CRETAN SITUATION IS STILL CRITICAL

Fears Entertained That the Demands of the Powers May Be Denied.

A SOLEMN WARNING TO GREECE

European Concert Thought to Be Not Altogether Too Harmonious, Great Britain May Withdraw -- Lord Salisbury May Be Forced by Events to Oppose the Coercion of Greece and Precipitate a Row.

London, March 3.-It is suggested in some quarters that events may force Lord Salisbury to desert the concert of the Powers and declare that Great Britain will not authorize the coercion of Greece. But it is realized that this involves an instant violent diplomatic quarrel with Russia and Germany, and possibly war with one or both. there are not lacking those who, tired of the endless Eastern question and of being driven hither and thither by Russia, are desirous of proceeding even to this length in settling the matter finally.

Constantinople, March 3.-The collective note, signed by the ambassadors of the six Powers, which was presented to the Turkish government yesterday, declares that the Powers are decircus of stopping the deplorable conditions in Crete, due to the delay in the execution of reforms. They consider that complete autonomy should be conferred upon Crete under the suzerainty of the Sultan, and conclude with statto withdraw her military and naval forces from Crete.

The note makes no mention of the withdrawal of the Ottoman troops from Crete: but this as well as the details of the future administration of the island will be dealt with in subsequent notes. It is believed that the Turkish government will not raise objections to this plan for the settlement of the Cretan question. There is little confidence, however, in political circles that the proposed new regime in Crete will constitute a permanent settlement of the troubles, and it is believed that the pacification of the Island will be exceedingly difficult.

GREECE SOLEMNLY WARNED.

Athens, Murch 3 .- The identical note presented yesterday afternoon by the representatives of the powers to the Greek governmnt says that the powers are entirely agreed upon a course of action to put an end to a situation which it was not within their power to prevent, but which, if continued, would gravely compromise the peace of Eu-It proceeds to announce that the annexation of Crete is impossible, and that they decline to accept such a proposal. The note confers instead an absolutely effective autonomy, assuring to Crete a separate government under the suzerainty of the sultan.

Those conditions, however, not being realizable, except by the withdrawal of the Green troops from the Island and of the Greek ships from Cretan waters or from points where the powers are in occupation, the powers confidently rely upon the wisdom of the Greek government to cease to oppose their peaceful efforts for the welfare of Crete and the preservation of peace.

Therefore, Greece is solemnly warned that unless the aforesaid withdrawat occurs within six days the powers will necessary to enforce it, and their decision is irrevocable.

RIOTS AT CANEA

Canea, Island of Crete, March 3.-An engagement lasting two hours took place yesterday evening between the Greeks on the heights of Malaxa and the Bashibazouks of the villages of Narakoron and Tchikatria.

The complaint of the Mussulman gen darmes, which led to the outbreak here yesterday, as to the non-payment of vages is believed to have been a pretext to enable them to shirk responsi bility for disturbances they expected would occur. Major Bor had Interviewed each man separately on Monday, promising to do his utmost to get m further pay. They proved very sulky and seemed to want to get all possible arrears paid immediately. Before casting off their uniforms they were assembled on Tuesday morning with a view to strong measures. The act of an Italian marine in seizing one with a view to disarming him was a signal for tumult. Flerce shouts of chance were raised, and cries of "Don't yield!" "Fire on them!" and other angry demonstrations.

It had been intended to arrest the ringleaders, but three of these escaped in the confusion, the ball of Konak being thick with smoke and dust and the floor covered with pools of blood and quiet was restored. The gendarmes stood in abject terror, expecting instant execution. Major Bor addressed them and said the blame rested on the man who fired the first shot, that a rigorous inquiry would be held and the innocent liberated.

The men displayed their gratitude and promised repentance. When Suleiman Bey, a Turkish officer, was shot was standing close to Major Bor. It is feared that two others who were wounded may die.

