COMMITTEE'S WORK GREATLY RETARDED

The Members Irritated by the Obstinacy of Dr. Swallow.

THINK HE SHOULD BE COERCED

Senate Enters Into Debate Over the Civil Service Bill--The Poultry Pamphlet Will Be Issued--Various Measures Introduced in the Senate and House.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 9.—Previous to the meeting of the senate this morning at 10 o'clock the sub-committee appointed from the joint committee of the senate and house to investigate the origin, progress and cause of the fire which destroyed the state capitol building, made a report to the joint committee setting forth the refusal of Rev. Dr. S. C. Swallow, now awaiting trial for libel, to give the names of informants as to criminal negligence on the part of the state custodian at the time. The report states that the refusal of Rev. Swallow has greatly retarded the work, and suggests that if he be permitted to go without testifying, the refusal will have the direct result of destroying the power and force of any committee empowered by the legislature to investigate public affairs, or to inquire into matters of vital importance. "We do not wish to be harsh" are the words of the report, "but we feel that the witness should be compelled to give the names of his informants."

These bills were read in place:

By Mr. Osborne—Amending the act providing for the organization, discipline and regulation of the National Guard by authorizing war service in the rebellion to be counted as double in computing the fifteen years' retirement period.

By Mr. Mitchell, of Jefferson—Creating the office of commissioner of excise. This official is to be appointed by the governor for five years. He is to appoint a deputy, who shall receive an annual salary of $2,000. The commissioner is also empowered to appoint a special deputy in each of the counties containing a city of the first or second class, this special deputy to receive $2,000 a year. He may also appoint not more than five agents. He also read in place a bill to restrain and regulate the sale of liquor by clubs, societies, or associations, incorporated or not, to their members or others, and providing for the disposition of the license fees. The license fees to be paid by clubs or associations are as follows: In first and second class cities, $250; in all other cities, $175; in all boroughs, $100; in all townships, $75.

By Mr. White—To authorize the construction of military highways throughout the state.

The act authorizing the appointment of wardens and matrons of county prisons in counties containing a population of 150,000 passed finally.

CIVIL SERVICE BILL.

The senate took up the consideration on second reading of the bill to regulate the civil service of the commonwealth and the cities thereof and of counties having over 150,000 inhabitants, and to provide penalties for violation.

Mr. Osborn objected to minority representation on the civil service commission, and offered an amendment that this feature be eliminated.

The amendment fell.

Mr. Flinn offered an amendment which had for its purpose the extension of the provision to all the counties. As framed it only affects Philadelphia, Luzerne, Schuylkill and Allegheny.

This amendment failed, as did a second amendment, taking in counties of 100,000 population.

A third amendment making the limit 140,000 and supported in vigorous speeches by Messrs. Kauffman and Flinn was also killed.

The yea and nay vote showed the sentiment of the body to be strongly in favor of the bill in its entirety, the vote on the Flinn amendments being 36 nays and 14 yeas.

During the discussion on the amendment to the bill Mr. Grady intimated that Mr. Flinn was endeavoring to obstruct its passage. This brought out a spirited reply from the Allegheny senator that he was not asking any favors at the hands of the senate nor was he asking for much of its time. He knew that he could get business through the senate if he stooped low enough to get under the wire. He was not ready to do that. There were two things he could do, however—he could talk and vote—and he proposed to exercise this right.

The bill passed second reading without amendments.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

When the house was called to order this morning, Dallas Barnhard, the new member from Fulton county, was sworn in.

Among the bills read in place were the following:

By Mr. Jefferies, of Chester—Providing that no license for the sale of spirituous, vinous, mait or brewed liquors shall authorize any delivery of such products by wagons or otherwise outside of the limits of the county in which such license was obtained.

By Mr. Hosack, of Allegheny—Requiring banks chartered under the laws of Pennsylvania to pay interest upon deposits payable on demand, and upon daily balances of deposits subject to check.

The Robb bill, authorizing the election of two assistant assessors in townships and boroughs, was amended and laid over for printing.

The bill creating a state department of mines was under consideration on third reading, when Mr. Voorhees, of Philadelphia, rising to a question of privilege, insisted that the bill should be read by the clerks in its entirety. It was a bill of fifty odd pages, and consumed most of the morning session.

On motion of Mr. Mansfield, of Beaver, the bill was amended by striking out $3,000 and inserting $2,000 as the salary of inspectors. In this form the bill passed third reading.

These bills passed finally:

Requiring tax collectors of boroughs and townships to make monthly returns and payments; repealing the pending act for Lycoming county so far as it relates to meat, oysters, fruit, etc., an act to protect the American flag from insult and degradation.

The bill providing compensation for constables who visit places where liquors are sold was defeated on final passage.

THE POULTRY PAMPHLET.

A message was received from the governor announcing that he had approved the concurrent resolution for printing 15,000 copies of the pamphlet relative to the disease of poultry.

