Political Disabilities of Col. Simms Are Removed.

Makes Extended Remarks Concerning the Free Homestead Measure. Mr. Richardson Seeks Information. Pension Bills Passed in the Senate. Senator Daniel Will Read Washington's Parewell Address.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The open session of the senate today lasted for half an hour. Two conference reports on pension bills were agreed to one giving $50 a month to the widow of General Stoneman and the other $75 a month to General Julius Stahl. Senator Daniel (Democrat, Virginia), was designated as the reader of Washington's farewell address next Mondayan observance introduced by Mr. Hoar (Republican, Massachusetts), some years ago when Senator Ingalls, of Kansas, was presiding officer pro tem., and when he was, as such, designated as the reader. His splendid elecution has never been equalled on a like oceasion since.

Possibly the last of the "unreconstructed rebels" was pardoned today in the person of Colonel D. E. Simms, of Kentucky-the senate passing a bill to remove his political disabilities. At 12.30 p. m., the senate proceeded to the consideration of executive business-the arbitration treaty- and did not adjourn until 8 p. m. MR. GROW'S VICTORY.

Another appropriation bill was taken up in the house today, but little progress was made. The measure was that carrying appropriations to supply deficiencies for the current fiscal year and prior years. It encountered its drst snng when Mr. Grow (Republican, Pennsylvania), insisted that he had a right to speak as long as he wanted to on it. This proposition was discussed for some time and resulted in a victory for the venerable Pennsylvania member who devoted some extended remarks, not to the appropriation bill, but to the Oklahoma free homestead measure.

Then a long discussion was started by Mr. Richardson (Democrat, Tennessee), over an item to pay special attorneys for defending suits against the United States:

Mr. Richardson wanted to know the cases when the judgment given against the United States, particularly in claims under the Bowman act, were never bald. Many members spoke with regard to the propriety of opposing the Bowman claim, but when the afternoon was nearly over the discussion was dropped. The bill was not finished at 5 o'clock when the house took a recess for three hours.

Tonight the house discussed private
