ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S ORDER.
Copy of It Was Received Yesterday by Colonel H. A. Conson.
The following has been received by Colonel H. A. Conson of the Thirtieth Regiment:

Murder! Murder!
Is the cry of a competitor. Well, we are sorry, but then we must improve the store and building and we have to sell the stock before we can do it, and we cut the prices in two to sell it quickly.

A MISS
is as good as a mile.
And a Miss' shoes should be as good as can be made. Price hindrance maybe, keeps you from wearing the best. Then you'll be glad to grasp this opportunity.
A dozen broken lots that sold from $2.00 to $2.50 go today for about half. Broken sizes and small lots. Take a little longer to suit you maybe, but if you find your fit you've saved one-half in price. Choice of these $2.00 and $2.50 shoes today for

JUDGE GUNSTER SAYS
IT WAS AN OUTRAGE
Handles the Accused White Caps Without Gloves.
CASE IS IN THE JURY'S HANDS Defense Relies Upon the Jury Saying "it Was Good Enough for the Old Sinner"...

THEORY OF THE DEFENSE.
Mr. Vidauer made the opening for the defense, which, as it was given yesterday, it was that they would not deny the assault, but attempt to justify it.
The girl in the case, Carrie Walton, was the first witness for the defense.
She testified that her uncle accused her of intimacy with Dr. Beck and used this to intimidate her into submitting to his designs...

SMITH'S TESTIMONY.
Sam Smith, a disinterested neighbor and neutral friend of all parties, went on the stand and told that old man Baker had admitted to him that when the assault took place the girl was sitting on the ground and he was down on one knee assuring her that he wouldn't harm her for $2,000.

DISPUTE ABOUT MONEY.
The last case of the week was that of C. L. Rice, the insurance agent, who is charged by Martin Clark with embezzlement. Mr. Clark alleges that he engaged Mr. Rice to secure insurance for him on his father, Thomas Clark, in the Equitable insurance company.
Mr. Rice could not induce the Equitable company to accept the risk, but after some effort secured a policy in another company. Mr. Clark refused to take this policy, claiming he wanted an Equitable policy or none at all.
Mr. Rice held that Mr. Clark commissioned him to secure a policy in some other company if he could not get it in the Equitable. This Mr. Clark denies and because Mr. Rice refuses to return the money advanced for preliminary expenses, he has charged him with embezzlement. Mr. Kelly appeared with Assistant District Attorney Thomas for the prosecution, and Messrs. Comegys and Shurtliff represented the defense. The case was given to the jury at adjournment.

THE INTERNATIONAL CLUB.
Held an Important Meeting in This City Last Night.
The International club of Lackawanna county for the political education of foreigners held an important meeting last night in the Elks room on Franklin avenue which was presided over by County Surveyor Edmund Barill. Attorney William Voloklik is secretary of the club.
There were a large number of delegates present at last night's meeting from various parts of the county and some interesting reports were heard from Fell township, Mayfield and other places which emphasized in the minds of the present the great necessity of the organization.
The club was formed last November to instruct and protect the foreign born citizens of Lackawanna county and has branches all through the county.

GOOD FALL OF SNOW.
Made Sleighing a Possibility for Several Days to Come--Almost Blocked the Trolley Lines.
Six inches of real live snow, the kind that covers everything, raises hob with street car traffic, pleases the children and sends to the woods the man who says they have no real winters now-- that kind of snow fell during Thursday night and yesterday. It was of the innocent variety and came without any bluster and fuss, but even without the wind or the drifting it made sub-urbanites mutter bad words and foot travelers wonder almost that the street cars can come and go and proved immediately profitable to only the cabbie riverman and liquid dispenser.
There was no interruption in the fall until late in the afternoon when the storm abated, but did not entirely cease until late in the night. Meanwhile the Traction company had been making a plucky fight. It would not be admitted that cars were not run-