The calendar of bills on third reading and final passage was next considered and the following passed finally:

Relative to actions by parent and child for injury to the person wrongfully inflicted on the child; regulating the practice, bail, costs and fees on appeals to the Supreme court and superior court as amended by striking out the word three dollars and inserting ten, as in the original bill.

Mr. Focht, Union, was given privilege to offer a resolution granting the use of the house Wednesday night to the committee on public roads, to hear Hon. Joseph C. Sibley, Professor John Hamilton and others discuss the question of good roads. The resolution was agreed to.

The following bill were passed finally:

Relative to the removal of poor persons from one district to another; a supplement to an act of 1895, authorizing school districts to aid free public libraries otherwise established; authorizing the purchase by the state of unseated lands for non-payment of taxes for the purpose of creating a state forest reservation.

Mr. Woodruff, of Philadelphia, reported from committee the prison reform bill prepared by General Isaac J. Wister.

JACKSON AND WALLING SICK.

Murderers of Pearl Bryan Afflicted with the Grip.

Cincinnati, March 9.—Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling, who are now held in jail at Alexandria, Ky., awaiting execution Saturday, March 20, for the murder of Pearl Bryan, are both sick and required the attention of a physician yesterday and today. The mothers of both of the condemned men are with them, and will remain until the day of execution.

The condition of neither one of the murderers is serious, and their symptoms of grip are attributed to the bad ventilation of the jail. Governor Bradley has issued orders for troops to be present at the hanging.

Walling today addressed another letter to Governor Bradley appealing for executive clemency on the ground that he had no motive like Scott Jackson in getting Pearl Bryan out of the way.

A Winter Bath in White River

WHAT CAME OF BREAKING THROUGH THE ICE IN A WISCONSIN RIVER IN FEBRUARY.

From the Chronicle, Chicago, Ill.

Five years ago last winter, there was considerable commotion on the banks of the White River, Wisconsin, as a young man named E. N. Halleck, had broken through the ice, and was for some moments lost to view. It was not long, however, before Mr. Halleck came in sight again, and by artistic means was fished from the fluid and restored to society. If the duckling had been all, it would have been well, but unfortunately, the young gentleman contracted a heavy cold, resulting in chronic rheumatism, complicated with disease of kidney and urinary organs.

"For six months," writes Mr. Halleck, "I was laid up, and not able to do anything. During this time I suffered with pains in the stomach and small of the back, and headache, urination was frequent and painful, my heart's action was increased, and I had aches all over my body, and was generally used up. Then I was able to go out, but was a confirmed invalid, and for nearly four years I was in that condition, and expected then that I should always be disabled for nothing that I took gave me any relief.

"In December, 1895, I read an advertisement about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and on speaking of it to Mrs. A. E. Derby, she strongly urged that I should take them, as she said she believed they would cure me. I had been under physicians' care for over two years, but as they did me no good I did not ask their advice about taking these pills, but laid in a supply and began to take them. In about ten days I began to experience substantial relief, and continued to take them for four months, by which time I was cured. The first benefit I obtained was a less frequent desire to urinate, and lessening of that dreadful pain in the back, which ceased altogether very soon. My stomach became comfortable, and my heart's action normal. After the first break my recovery was rapid, and to-day I flatter myself I am a sound man, and able to attend to my business better than I ever could before."

(Signed) E. N. HALLECK.

I, E. N. Halleck, do hereby certify, that the foregoing statement signed by me is true.

MARKETS AND STOCKS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, March 9.—A noteworthy occurrence in the financial world today was the reduction of the dividend on Manhattan stock from a 6 to a 4 per cent. basis. As a result the stock fell about 2 points to 83 and then rallied slightly on statements by President Gould that the road during the past quarter had earned within $20,000 of the amount required for the payment of the usual 1½ per cent. The unfavorable report of the Missouri Pacific had a distressing influence on this specialty and the stock fell from 22⅛ to 20¾. The statement shows a deficit for the year of one and a quarter million dollars. New Jersey Central opened strong, but later fell to 92¾. In the railway group, the Grangers were staidly, but business was on a moderate scale. In the industrials Tobacco advanced sharply to 78½. Sugar declined to 115½. Near the close a demand to cover shorts set in under which the prominent issues recovered anywhere from ⅛ to 1¼. Speculation left off firm. Net changes show declines of ¼@1¾. Total sales were 146,000 shares.

SPANISH LACE SCARFS

You will judge, perhaps, on first thought, but when you know the price you'll not be surprised. Twelve years ago these Spanish Scarfs were in great demand and were worn extensively as a neck and shoulder ornament. And they are good today, as many of our friends who have already bought them tell us for head-gear, if you are going out in the evening, or you can take one of the wide, extra long ones, and make a waist or bodice over a covered ground.

This lot we have are strictly all silk, and many of them are big enough for a shawl. The actual value is from $1.50 to $4.50 each.
