A TALENTED YOUNG WOMAN.

Miss Bertha Gattand Surprised

Scrantonians at the Academy. Miss Bertha Galland has good reaon to feel gratified at the excellent impression she made last night on the taghionable audience that filled the cademy of Music. It was a hard test on her versatility, was the programme arranged and her successes must have een all the more gratifying. If the truth be told the audience expected litle from the young woman, Many of hose present know her when she reided in this city and remembered her when she left here something over five years ago. Then she was a carcely make themselves believe that the school girl they had known could have undergone the severe training ccessary to make a passable actress, much less a star.

When Miss Calland made her first ppearance in the balcony scene from 'Romeo and Juliet" she was given the dad hand of recognition as was her lue, but when the scene was finished he received an ovation for her demonstrated eleverness and the curtain was rung up twice to enable her to acknowledge the applause showered on her from all parts of the house. In that scene it was shown that Miss Galland resesses undoubted dramatic talent, self-possession and grace and more-over a voice that is sweet, flexible and ultivated. In the scene in Friar Lawrenes cell and the potion scene from the fourth net of "Romeo and Juliet" Miss Galland proved that she has not only training and eleverness, but dra-matic fire, as well as a nice discriminacoming a conflagration. To the tense dramatic passages her voice does no its quality that makes you say "this is but a simulated passion." The voices belies the earnestness of manner and force. In the scenes from Macbeth this de-fect of voice was strongly apparent. Try as she would she could not convince the audience that she was Lady Macbeth. It may be a defect that time and experience will blot out, but not improbably it finds its origin in the emperament of the young woman. If that be true it will limit the range of ward, was arrested yesterday on the her repertoire. As Lady Macbeth it outh and information of John Garey, who cannot be said that she was a success. As Juliet she was and she also serves much praise for the manner in which she impersonated Lady Teazle in two scenes from "The School for Abstinence and Benevolent society of Scandal. Act four of "Leah the For-Pine Brook will give an entertainment on Swednesday evening in the society's built ance. In this the dramatic passages more effectively recited than were those in Macbeth. It was after 11,30 when the curtain rang down. Miss Galland received fine suppor from that finished actor, George Edgar, Henry Clifton and Leon Hall. She is a most promising young woman and will undoubtedly win fame in her thosen profession. She made her stage debut last November and has since then been playing in the New England and Middle states. She will not be seen in New York city this season, al-though she has made that city her home since she left Scranton,

Her mother and brother, Seymous Galland, of New York city, saw last night's performance. It is the second time Mr. Galland has seen his sister act since she went on the stage.

Four hundred persons last night attended the banquet and ball which marked the closing of the celebration of the silver jubilee of the Hyde Park

Father Mathew society, At 8 o'clock the members of the so ciety, with their ladies, and the friends whom they had invited to assist them in their Jubilation, began to gather in the rooms of St. Leo's battalion on the second floor of St. David's hall building, and after half an hour spent in introductions and chat, all repaired to the hall upstairs, where Caterer M. J. Kelly and a corps of thirty waitresses had prepared a royal feast. The tables were arranged in five rows, extending the entire length of the hall. and with tasty decorations of flowers and a profusion of large banenet lamps, presented a most attractive ap-Lawrence's orchestra pearance. eight pieces was seated on the pietform at the head of the hall and during the discussion of the excellent and bountiful menu, discoursed enlivening

At the head of the central table was seated President J. C. Gallagher, toastmaster of the evening, and at either hand were the guests of honor, among whom were Rev. N. J. LETTERS OF REGRET READ. At the conclusion of the dining, Toastmaster Callagher took a position it it desk placed on the stage, and formally opened the second part of the programme. After a brief but hearty speech of welcome, he read letters of regret from Hon, P. P. Smith, Hon. John E. Barrett and E. B. Sturges

Hon, T. V. Powderly was then introduced to respond to the first toast of the evening, "America." After a few happy remarks to the effect that it was the first time he had ever seen a crowd of Father Mathew men full and some thoughts apropos to the theme assigned him, he proceeded in his usual eloquent style to commend the work of the Father Mathew society and to point out the good that it had done in the community.

Attorney M. T. Conry spoke on 'Christianity the True Source of Civilization," After contrasting the coudition of society under pagan and Christian domination, he paid a high tribute to total abstinence by averring that Christianity had no greater or more effective ally than such societies as the

Rev. N. J. McManus, the first spiriual director of the society, when called upon for a few remarks, commented on the fact that the occasion was an object lesson, inasmuch as h proved that viands lose none of their savor because not flavored with wine He congratulated the society on the benefits it had conferred on its members and the community, and said that while many possibly may view a total abstinence society as a league of reformed drunkards, as Father Mark put it, it was better, he thought, to be reformed drunkard than a confirmed

Judge Edwards in a happy way exended his congratulations, keeping his auditors continually applauding or laughing by his eloquence and wit. His statement that Great Britain was Christianized by three Welsh boys, David, Andrew and Patrick, was particularly provocative of laughter and

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE.

H. C. Gallagher responded to the toast, "The Day We Celebrate." He sketched briefly a history of the socie ty and paid a fitting tribute to the veteran Father Mathew man, Hubert Me Hale, who has been a member of the ociety ever since its organization.

"The Cadets" was the toast which Charles Canavan responded to, and John H. Devine had for his them "Sister Societies." Both were entertaining and happy in their speeches, and were varmly applauded.

