van Houten's Sunday school class of the Methodist Episcopal church gave a most delightful concert last night at the home of Mrs. Marion Kenney, of Butler street. An excellent program was rendered and a thoroughly enjoyable evening was had by all present.

A straw-ride party from Hyde Park passed through Dunmore on its way to Moscow last night. The Misses Mabel Berlew and Mary Edgar, of Pittston, are being entertained by Mrs. Mrs. Frank Binham, of Butler street.

Elsie, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Deubler, of Adams avenue, is seriously ill with scarlet fever.

GREEN RIDGE.

Rev. W. J. Ford, of the Baptist church, who has been building for the past week, is now able to begin again and will occupy his pulpit Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. Jennie Cannon has returned to her home at Maplewood, after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dunn, of Boulevard avenue.

Rev. G. L. Mace will deliver a sermon to the Independent Order of Odd Fellows lodge, No. 91, at the Methodist Episcopal church, on Capouse avenue, tomorrow evening.

Enice Marsh has gone to his home, in Wayne county, where he will remain for some time. A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johler, of Sanderson avenue.

The Senior Epworth League of the Assembly Methodist Episcopal church will hold its regular monthly social in the church parlors Monday evening. These socials are very largely attended and are growing more interesting. All are invited to come and bring their friends.

Mrs. G. L. Lean, of Williams street, is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Brown, of Falls.

Miss Mary Seward very pleasantly entertained a number of her young friends at her home, on Monsey avenue, last evening. Games music and other amusements were the features of the evening during which refreshments were served. The following composed the party: The Misses Lillian Seward, Grace Ward, Florence Bower, Lillian Seward, Minnie Peck, Pearl Leighton, Mae Benedict, Pauline Elliott and Pearl Trevor, and Messrs. Clayton and Dwight Seward, Charles Teal, Wesley and Albert Kellogg, Will Edgar and Clarence Stewart. Miss Seward was assisted in receiving by the Misses Pearl Lidstone and Grace Ward.

PROVIDENCE.

John H. Phillips entertained his Sunday school class last evening at his home, on William street. Games and music were indulged in until a late hour, when a turkey supper was served. Present were: Mrs. David D. Beers, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. David Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Evans, Mrs. Annie Humphrey, Misses Mary C. Powell, Elizabeth Evans, Anna Reese, Hattie J. Sharpless, Margaret Davis, Jessie Heath, Lizzie Jones, Mary J. will be brought into use to tear out the face of the tunnel. The tunnel is a half mile in length, and enters the mountain in the Laurytown valley. The water from the mines will empty into the Lehigh river.

Fifteen years ago the mine was given up as worthless and allowed to fill with water. It was leased some years ago by Coke Brothers, and upon the advice of Eckley B. Cox, test holes were drilled, which showed that the vein had "overlapped" itself, and that the deposit was still rich and large. It has been shown, by stripping and bore holes, that not more than 20 per cent. of the coal has been removed, and the remaining veins measure 60 to 80 feet in thickness.

A proposition to strip No. 1 vein is now being considered, which would involve many years of labor. It is estimated that there are 2,210,000 tons of coal available by the removal of 5,000,000 cubic feet of water.

Another State Insane Asylum. Effort to be Made to Have One Erected in This Part of State.

The Pittston Gazette in reference to a meeting of the Pittston poor board held in the Ransom poor house Monday evening last, says that the board, about twenty are deformed, while the district also has about fifty-five insane patients being cared for at various state asylums. The asylums, however, are overcrowded, and will receive no additional patients. There are no provisions at the Ransom home for caring for the insane as they ought to be cared for in hopes of effecting cures, and the problem is as to what shall be done with these unfortunate people.

From the proceeds the balances due the legatees, under the will, amounting nearly a million dollars, will be paid, and allow the residue to go to the University at Palo Alto.

Although Mrs. Stanford has decided to realize on the estate, and has appointed agents for the disposal of the lands, years may be required to carry out her purpose. The outside lands will be sold off first and later the Stanford residence and other realty in San Francisco and Alameda counties will be placed on the market. The outside lands, which are to receive immediate attention, consist of ranches held by the estate. They are the Copeland ranch, Tehema county, 3,000 acres; a 2,000 acre ranch near Martinez, the Cohn and Fell ranches in San Mateo county containing 1,250 acres, and small ranches near San Luis, Orisigo and Redlands.

SCHAFFER'S SUICIDE.

A Desperate Husband First Tries to Murder His Wife.

Huntington, N. J., Feb. 5.—Nicholas Schaffer, of this city, shot and seriously wounded his wife and then mortally wounded himself on the street here, at noon today. Schaffer and his wife had been quarreling for some time. Schaffer had been fired up with his intention of starting anew. He accosted his wife as she was returning from work and asked her to return to his home. On her refusing Schaffer drew a revolver and fired three shots at her, one taking effect in the stomach and the other two entering her face just above the mouth. The crazed man then turned the revolver on himself and shot twice, the balls taking effect in the head.

Schaffer died this afternoon, but it is thought Mrs. Schaffer will recover. The present Mrs. Schaffer was his second wife. They had been married but a short time when domestic difficulties arose and they separated. Schaffer had been drinking heavily of late.

East Haddam, Conn., Feb. 5.—The railroad station at Goodspeeds, on the Valley station of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, was totally destroyed by fire at 4 o'clock this morning, and everything indicates that it was the result of an attempt on the part of unknown persons to burglarize the station.

Berlin, Feb. 5.—The Dresden Gazette publishes an article on Prince Bismarck, in the course of which it says that the prince recently said: "I feel tired, but I am not sick. My complaint is uneasiness of life, in which I no longer have any object. Nothing that I do brings me pleasure. I feel lonely. I have lost my wife, and my sons have their own business to attend to. Agriculture and forestry have lost interest, and politics are beginning to bore me."