INTERNATIONAL CHESS MATCH.
Americans Play on the Stage of the Brooklyn Academy of Music.
New York, Feb. 12--This morning at 10 o'clock the second international chess match between United Kingdom of Great Britain and the United States was begun, there being ten players on each side. While the Britishers were conducting their games at the Hotel Cecil in London, the American team were playing on the stage of the Brooklyn Academy of Music, where the Brooklyn Chess club has made excellent arrangements for the players, the cable operators, the official scorers and the spectators. During the morning and afternoon sitting there were about 200 spectators in the building. Functually at 10 o'clock Professor J. L.
Rice, the British umpire called time and the openings adopted were as follows:

THE FIFTH WARD.
In the Fifth ward there is a red hot fight for alderman between Bezael Davis, the regular Republican nominee; Benjamin Griffiths, the nominee of the Democrats and Independent Republicans and M. L. Blair, the present alderman of the ward, who is a candidate for re-election on the Citizens' ticket. John H. Walker, the Republican nominee for common council in that ward, is unopposed.
Of course, there is a lively fight in the Seventh ward. It would not be the alderman P. DeLacy is a candidate to succeed himself, and from present indications will have a good show majority over Terrence Rafferty, who is a candidate for alderman on a ticket labeled Pennsylvania Democracy. His

NOT OVERLY DELICATE.
Moulin Rouge Company at the Academy Almost to Chic.
The "Moulin Rouge Extravaganza" company, which opened an engagement at the Academy of Music last night, is anything that the title might suggest.
In fact the rather far-fetched efforts of the performance is too suggestive of unmentionable things to suit fastidious taste.
The "Moulin Rouge" people present a burlesque satire entitled "A Pack of Cards," which has almost any kind of a beginning and the same kind of an ending with a kind of billing that borders too much on the grotesque. The variety to suit the sensitive Scranton palate. Specialties from the substance of a skit. Of these the work of Sam Collins, late of the "Black Crook" company, is the best.
The company will be at the Academy this afternoon and evening.

running mate is Michael F. Gilroy, who wants to succeed himself as common councilman of the ward. Harry C. Haug was the Republican nominee for common council, but his withdrawal from the fight was published in yesterday's Tribune. P. Y. Scanlon and Timothy Burke dispute the right of Mr. Gilroy to again represent the ward in the lower branch of the city's legislature. Both are popular young men, with numerous friends, and in consequence the fight for council in the Seventh is probably the liveliest in the city.

HAS A WALKOVER.
Captain James Moir is the Republican nominee for common council in the Ninth, and no one disputes his right to succeed himself. In the Eleventh ward Philip Wirth, the present councilman, who is the Republican nominee, is opposed by Fred Phillips. The fight is lively, but the odds are in Mr. Wirth's favor. Attorney C. C. Donnan is the candidate of the Democrats and Republicans of the Twelfth ward for alderman, and can therefore read his title to a re-election clear.
T. R. Jackson, the Republican nominee for common council in the Fifteenth ward, is opposed by M. J. Mc-Donnell, Democrat, and Minor C. Carr, the candidate of the Prohibitionists and Citizens, Joseph Oliver and Luther Keller, the Republican nominees in the Fifteenth and Seventeenth wards, have no opposition. These gentlemen at present represent the wards in a very able manner.
There is a three-cornered fight for alderman in the Eighteenth ward between John C. Jones, the Republican nominee; Martin Hore, Democrat, and John P. Kelly, candidate of the Independent Democrats.
George Wirth, Jr., Republican, and Richard Sheridan, Democrat, are battling for supremacy in the Nineteenth ward and the office of common council is the prize. Mr. Wirth is the present representative of the ward. The Democratic leaders of the ward are urging the voters to defeat him because he voted for the ordinance to construct a sewer in that part of the city.
His Democratic opponent keeps discreetly quiet on the subject of the sewer. It is known, however, that some of his strong supporters are among those who are most loudly clamoring for a sewer, and it therefore becomes apparent that the hue and cry with reference to Wirth's vote is simply an effort to throw dirt in the eyes of the voters and blind them to the real situation until after election. In this ward Jacob P. Miller, Republican, and Christian Storr, Democrat, are candidates for alderman.

Henry G. Dale, Republican, and Thomas Norton, Democrat, are candidates for common council in the Twenty-first ward. Mr. Dale is a very popular young man, and the prospect of his election is very bright.