When the speechmaking had been brought to a close, Maurice T. Walsn, epresenting a committee of the sociaasked the guests to remain for r inute, and then advancing to the front of the ball room, read the Folowing resolution;

Developments of Yesterday in the Fued Between Father Iwanowski and Editor Dangel Langowski.

The differences existing between Rev. Bronislaw Iwanowski, the Polish elergyman, and Dangel Langowski, the ditor of a Polish weekly paper, appear to be further than ever from being settled. Yesterday Iwanowski was arrested by Constable Richard Barron, of Priceburg, charged with having broken into the house of William Kregger, in Dickson City, and in searching for Langowski, whom he believed was hiding in the house, demolished a bed and injured Kregger's daughter, Martha.

It is alleged that this occurred on Friday night, and that Father Iwanowski carried a shotgun with him to intimidate Langowski. He was accompanied by Constable Jack Murray, who was to have captured the editor in the event of their finding him. It appears that during the latter part of last week the priest had Langowski arrested and Alderman Millar, before whom the hearing was held, set ball at $1,000. which was furnished by Langowski. but afterwards found to be worthless. It was to recapture the editor that the priest and the constable visited Kregger's house. Yesterday morning Constable Murray found Langowski and took him to the county jail, where the authorities refused to accept him.

as Langowski had a certificate from Alderman Miliar, showing that on the previous day, solid ball had been furnished, and that he therefore had a right to his liberty. It is said that Constable Murray was drunk and Langowski swore out a warrant yesterday afternoon for the arrest of Father Iwanowski and the constable on the charge of conspiring to falsely imprison. The warrants will be served

When Rev. Iwanowski was arrested yesterday on the charge preferred by William Pregger, that of breaking into his house, displaying fire arms and demolishing his furniture, the father furnished ball before Justice of the Peace Slivinski, of Dickson City, Another charge was lodged against Iwanowski later in the day, in Alderman Howe's court, by Mary Langowski, who charged that on Sunday, Feb. 7. Father Iwanowski publicly stated from the pulpit of his church that she was living unlawfully with a man. She also claims that he made allusions, which, as they read in the complaint, are not presentable in a newspaper.

A warrant was served on Father Iwanowski and he promised the con-stable to appear in Alderman Howe's court in the afternoon, which he falled

SOME WARDS ARE MODEST.

No Use for Strong Drink in the Three Big South Side Wards.

There is a falling off in the number of license application this year as compared with 1896. The number last year At 5 o'clock last evening when the time for filing applications closed for this year, Clerk of the Courts Thomas had received 623 applications, a decrease of twenty-three As in former years the Twelfth ward has again decided that it can gealong without strong drink, not a single application having been received from that division of the city. The good example set by the Twelfth ward is emulated to a degree by the neighboring people for only three applications are recorded from the whole South Side, excluding the Eleventh ward The Nineteenth ward concluded it could get along with one saloon and the Twentieth asks only two. The Eleventh ward sent in ten ap olications. The Third ward is another modest precinct, two licenses being all that are prayed for. No license was asked for the Wyoming House. The entire list of application will be published in an early issue of The Tribune

BOTH ARE IN THE COUNTY JAIL.

Neighbors from the Flats Make Counter Charges.

Patrick Murray and John Love, the latter colored, are both languishing in the county jail, primarily because they were over zealous in causing each other's arrest and ultimately could not furnish bail in the sum of $300 each They are neighbors, residing on the 'Flats," and they had much contention over the dumping place for gar bage from their homes.

Murray caused to be sworn out warrant for the arrest of Love and when given a hearing before Alderman Miliar, the defendant preferred a counter charge against his complainant with the results as above stated.

THE ORDINANCE

His Signature Will Not Be Affixed, However, Until Tomorrow.

POLITICAL ASPECT OF MATTER

Action with Reference to Sewer Ordinance Has Been Deferred Until After Today's Elections-It Was Hoped the Sewer Agitation Would Cause the Defent of George Wirth, Republican Candidate for Council in the Nineteenth Ward.

Mayor Batiey will sign the South and daughter at his bedside. Side sewer ordinance. He has re-frained from hinting what his action would be, but The Tribune is assured of his determination by an authority that cannot be doubted. Since the ordinance came into his possession Mayor Bailey has personal ly viewed it in a favorable light, but was honest in his announcement that he would be governed solely by the wishes of the property owners affected He has meanwhile received more argunents for the sewer than against it. There is, however, attributed a political motive to his long delay in definitely disposing of the measure. On Feb. 2 the ordinance was delivered to alm from councils and from that date he has fifteen days, or to Wednesday inclusive in which to sign it. By holding his signature until after today's election there was a design to lessen the chances of the re-election of Geo. Wirth, jr., the Republican common councilman from the Nineteenth ward, which is contained in the new sewer district.

POSITION OF MR. WIRTH. Mr. Wirth voted for the ordinance or third reading at the earnest solicita-He numbers among his political supporters many Democrats and Republicans, some of whom are against the sewer. Mayor Balley was pressed to withhold his approval of the ordinance until after election day in order to make it appear in the Nineteenth ward that Councilman Wirth had supported a lost cause and against the wishes c

the people of the ward. The Democratic scheme has, however, been revealed and the true reaon of the mayor's tardiness has been told about the ward with the result that it will prove a beomerang to the local Democratic politicians who ad-

In fact, the mayor's determination to sign the ordinance has been so plain and well understood that yesterday was said that the measure had bee signed, but would be held in the may or's office until tomorrow. That is no true; at least Mayor Balley assured Tribune reporter yesterday that he has ot affixed his signature. He did sa that he would not dispose of the ordin ance until tomorrow.
