THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-TUESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 16, 1897.

THIS IS THE DAY TO VOTE

Lively Fight Is in Progress for Alderman in the Fifth Ward---Oliver Will Be Re-elected in Fifteenth.

Today is election day, just a little one, but on the West Side, and partleularly in the Fifth wurd, there is a big lot of interest. In this ward three candidates have regularly presented themselves for the office of alderman. They are: Bezaleel Davis, the Repub-Bean nominee; M. L. Blair, who is the present alderman, and Benjamin Griffiths, tax collector of the ward. The last two named were defeated in the regular Republican caucus, but each ance is expected. was not satisfied and they now run as independent candidates. The battle is bitterly waged. There is a strong personal antipathy and the total vote today will probably exceed any previous

At noon the reverend gentlemen sat down to dinner William Hayes will give an address of welcome, followed by recitations by other pupils. Miss Edna Bonner will read a history of the old No. 16 school and this will be followed by a descrip-tion of the new building by Miss Blanche Conklin. The school will sing "Scatter Sunshine," and afterward the flag purchased by the pupils will) dedicated to the new building. Relad Bunnell will make the presentation speech. After the presentation "two young patriots," i. e., the two public who collected the biggest amount of money for the flag will be introduced to the audience. This will close "he first part of the programme. The rest of the afternoon will be taken up by the gentlemen present on invitation. Principal E. A. Cruttenden, who prepared the programme, is leaving nothing undone to make the day worthy of the handsome new school building. Seven hundred souvenir programmes will be distributed.

RED MEN'S ENTERTAINMENT.

A big pow wow was held last night in Mears' hall by the followers of Navajo tribe of Red Mon, and a lot of friendly white folk who paid to get in. Alderman John T. Howe, who is becoming a popular chairman of entertainments, led the orgie last night. Professor Johnson played the opening number on the plano and then Chief Howe talked, closing his remarks by introducing William Morgan, comic singer.