It is reported that the Greek commodore offered to take the Hydra to Seline and to land a force on his own account. but the foreign admirals warned him that they would not permit such a

POWER HOUSE BURNED.

Big Fire at the Plant of the Union Traction Company at Philadelphia. Car Traffic Stopped.

Philadelphia, March 3.-The power house at Thirteenth and Mount Vernon streets, from which the Union Traction company operated a half dozen of its lines of trolley cars, was destroyed by fire this evening. The loss is about $500,000, principally on the valuable machinery in the building. The loss is covered by insurance. The dynamos were the property of the Westinghouse Electric company, as the Traction company claimed that they were not working properly and had therefore never accepted them, and the Westinghouse company were running them at their own expense, pending some decision in the matter. half the loss, therfore, will fall upon the Westinghouse company.

During the progress of the fire August A. Binder, a spectator, was run over and killed by a fire engine, and several people were more or less injured by other accidents. The fire occurred at an hour at which thousands of people were returning home from work and, as the cars on fifteen streets were brought to a complete standstill, much inconvenience to the public resuited. The Traction company as speedily as possible, looped the wires rendered useless by the fire to the lines operated by the other power houses and made shift to give as good a service as cars on most of the streets until they

GOVERNOR HASTINGS HAS GRIP.

Harrisburg, March 3.-Neither Governor Hastings nor any of the more prominent state officials will attend the inauguration of President-elect Mc-Kinky. The governor, up to last night, intended to go to Washington today with Mrs. Hastings and Mrs. McCormick, wife of the attorney general, and Captain Faxson, United States army, but later in the evening an attack of grippe took firm hold on him and it was announced that he would not leave the executive mansion. Today he is in bed and is under the doctor's care.

Mrs. Hastings and Mrs. McCormick with Captain Paxton, as escort, left for Washington this morning and will attend the dinner to be given this evening by Mrs. John A. Logan in honor of General Alger. Secretary of the Commonwealth Reeder will also be absent from the inauguration and it is said he is suftering from an old injury. Attorney General McCormick is at his home in Williamsport and does not care to brave the rigor of Washington inauguration weather. Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart was at his department today but he will not be in Washington tomorrow. He was appointed an aide to the chief marshal but will not be able to attend. Insurance Commissioner Lambert will also be prevented from making the trip, Tour to California via Pennsylvania Railroad.

In Southern California is found the realization of a dream of the ancients. Here are the "Golden Apples of the Hesperides," ripening beneath a gky more beautiful than that of Rome, and in a climate more perfect than that of Athens. Never in the wildest flights of his imagination did either Homer Hesiod ever conceive of a garden richer in verdant beauty, more productive of luscious fruit, or set amid more picturesque and lovely surroundings. Here the rose entwines the orange, and the snow-mantled peaks of the Sierras reflect the golden glow of the evening twilight.

The last of the Pennsylvania Railroad tours to California will leave New York and Philadelphia March 27, stopping at Chicago, Omaha, Denver, Colorado Springs and the "Garden of the Gods," and Salt Lake City. Tourists will travel by special train of Pullman palace cars going, and return on regular trains via any route within nine months. Regular one-way or roundtrip tickets will be issued for this tour in connection with a special ticket covering Pullman accommodations, meals, and other tour features going. The latter ticket will be sold at the following rates: From New York, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, or Altoona, $60.00; Pittsburg, $58.00.

A PECULIAR PURCHASE TO MAKE WAS THIS 60 DOZEN OF SPANISH LACE SCARFS

You will judge, perhaps, on first thought, but when you know the price you'll not be surprised. Twelve years ago these Spanish Scarfs were in great demand and were worn extensively as a neck and shoulder ornament. And they are good today, as many of our friends who have already bought them tell us for head-gear, if you are going out in the evening, or you can take one of the wide, extra long ones, and make a waist or bodice over a covered ground.

This lot we have are strictly all silk, and many of them are big enough for a shawl. The actual value is from $1,50 to $4.50 each.
