

"77" FOR Grip & Colds West Side Department

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman of Twentieth Street. Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman threw open their home last night to many invited guests in celebration of the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding.

HE, SHE AND IT.

He is known as Tom Frazar. She is his wife and it is a sum of money. The money was the source of a disgraceful scene enacted on upper West Lackawanna avenue yesterday afternoon.

THE CHOR ORGANIZED.

The final organization of the choir to be known as the West Side Choral Society, took place in Lyette hall last Sunday evening.

STATION HOUSE NOTES.

Martin Mangano, of West Lackawanna avenue, was arrested last night, for being drunk and breaking the glass in the house.

YOUR SPRING SUIT.

It's time to begin to think of what it shall be. And where to buy it. So many things to consider in the choosing—style, quality, fit and price.

Scotch Tweeds More popular than ever this spring, and where's the cloth that wears better—or as good.

Bannock-burns A handsome weave that comes in the fashionable plaids and checks. Fit without bulge or wrinkle.

SAMTER BROTHERS

LADIES' AID DIME SOCIAL. The Ladies' Aid of the Plymouth Congregational church held a dime social and supper in the church parlors last evening.

WILL THEY DO IT?

At Bloomsburg Normal school two West Side boys, David Owens and Walter Jones, are in active training for a "walking" match.
