BIG VICTORY FOR GENERAL GARCIA

Strong Spanish Force is Routed by the Cuban Patriot.

COLUMN OF 2000 MEN IS DISPERSED

His Army Makes Havoc Among the Spaniards, Who Leave About Half Their Number Dead or Wounded on the Field of Battle .- One of the Worst Defeats Spain Has Suffered.

Manzanillo, Feb. 28, via Hayana, March 7.-The Spanish column of General Vara del Rey, 2,000 men strong, was defeated and dispersed two days ago by the Cuban forces under command of General Calixto Garcia, More than 1,000 Spaniards were left dead on the estate Costomada and the remain ing part of the column entred Manzapillo in the greatest disorder, proving how serious the defent was.

In spite of the art of snatching victory from defeat, in which the Spanish official reports so greatly excel, General silver purchasing law, practically limit-Vara del Rey is obliged to confess his disaster, though finding an excuse in the superior number of the Cubans and the advantage of their position. In his report, known at Manzanillo, though probably it will not be published in Havana, he says that his column was only 1,500 men strong and he estimates the Cubans at over 3,000. The Spanish dead, he says; was 500, and, he adds, that notwithstanding he was obliged to Martin of Barton county in the house retire, the losses of the insurgents were

The battle turned against the Spaniards when General Vara del Rey tried to cross, on his way to Manzanillo, the river Buey, notwithstanding the heavy fire from the Cuban rifles and two canterrible slaughter.

While crossing the river all was disorder and confusion among the Spaniards, and they could not reply to the volleys of their foes. Nearly all their horses were drowned and they had to abandon the more important part of the convoy they were escorting.

A small bridge of wood of which they availed themselves broke down and with it one Spanish cannon sank to the pottom of the river. Other cannon were left on the shore and were captured by the Cubans. On the other side of the river General of panic and confusion to which his sould easily complete their victory. NARROW ESCAPE OF DEL REY.

Vara del Rey himself narrowly escaped being captured, and he owes his salvation to a Spanish captain named Quintero, who bravely protected him with some hundred soldiers from a sudden cavalry attacky by the insurgents In this situation the Spaniards decidrd to abandon the remainder of the convey, which they succeeded in tak-ing across the river, and they hastened their march to Manzanillo. As the object of the Cubans was to rize the convoy, the fight ended there, It lasted eight hours. The Spaniards took two hours to cross the river, and they behaved with great courage during all the battle. Not a single Spanish soldier deserted. All who did not reach Manzanillo were left killed or wounded, on the field. The battle was directed by General alixto Garcia in person, though the great success he obtained was in great part due to the skill of his chief of staff, Colonel Mario Menocal who re reived information about the path which Vara del Rey had decided to folow, and planned the battle, placing the Cubans on both sides of the river Buey. General Garcia took command of the first body and Colonel Menocal of the second, which made the last and decisive attack on the other side of the of Santiago de Cuba so far that even in the fortified towns and seaports where the Spaniards still hold out, his orders are obeyed. Only after paying regular contributions to the insurgent cmy are the merchants of these towns able to import and sell their goods. Payamo is still in the hands of the Spaniards, but the Cubans freely communicate with the town, and the garrison dare not make any sally agains the numerous insurgent bands which swarm around the place.

BOLD CUBAN RAIDERS.

Hayana, via Key West, March 7.-On the night of March 4, about 1 o'clock a band of Cuban patriots mad an irruption into the important town of Guines, Havana province, and with heavy discharges of musketry, forced the garrison to retreat into their barracks and the forts surrounding the town, after taking possession of the same they overran the town, setting He Expects to Resume His Literary fire to lifteen houses and sacking many stores. After accomplishing their bold deed they quietly left the town at The losses sustained by the Spaniards was one killed and two wounded, among the latter being the commander. It is said that the Cubans left three dead in the streets. In order to appreciate the importance of the deed it is necessary to know that Guines has a population now of 16,000 poetry from him. souls, and the garrison exceeded 2,000. Yesterday the parties of Frederico, Nunez and Emilio Loran, 200 strong, surprised seventy laborers of the sugar estate "Neptune," near Marcel, Pinar Del Rio province, in the act of cutting cune. All of them were held prisoners for a couple of hours and finally released, after depriving them of all their clothing. About 9 p. m. on March 2, a party of rebels entered the town of Lascanas, Pinar Del Rio province, looting a store, ourning at their departure thirty-one huts and many stores were also sacked, The military commander, with forty nien of the garrison and a section of volunteers repulsed the insurgents, forcing them to abandon the town. The rebels in their retreat fired a few shots at the troops, but no harm was done.

The limiting clause restricting the action of the extra session "to such communications are may be made by the executive," suggests that possibly the president may limit the objects of the extra session to the passage of the unacted upon appropriation bills and the enactment of a tariff law, the object of which will be, in the words of Mr. McKinley's loaugural address, "to stop deficiencies by the restoration of that protective legislation which has always een the firmest prop of the treasury. A Tour to Washington at Exceedingly Low Rates.

Washington is today the handsomest ity in America, and undoubtedly one of the most beautiful capitals in the world. That grand monumental building, the Capitol, has no counterpart. The new Congressional library, with its statues, its bas reliefs, and its marble halls, is a veritable palace. The great monument, five hundred and fifty-five feet high, is the loftiest memorial shaft in the world, and the National Museum has the reputation of being the most perfect in design for the purpose of any in existence. In point of interest it is second only to the famous British Museum of London. The three-day tours of the Pennsylvania Railroad company are arranged to cover all these points of interest, and many more. The tour of the city is made under the personal escort of an experienced tourist agent, and every facility s afforded for a complete visit.

The next tour of the present series will leave New York and Philadelphia March 11. Round trip tickets, including hotel accommodations and every necessary expense, will be sold at rate of $14.50 from New York, $11.50 from Philadelphia, and at proportionate rates from other stations.
