

THOMAS REED IS STILL THE LEADER

The Speaker Renominated by the Republican Caucus.

HIS GRATIFICATION EXPRESSED

In Acknowledging the Honor, He Urged the Majority to Pass a Tariff Bill Quickly and Adjourn—A Little Brush Over the Rules.

Washington, March 14.—Thomas B. Reed was unanimously renominated for speaker of the house of representatives at last night's Republican caucus. The attendance of members was unusually large, 192 of the 283 Republicans being present. Mr. Payne of New York, was selected to place Mr. Reed in nomination. He referred in flattering terms to Mr. Reed's popularity in this house. He said that Mr. Reed was nominated when this congress was elected; that he was the choice of the Republican party, and that it was the business of the caucus to respond to this popular demand. When Mr. Payne had taken his seat Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio, who occupied the chair, put the motion, and it was adopted without a dissenting vote. Mr. Payne and Mr. Cannon of Illinois, were designated to escort the speaker, who was seated in his private office to the floor.

As he entered all the members rose to their feet and greeted him with a burst of applause. Mr. Reed bowed his acknowledgments, and standing in the area before the speaker's desk, said: Gentlemen: I am very greatly gratified by your kind action tonight, and shall try to serve your wishes with whatever ability I have. We have again, in the last congress, a politically divided legislative body. The house of representatives will be Republican by a considerable majority, and fresh from the people, will endeavor to carry out their wishes. I do not doubt your determination to do all in your power to bring this session of congress to a speedy close. My duty is simple, and the people expect us to perform it at once, and then leave to them the recovery of the country from the stagnation and depression of business which has retarded the patience of a vigorous and growing people.

What others may see fit to do we do not know, but we have strong hopes that all branches of the government will be accorded to the policy of relief to the people immediately whatever relief their wisdom may devise.

MR. DINGLEY'S REPORT.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, chairman of the ways and means committee of the last house, was called upon to state what had been done in preparation for the work for which an extraordinary session of congress had been called. Mr. Dingley said: I congratulate the Republican membership of the Fifty-fifth congress on the prompt and harmonious manner in which the preliminary work of this session has been accomplished. I trust that it is an augury of the promptness and harmony which will be exhibited in the extra session which will open on Monday. The Republican members of the last house and means committee of the last house, in the extra session which will open on Monday, will endeavor to carry out their wishes. I do not doubt your determination to do all in your power to bring this session of congress to a speedy close. My duty is simple, and the people expect us to perform it at once, and then leave to them the recovery of the country from the stagnation and depression of business which has retarded the patience of a vigorous and growing people.

FLAMES IN A BIG COLLIERY.

It Will Probably Be Years Before Work Can Be Resumed. Pottsville, Pa., March 14.—It is found that the fire in the Middle Creek shaft, near Treanton, which was supposed to have been extinguished on March 5, is still burning. On March 3 an explosion of gas occurred in a pump shaft, and Thomas Barry and Fred Kraus lost their lives. The timber and the falling top coal ignited, and the gangway was closed. Men were put to work subduing the flames, and after forty-eight hours' work it was believed that the fire was extinguished. Men have since been engaged in clearing up the ruins, with the purpose of opening the gangway. Yesterday the shaft, tarred to the top, was again connected to pour water on the burning mass. The flames had gained too great headway and resisted their efforts. It is now found necessary to begin hauling the gangway and openings, which will take three or four weeks, and a steady stream from a large creek pouring into the caverns below, and many more years before operations can again be resumed. The colliery is owned and operated by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company, and is one of the best and largest of its kind in Pennsylvania.

CIVIL WAR IN SAMOA.

Appeals to the Three Powers to Send Warships to Protect Life. Apia, Samoa, Feb. 24, via San Francisco, March 14.—The rebels have attacked the local islands of the Mauao and Apellia, driving out all inhabitants and sacking the Mormon mission under charge of Foster Cliff of Arizona. The government is in nightly fear of an attack on Mafua, the capital, and the loyal district about Apia, and is appealing to the three powers, the American, British and German, to the government, and it is believed the steamer Zealandia carries appeals of the representatives of the three powers to their governments to send warships to protect the lives and property of their subjects. The trouble is all due to the proposal to permit the return of the exiled rebels.

MARKETS AND STOCKS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, March 13.—Speculation at the Stock Exchange today was more active and the market broader than for a long time. The sales amounted to 1,000,000 shares, and the business was unusually brisk. Manhattan, however, was in demand of covering of short contracts, and sold as high as 87 1/2. Chicago, 104 1/2. Western Union was less prominent, the demand from the shorts having abated. Foreign exchange was quiet and steady. L. E. N. & Co., stock brokers, Meads building, room 206, 70-72.

Annexation of Hawaii.

The Programme Which It Is Thought Will Be Adopted. Washington, March 14.—The annexation of Hawaii by joint resolution, as passed by the Senate in 1898, requiring only a majority vote instead of the two-thirds vote required to ratify an annexation treaty, is the programme which prominent Republican senators and representatives expect to see adopted, with the approval of President McKinley, as soon as he is able to give consideration to the matter, as he told Senator Frye and ex-Secretary John W. Foster yesterday would be the case when he had completed the list of appointments imperatively demanded at the concluding congress of the 55th congress. President McKinley will then receive the propositions of the Hawaiian representatives, who are here with an annexation treaty similar to that which Secretary Foster negotiated and President Harrison sent in at the close of his administration, and which was afterwards withdrawn by President Cleveland, and he will also discuss the whole subject with members of the committee on foreign relations and foreign affairs in the senate and house.
