EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY.

Celebrated Last Night by the Members of Lackawanna Council, No. 1133, Royal Arcanum.

Lackawanna council, No. 1133, Royal Areanum, was organized March 12. 1889, and last evening a smoker was held as a celebration of the anniversary month. The chief feature of the evening was a resume of the life of the lodge since its organization, read by John J. Davies, the South Main avenue pharmacist, who is one of the leading members of Lackawanna council, Previous to the social session a business meeting was held, at siich one candidate was initiated and three names proposed. The social part began at 9 o'clock. There were present nearly 100 members of the lodge, with a number of representatives from other councils, Regent Charles Laning presided. Mr. Davies' paper was highly interesting. The resume showed that the lodge was organized in Morgan's hall. There were twenty-five charter members. The council now numbers 132 members. There have been but six deaths during the entire eight years of life. these, $18,000 was paid out in indemnities. The council, however, has contributed $19,000 to the general fund for

The membership of the order is now 189,000. Mr. Davies' talked, also, of matters of interest to the members only. He is a past regent of the council, having been given that title because of his part in Its organization. He was the first representative to the grand council, After Mr. Davies' address a request was made for a few words from John B. Ely, editor of the Royal Arcanum Messenger, published at Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Ely responded in a gracious manner. Emerson Owen recited "Casey at The speech of A. J. Colborn was equal in eloquence to the anticipation of his audience.

After this there was another partthe feast-and perhaps it was as en-Soyable as anything of the evening. The committee that looked after the gastronomical department was V. H. Lauer, T. B. Polen, John H. Reynolds and James Leyshon.

Her condition s a matter of grave alarm.

> CHANGES OF BUSINESS HOUSES. Among the business changes that will take place April 1 are: E. E. Evans will move his shoe furnishing house from the central city to the store room on South Main averfue which will be vacated on April 1 by the Grand Union Ten company's branch store. The tea company moves to the Clarke building, on South Main avenue, recently vacated by Mason & Co., now on Fellows' corners, and Peters & York, stationers, now two doors below. Dr. S. E. Feinberg will abandon the Star drug store and will open a pharmacy on the corner of Lackawanna avenue and Franklin avenues, to be vacated on April 1 by Williams' shoe firm. The latter concern moves several doors higher on Lackawanna avenue. The death of the old Star drug store will make a strange "hole" in Hyde Park's familiar business house The place has been in existence since time almost immemorial. F. W. Jones, new in Wales, was quite successful in the place a number of years ago. His departure robbed it of its charm, it

For Spring

We don't think its too early to talk about Spring Goods. about, mind you. We don't expect you to buy just yet, but you'll no doubt be glad to hear about the new styles in Clothing. Our stock of Spring Clothing for the little fellows is here. The men's goods will be #### here in a day or so. The Boys will wear neat little coats with collars rather wider than last year, trimmed with silk braid. One particularly handsome suit has a green broadcloth collar with white silk braid. Some of the suits have buttons on the collar for ornaments. Then there's pretty little sailor suits with fancy fronts and halyards with whistle attached. Others are made of Russia crash and woolen crash, all somewhat prettier than any we've ever seen before. Reefer suits will be worn again this Spring, but with wider collars and in somewhat different cloths. Some of the new weaves are extremely handsome, and Scranton's boy population will be better clothed this Spring than ever before-if we sell the suits. Price? Well, its rather hard to particularize, but we can fit the purse as easily as the boy. Say anywheres from two to six dollars for a good wearing, good looking suit.
