BENEFIT ENTERTAINMENT.

Given in Mears' Hall Last Night for the Bastedo Sisters. benefit given for the Bastedo sisters, in which they took a prominent part, was held at Mears' hall last evening. The talent assisting were persons selected from .vest Side capable amateurs, and taken as a whole, the performance would have been a credit to "professionals." The object of the entertainment offered was to support the children, whose father is afflicted with an injury which ren-ders him incapable of severe manual labor. The attendance was exceedingly small, and it was announced that another similar performance would be given within two weeks. The following programme was given: A comedy sketch by Tommy Robertson, John Sherman and John Saltree; singing and dancing by the two sisters, Carrie and Etta Bastedo: solo singing John Harrington, John Sherman and John Sultry and Robertson in character songs and dances; black face sketch by Miss Edna Holmes; selections by the Tennis quartette, and the comic man, J. J. Salmon, in his extremely funny Welsh imitations.

An enlarged and more complete programme is promised for the next concert given for these children.

ALDERMANIC ECHOES

Last Sunday night, during the progress of a good time, Samuel Divivo assaulted and viciously wounded one Frank Forgino. Both men reside on Scranton street, among the Italian residents of that section. Forgino had a warrant Issued against Divivo and yesterday the hearing occurred before Alderman Owen D. John. No amicable settlement could be reached so Divivo entered ball for his appearance at court. August Kreiger, of North Hyde Park avenue, was committed to fail by Alderman John Wednesday in default of ball, for his appearance in court. Kreiger was charged with non-support and Henry Krebyer, of Frogtown, was fined four dollars by Alderman Kellow Thursday night. He paid the fine yesterday and replaced with a new one the old water pail, which he demolished.

PRICE STREET OPENING.

The board of viewers, consisting of John T. Williams, George B. Carson and Charles T. Olver, met in the council chambers, city hall, yesterday afternoon, to hear evidence from property owners, who will be affected by the opening of Price street. The whole lot, 40x150, owned by Mary Jane Davis, will be used in making the cut as wiil also a triangular section, 20x30x40, of the lot owned by Mrs. Evan J. Davis. The object of the hearing was to reach an appraisement of the valuation of property seized. The owners were represented by Attorneys William R. Lewis and John R. Edwards, and Assistant City Solicitor David J. Davis looked after the city's interests.

KNIGHTS OF MALTA.

At St. David's hall tonight the Electric City commandery, Knights of Malta, will, by special dispensation, exemplify and confer the order's twelve degrees upon a class of forty applicants, and ten degrees upon 172 candidates. Deputy Grand Recorder Davy, of Philadelphia, will officiate and it is expected that the occasion will prove to be a popular West Side beneficial organization. The Ladies' Aid of the Plymouth church will serve a supper to the com-mandery and its friends in the parlors of the church at midnight.

COL. LINDSAY'S RECEPTION.

An informal reception will be tendered Colonel Pattle Watkins-Lindsay, by the members of Post No. 2, West Side Volunteers, this evening. Captain Johns and wife have the affair in charge and will do all in their power to make the colonel feel that she has not been forgotten by her old friends, and that the seeds sown through her labors are bearing fruit. The reception will be held at the Post's quarters on North Main avenue near Jackson street.

BICYCLE GOSSIP.

The West Side Wheelmen are still looking around for a suitable club The item published in an evening contemporary to the effect that they had secured the old Varnes house on North Hyde Park avenue is not true. We know of no more desirable location, being only a block from Main avenue and virtually on the corner of Jackson streect. The boys appreciated these facts but were just a little too late, as Mrs. Knauss, the owner of the property. had re-leased it to its present occupant shortly before the wheelmen made formal application for it.

The Green Ridge Wheelmen are hustling for the success of their benefit which occurs at the Academy of Music next Thursday evening. The attraction is Robert Mantell in "Monbars." The Green Ridge boys have always presented first-class attractions for their benefits, and next Thursday's attraction will be no exception to the rule.

of the Scranton Bicycle club is now a thing of the past. Probably it was the most hotly contested election ever conducted by a local social organization. The popular and smiling Dolph Atherton, as usual, came out on top, but it was a close call nevertheless.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Green Ridge Wheelmen occurred last Tuesday evening. After the general routine of business had been disposed of nomination of officers, to be elected on the first Tuesday of April, were made. The following members were put in nomination: For president, George Mitchell; vice president, R. A.

DUNMORE DOINGS.

Interesting Debate Between D. M. Williams and Victor Pinkney in Boyles Hall.

Resolved, That the advocating of prohibition and total abstinence has done the temperance cause more harm than good.

This was the subject which was debated last evening by D. M. Williams. affirmative, and Victor Pinkney, negative, at Boyle's hall. Dunmore. victory was accorded Mr. Pinkney. Mr. Pinkney is a young man of 17, while Mr. Williams is past middle age and the author of "Williams' Sound Money Theory." The circular which advertised the debate referred to the two warriors as "David and Goliath," and history repeated itself. Mr. Williams brought about the debate by issuing a challenge in The Tribune. Boyle's hall was prettily draped with American flags and there was an assemblage of probably one hundred persons. In the place of Attorney Chas. L. Hawley, who was not present, Jacob Easterline was made chairman. The speakers were given fifteen minutes each in three divisions. Mr. Williams led, followed by Mr. Pinkney, Mr. Williams last night advanced several new arguments. One was his idea of the Scriptural parable of turning wa-

FIREMEN MEET.

The rooms of the J. B. Smith Hose company were comfortably filled last evening by firemen from the several fire companies of the borough. The occasion was a visit of the executive committee of the Volunteer Fireman's association of Scranton. The meeting was called to order by A. E. Vorhis, of the association, who stated the object of the meeting and asked that a chairman be selected from one of the borough companies. Chief James O'Horo was unanimously chosen and after thanking the members for the honor, called upon Isadore Goodman, of Nay Aug Hose company, who told of the benefits offered by the association Remarks were also made by C. Becker, of the Phoenix Hose combany, and A. E. Vorhis. Burgess Burschell was called upon and advised the firemen of Dunmore to join the association. It was unanimously decided that each company present the matter at their next meeting and endeavor to have the department join in a body.

why does Corbett want to mix matters up so?"

Julian found nobody ready to agree with him. Brady came to the scratch at the outset and informed all present that Corbett would agree to anything reasonable. Siler, he said, was not Corbett's preference for a referee, but Jim had faith in the gentleman's discretion and honesty and would not squabble over any ruling which was not downright unfair. When Julian realized that he was alone in the controversy, he appealed to Dan Stuart for Judg ment, agreeing to abide by what th big Texan thought was right.
