JERMYN AND MAYFIELD

Today will tell the story as to who will be the people's choice for burgess for the next three years.

The election looks as though it will be a very hot contest. Some days ago the Carbondale Leader corresponded from this town and said that it was in order to hear from Mr. Waring.

While the daughter of Mr. Mayers, of Third street, were at church Sunday evening their home was broken into by burglars and a number of articles were stolen, including $1.50 in cash.

The decision of the Mayfield council to finally cut the taxes of Winfield Scott seems to be an indirect one, as they do not know, as a council, where the dividing line is between the boroughs. Would it not be wiser to investigate and find out definitely where such a line is or establish one which will forever settle all disputes.

Let Mr. Jermyn take up this bone of contention, but act on a plan in accordance with wise and good judgment. If such a settlement can be brought about it will be a relief to all concerned.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Yost, of Scranton, spent Sunday with their son, G. H. Yost.

HOW TO FIND OUT. Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys.

When urine is taken from the bottle, evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kerr's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effect following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine, you should have the best. Sold by druggists price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention Tribune and send your full postoffice address to Dr. Kerr & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

MANSFIELD.

What was without doubt the largest audience ever assembled in Alumni hall for any lecture listened last Saturday evening to General John E. Gordon, as with stirring eloquence he told of "The Last Days of the Confederacy." At 8 o'clock the town was practically deserted, all the business places having closed early in order to attend the large collection from Wellsboro, Blossburg and vicinity also were in the audience.

At 8:15 about thirty-five members of the Grand Army of the Republic filed in and occupied seats on the platform. A few moments later General Gordon entered, escorted by the chairman, George Maxey. As the speaker came upon the stage the whole audience arose and sang two stanzas of "My Country 'Tis of Thee." When the inspiring notes had died away the general was introduced and received with an outburst of applause.

Then for over two hours with eloquence and humor and pathos he swayed the vast audience; his tributes to Grant, Meade and Hooker were no less hearty than those he paid to the leaders he had followed, Lee and Stonewall Jackson. In his peroration he turned and grasped the flag that was suspended over the stacked arms and upon the honor of confederate soldiers living and in the name of the soldiers dead pledged the loyalty and allegiance of the south forever and forevermore.

Benjamin Maxey, of Forest City, was the guest of his son, George, Saturday evening and Sunday.

James Muir, class '95, was renewing acquaintances at the normal yesterday.

Harry, son of W. D. Husted, of this borough, died after a brief illness Saturday evening.

MOSCOW. On the death of Mr. Albion Hallett, who died on Feb. 1, in the thirty-seventh year of his age.

Albion was tired and weary. Weary with tears and with pain. Put by the staff and rocker. He will not need them again. Into sweetest rest he has retired. No more to suffer or weep. After life's painful journey, Albion has fallen asleep.

Hills that he loved now unfold him. Hill in his bosom he lies. Heeds not the song of the robin. Beauty of blossom or skies. Living O'er his bed the green grasses. Sun will so lovingly clover. Out mid the daisies and clover, Albion has fallen asleep.

Rest the worn feet now forever. Rest will bring hands are so still. Butless the heart that no longer. Sorrow can quicken or thrill. Years will glide o'er him gently. Putting the shroud under the floor. Drive back your tears would you wake him. Albion has fallen asleep.

Oh! beautiful rest for the weary. Beautiful sleep for the true. Lying so peacefully ever. Peace to the heart that no longer. Peace to the heart that no longer. Peace to the heart that no longer. Peace to the heart that no longer.
