JOHN THOMAS ASSAULTED

Footpads Relieve a Well Known Young Man of $1.37 --- No Clue to the Identity of the Ruffians.

Eighteen-year-old John Thomas, of 1425 Washburn street, was assaulted and robbed of $1.37 at 1 o'clock yesterday morning while passing down Bromley avenue, near Washburn street, by two men, who are unknown at present. Young Thomas was one of a party of young people, who paid a surprise visit Thursday night to Augustus Eynon, of Bromley avenue. He was returning from the party and when near the corner of Washburn street two men stepped out of the shadow of trees cast by a near-by are light and as Thomas passed he was asked for a "chew of tobacco." Thomas replied that he did not use the stuff and he started to walk on.

"What's your hurry!" ejaculated one of the men, stopping the young fellow. "I'm in no hurry," replied Thomas. He had no sooner said it than he was thrown to the sidewalk. "What do you want," he asked. "We'll get what we want," was the reply of the ruffians as they proceeded to go through his pockets. Thomas struggled but it only resulted in rougher treatment and his cries for help were stilled by the fingers of one of the ruffians on Thomas' throat. After taking $1.37, all he had, from the victim's pockets, the two fellows waited until Thomas had entered his home on Washburn street; then they went their way.

Thomas could not recognize his assailants if he saw them again. It was dark, he says. One of the men was big and fat, and burly, and both wore dark clothing with derby hats. Thomas parents are Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Thomas, of Washburn street.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY. Tomorrow the Father Mathew society, of the West Side, will be twenty-five years old and the preparation for a suitable celebration of the event, will culminate in a grand silver jubilee, beginning tomorrow with services at St. Patrick's church, and ending Monday night with a banquet and social in St. David's hall. The celebration will be one of the most complete of its kind ever held on this side. The society has laid aside $1,000 to be expended on the banquet and the other features. In fact, money cleaved but a slight incision in the arrangement of the affair. The society has 175 ands will take place this afternoon at 2 members-during its quarter of a century of life 3,000 names have been attached to its roll record—and the made in Washburn street cemetery. financial condition is such that a part in bonds. entire two days' celebration. LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY.

The entertainment and social given last evening in Mears' hall by the Sons of Veterans, Lieutenant Ezra S. Griffin camp No. 8, in commemoration of the birthday of Lincoln was attended by a house full of people. John T. Howe alderman of the Seventeenth ward, was the presiding officer. The entertainment included a recitation by Miss Jessie Turnbull, a young lady who has a decided dramatic talent. Others on the programme were Charles Cadugan, who recited pleasingly; Will and Harry Butler, mandolin and guitar players; Archie Jones, who declaimed "Our Flag," and Emerson D. Owen, The Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church choir and the Camp 8 quartette also participated. M. L. Wage read Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Dancing followed, Mrs. Agnes Mailott playing the plane.

At No. 32 school, Professor H. L. Morgan principal, yesterday afternoon, the following was the programme: Esas statesman, orator and president, graphically described by Gordon Evans, Martha Moore, Katle James, Albert Busch, Frank Fellows and others, Norma Williams recited "The Hand of Lincoln" in good style; Edna Lewis, "The Emancipation Group," which was well rendered; Susie Markwick, "O, Captain! My Captain!" second inaugural address by Judson Hinman, was very fine: Martin O'Neil gave the Gettysburg speech; Lulu Fellows recited in very natural manner, "Pat's Confederate Pig." Pupils from the Misses Vaughan, Davis, O'Connor and Maghran's rooms sang and recited several selections, and all highly appreciated by the large audience present. Pupils of Miss Watkins' room with the pupils of Misses Margarot and Kate Servis held like exercises and all did creditable work.

At No. 14 school a large assemblage of friends listened to exercises in Principal James R. Hughes' room. The programme printed in yesterday's Tribune as carried out in its entirety.
